

Women's Activities

and Sandhills Social Events

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE OX 2-6512

Winners at Recent Bridge Parties Listed

Hollywood Bridge Club
Table winners at Tuesday afternoon's regular session of the Hollywood Bridge Club were Mrs. P. P. Pelton, Mrs. L. K. Luff and Mrs. L. Sawyer.

Sandhill Duplicate Club
Teams winning the top three prizes at the Sandhill Duplicate Bridge Club party Tuesday evening were, first, Dr. E. W. Bush and Fred Brindley; second, Mrs. Alice Luman and Mrs. Helene Pavlov, Fort Bragg; and third, Mrs. Jean Edson and Eugene Christian, Saranac, N. Y.

Night of Cards
Winners at the season's final Night of Cards, held last week at the Pinehurst Country Club, were: Mrs. J. W. Allen, Mrs. T. Howard Atkinson, Mrs. Alvie J. Claxton, Mrs. J. Joseph Connor, Mrs. Arthur C. Davenport, Mrs. K. R. Dorries, Mrs. James Douglas, Mrs. John E. Elmendorf, Jr., Mrs. Leslie Gay.

Also, Mrs. Henry L. Graves, Mrs. W. A. Hanna, Mrs. Myron Hill, Mrs. Harry G. Hogan, Mrs. Mary Journey, Mrs. Ralph Leach, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Lindsley, Mrs. William Lowrie, Mrs. Edward L. McKendrew, Mrs. Ralph Page, Miss Ann Brechin, Dr. M. W. Marr, Dr. M. T. Pishko, Collier W. Baird, Charles F. Beran, John R. Burr, True P. Cheney, John P. Dillon, W. B. Foreman, Thomas Hayes, Maurice Hull, Hugh D. Stewart, Alfred Swartz and Clarence L. von Tacky.

Carolina Hotel Party
Mr. and Mrs. Frank deCosta of Southern Pines were winners at the weekly duplicate bridge party held Friday evening at the Carolina Hotel, Pinehurst. In second place were Mrs. W. O. Smith, Cutchoque, N. Y. and Miss Doris Markley, Mason City Ia., and tied for third with Pine Needles guests Mrs. E. A. Painter and Mrs. W. Ostman were Mrs. Jean Edson and Mrs. C. D. May, Southern Pines.

Dogwood Grove Party Fund Raiser for March of Dimes, Heart Funds

Members and friends of Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen circle assembled in the Woodmen hall Tuesday for an evening of fun and fellowship.

The purpose of the party was to raise money for the March of Dimes and Heart funds. The evening was spent in playing games and prizes were given to the winners.

Most of the prizes were made by the members and donated to the circle, among them were aprons, scarves, pillow cases, pot holders, cakes and many other items.

At the conclusion of the games Alvin Adcox, consul commander of Pine Camp auctioned a gaily decorated cake baked by Mrs. Katie Lee. Miss Louise Crain was high bidder and carried the "gold mine cake" home with her.

Mrs. Marcum Figures In Two Ties in Par Seekers Tournament

Yesterday's beautiful weather brought scores of enthusiastic golfers to the Southern Pines Country Club courses, among them, a large group of Par Seekers.

Their tournament resulted in a three-way tie for first place between Mrs. John Hauser, Mrs. Virgil Page Clark and Mrs. Joseph Hiatt.

Mrs. Charles Marcum was low gross winner and she and Mrs. F. H. Underwood tied for low putts. Mrs. Marcum was also tied with Mrs. Hauser for low net.

Girls Auxiliary Studies Home Mission Book

The Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met Monday evening to study the Home Mission book "No Greater Heritage," taught by Mrs. Glenn Cox.

The study concluded with special prayer for home mission work. A chillburger supper, with trimmings, was served by Mrs. Ronald Britt, Mrs. Tom Speers and Mrs. Fred Woodruff.

GA director is Mrs. Maynard Mangum and councilors are Mrs. Walter O'Neal and Miss Margaret Thomasson.

LISA FAITH HOLDER was crowned "Little Miss Southern Pines 1961" before an audience of approximately 200 last Friday night in Weaver Auditorium. The new queen is the petite blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Holder of Lakeview. First runner up was Tyeann Tew, second was Teresa Morrison, third was Karen Smith and fourth was Pam Teeter. A group picture showing all the winners will appear in next week's Pilot.

-- In and Out of Town --

Arden Fobes, who is here with her mother, Mrs. S. D. Fobes for the spring vacation from St. Mary's Junior College, had as guests over the weekend Charlotte Thorne of Littleton and Ann Cameron Bowman and "Buzzie" Miller, of Wadesboro.

Visiting Mrs. J. B. Boyle at her East Indiana home last week were Mrs. Thornton Field of Cranberry, N. J. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Gettysburg, Pa.

D. A. Graham of Ruffin, S. C., spent last week at Moore Memorial Hospital for a check-up and he and Mrs. Graham came to the home of his sisters, Misses Kate and Eva Graham, on Saturday for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Council had as guests from Friday until Sunday their grandchildren, Charles and Jaan Richardson, of Chapel Hill.

Mrs. John E. Elmendorf, Jr. leaves Monday for two weeks in New York City and Washington D. C. She is driving north with Bishop and Mrs. G. Ashton Oldham, who are returning to Litchfield, Conn. after several weeks in Pinehurst. During Mrs. Elmendorf's absence, her Knollwood home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Winston of Chicago. Mrs. Charles de Rham is night here with Mrs. Elmendorf.

Here this week with Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hobbs are Mr. and Mrs. George Conley and Mrs. Christine Gifford and son, Michael, of Sherrill, N. Y. Mrs. Hobbs returned here Monday after spending a week in Montgomery Ala. where her daughter, Patti, has taken an apartment with three sorority sisters from Alabama University for two months while the girls are practicing teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Bulls, Jr., and daughter, Sherron, will arrive today to spend Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denison K. Bulls at Homewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Smith their children, Anna Dell and Buddy, and Billy Bodine, Saturday night attended the North Carolina State Ballet at Fort Bragg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lansing T. Hall of Chattanooga, Tenn. are spending the Easter holiday with his sisters, Misses Geneva and Ruby Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith of Fayetteville were here for the Stoneybrook Steeplechase last weekend and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Overton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson are arriving Tuesday from Virginia Beach, Va. to spend three or four weeks with his sister, Miss Mary Richardson.

Here for the Steeplechase and other weekend social activities, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Younts, were Robert Hilker and his wife, of Gastonia, of Radio Station WCGC (Belmont); Mrs. Doris Brown, representing her Station WKBC, North Wilkesboro; Roland Potter, Station WATA, Boone and Tim Parker and his wife of Charlotte. He is AP Bureau Chief for the Carolinas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Winkelman plan to leave Monday for a short vacation in Florida.

David McCallum is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McCallum, after six months' service with the Marine Corps at Parris Island and Camp Lejeune. The McCallums and David were supper guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McLeod at Fayetteville, and afterwards, attended the performance of the N. C. State Ballet at Fort Bragg.

Brig. Gen. George Stevens (Ret.) and his wife visited his former Princeton college roommate, James Hartshorne at Highland Lodge during last weekend's race meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Robert VanderVoort returned Tuesday after the weekend at The Patricia in Myrtle Beach, S. C. Their children, Glory, Kathy and Bob, visited their grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Medlin in Aberdeen.

Church Honors Dr. C. K. Ligon

Dr. and Mrs. Cheves K. Ligon were honor guests at a picnic given Wednesday evening by members of Brownson Memorial Church in the fellowship hall.

Dr. Ligon was presented a gift certificate and commended for his faithful, unselfish Christian service to the church, which he served for 10 years as pastor, and to the community.

Under his leadership, Brownson Memorial has enjoyed a wonderful record of growth and progress, it was pointed out.

When Dr. Ligon came here in

ANTIQUES FAIR REPORT

Beth Britton, an entry in Friday night's Jaycette-sponsored "Little Miss Southern Pines" contest, later attended the Antiques Fair with her mother, Mrs. V. E. Britton, Jr., and drew the winning name for the door prize.

The winner, Mrs. Anna D. Poole of Raeford, was present to receive the prize, two candlesticks and an ashtray of white native-made pottery.

General Chairman Mrs. Ernest L. Ives spoke briefly of her appreciation to all who had assisted in the success of the Fair in this, its fourth year under sponsorship of the Moore County Historical Association. She then presaged Mrs. W. B. Bodine, executive secretary, who took charge of the door prize drawing.

Attendance at the Fair, held as usual at the National Guard Armory, was rated at about 750, somewhat less than last year. Dealers, however, were pleased as buying was brisker, and all are anxious to return next year.

The canteen, under Mrs. Edward Schneider's expert guidance, did an excellent business and Shaw House also served a great many lunches during the three-day exhibit.

Looking Ahead

CIVIC CLUB BENEFIT

Saturday afternoon, April 1, from 2 to 4 o'clock the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Smith on Route 211 in West End will be open for the benefit of the Civic Club of Southern Pines. The Smiths have a number of rare and unusual plants and several varieties of hybrid azaleas. A small admission fee will be charged.

Transportation from Southern Pines will be arranged by calling OX5-4962. Parking facilities are available in the yard of the West End Baptist Church, across the street from the Smith residence.

ST. MARY'S GUILD

St. Mary's Guild of Emmanuel Church will meet at 2:30 p. m. Monday, April 3, in the parish hall. The president, Mrs. Franz Krebs, will speak on "Altar Flowers," and tea will be served. Visitors are welcome.

DOES MEET

BPO Does will meet Tuesday, April 4, at 8 p. m. at the Southern Pines Country Club.

WILDLIFE CLUB

A Moore County native, Mrs. Kate McPherson Ferguson, will present a program on "Plant Conservation" at the April meeting of the Moore County Wildlife Club, to be held in the Cameron school cafeteria Tuesday at 7 p. m. Ladies of the Presbyterian Church will serve. Persons interested in our county plants are invited to attend.

DAR MEETING

The Alfred Moore Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, meets Saturday, April 8, at 2:30 p. m. at Shaw House. The State report will be given and there will be a musical program. Hostesses are Mrs. Hawley Poole, Mrs. Clinton Smith, Mrs. True Cheney, Mrs. P. P. Pelton and Mrs. F. M. Thompson.

DOGWOOD GROVE

Dogwood Grove No. 253 will meet Tuesday, April 4 at 8 p. m. in the Woodmen hall. All members are urged to attend as final convention arrangements must be made.

New Heir-Rivals

MARY McKAY WILLIAMS

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams announce the birth of a daughter, Mary McKay, March 17. They have two sons, Freddie, five years old and Jeff, three.

AMANDA CAROL HINTON

Mr. and Mrs. T. Steve Hinton of Jacksonville, Fla., announce the birth of twin daughters, who arrived on Wednesday, March 8. Amanda Carol weighed seven pounds, one ounce, and Leslie Carol checked in at seven pounds, eight ounces. The twins have two brothers, who will be three years old and one year old in April.

Mrs. Hinton is the former Phyllis Faircloth, daughter of Worth Faircloth of Pinehurst and niece of Mrs. Verdie Caddell of Southern Pines.

1951, church membership was around 300. Today, it stands at more than 635.

Dr. Ligon accepted the position of executive secretary of Fayetteville Presbytery March 1.

Sausers Hosts at Dinner Party at The Golden Door

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Clare W. Sausser entertained Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Ira T. Wyche, of Pinehurst, and their weekend guest, Mrs. Gustave Franke of Camden, S.S., at dinner Sunday evening at the Golden Door.

INS and OUTS

Spending the Easter holiday with Mrs. Fred W. McBride on Weymouth Road is her sister-in-law, Mrs. Victor Sifton of Winnipeg, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Campbell expect to leave Sunday for New York City after a visit at their East Connecticut Avenue home. Their daughter, Margot, is visiting friends at Eleuthra in the Bahamas.

Martha Caton and two classmates from the Woman's College in Greensboro, who came down for the Stoneybrook Steeplechase and to attend the Duke Glee Club concert Saturday night at Weaver Auditorium, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Caton on Hill Road.

Mrs. Russell Taylor arrived recently from her home in Freehold, N. J. and plans to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beith in Knollwood until June.

Gordon Mitchell arrives home today from Davidson College to spend the spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell in Knollwood. Their son, Maxwell, a student at the local high school, flies south Friday and will spend Easter with his grandparents in Lafayette, Ga.

Miss Barbara Gillis of Mount Olive, a freshman at the University of North Carolina, arrived Wednesday to spend the spring holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eveleth Richardson and other relatives.

What is it Doctor?

At BRYAN DRUG you'll find Charming Easter Cards for your Family and Friends, plus Candy and Novelties for the Easter Baskets, also the very best Prescription Service.

- Easter Bunnies from 79c
- Liquid Diet Aid - Assorted Flavors - 6 for $1.98
- Montag Stationery from 59c
- Ball Point Pens - Doz. - 69c
- Ban Roll-on Deodorant - 2 for $1.07 plus Tax
- Cough and Cold Preparations
- Vitamins — Baby Needs

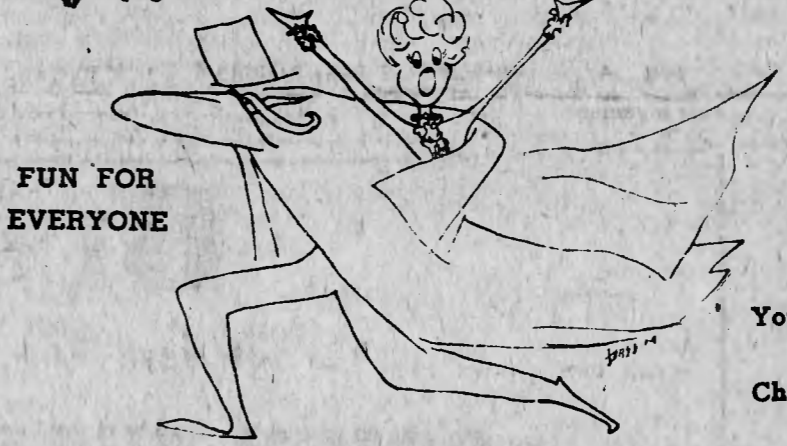

Main Street Aberdeen, N. C.

PINEHURST PLAYHOUSE For Tickets Call CY 4-7051

NOW PLAYING ON STAGE

The Drunkard

FUN FOR EVERYONE

You Are Invited To Cheer The Hero And Hiss The Villian

An Old Fashioned Melodrama

Vaudeville Vaudeville Vaudeville

TICKETS $3.60 $2.65 $1.95 1.50 EVENINGS AT 8:40

SPECIAL MATINEE SAT. AT 2:30 P. M.

Announcing The Opening Of The . . .

ART FLORAL SHOP

145 East Broad Street

Friday, March 31 - 9 a. m.

POTTED PLANTS

Lilies - Azaleas - Hyacinths

Chrysanthemums - Hydrangea

Potted Greens

PERMANENT ARRANGEMENTS — POTTED and SPRAYS

CUT GLASS and NOVELTIES

Lillian Dodson

Open Friday & Saturday nights March 31 & April 1 till 9 P. M.

Say It With Blooms From The Art Floral Shop

(Located in Old Carolina Theatre Building)