

Interest Shown In Tennis Team At Pinehurst

Lewis Cannon, superintendent of the Pinehurst schools, has expressed the hope that the high school will show sufficient enthusiasm in tennis to develop a team this year. "We hope," he said, "to have enough interest to schedule matches with other schools." Tournaments would be under the supervision of the North Carolina High School Athletics Association.

Several student players from Pinehurst will probably go to the state playoffs at Chapel Hill in late May, 1962.

Players interested in places on the projected tennis team, meeting recently with Pro Joe Roddy on the Pinehurst Country Club courts, were: Gary Cameron, Tony, Jack and Jimmy Martin, Kenny Beddingfield, Keith Gerhold, Penny McCaskill, Linda Hinson, Sandra Wicker, Jennifer Owens and John Barry.

THEATRE SUNRISE

Metro - Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Honeymoon Machine" is a riotous farce in the tradition of "Don't Go Near the Water" and "Teahouse of the August Moon." The film will be seen Sunday and Monday at the Sunrise Theatre.

Brimming with laughter and cheer, amusing dialogue and comic situations, it is a story of sailors on a spree in Venice, Italy, with two beautiful girls and a machine named "Max" that they hope will make them millionaires. "Max" is an electric computer by which a U. S. Navy lieutenant, an Ensign and their ship's civilian missile expert plan to break the bank at the Venice casino.

The cast of Hollywood's young "new wave" players is headed by Steve McQueen, one of the screen's and TV's brightest newcomers; Brigid Bazlen, another new face who makes her film debut as Salome in "King of Kings"; Jim Hutton and Paula Prentiss, the happy twosome of "Where the Boys Are," Dean Jagger, Jack Weston and Jack Mullaney.

PORTION OF GARDEN ADJOINING NEW BUILDING

Landscapes, Operated by W. M. Booker, Opens New Garden Center, Midland Rd.

W. M. (Bill) Booker, owner of Landscapes, a general landscaping and outdoor designing business he has operated for the past three years, has opened his new Garden Center on Midland Road, adjoining the WEEB radio station property.

Located on a site of nearly five acres, the Garden Center is open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., with the owner's wife, Mrs. Ellen Booker, in charge as secretary. The modern office and showroom building features walls of glass and interior pegboard on which are displayed a variety of small garden tools, spraying equipment and specialty items. Entrance to the building is through a garden enclosed in bamboo matting, with rocks, pool and a variety of plants including azaleas, camellias, yaupon, magnolia, hybrid rhododendron and a few exotic plants such as umbrella palm and mugho pine, a low-growing plant found in mountain areas but apparently thriving in the Sandhills.

Landscapes has on hand near the Center's office a varied stock of plants and shrubs and Mr. Booker plans to grow more there, but he also expects to obtain much of his stock from specialists elsewhere who, he says, can often produce stock superior to that grown by the general nurseryman.

A "complete garden center" at the Midland Road site is his aim, Mr. Booker says. He will handle, in addition to plants and shrubs, ceramic containers, patio furniture, statuary, fountains, garden lighting equipment, fencing materials and other items. A number of bird houses are even displayed on the showroom wall.

Mr. Booker is particularly proud of his lines of patio and garden furniture and distinctive fencing.

Mr. and Mrs. Booker plan to build a home on the Midland Road site. They are now living on S. May St.

Mr. Booker is a native of Raleigh and a graduate of N. C. State College. Mrs. Booker is from Alexandria, Va. They have two daughters, Leslie, four years old, and Lucy, 18 months.

Littlefield Edges Blue Knights 7-6 In First Conference Contest of '61

The Southern Pines Blue Knights lost their first conference game to Littlefield 7-6, at Lumberton, Thursday night of last week.

Southern Pines scored in the second quarter on a punt return. Littlefield kicked the ball on their own 40-yard line and Eddie McKenzie received it on his own 20-yard line. He ran along the left side of the field to score on a 80-yard punt return.

The Littlefield Falcons scored in the fourth quarter, on a 81-yard drive. The Knights gave the Falcons the ball on downs on their own 19-yard line. Seventeen plays later, Littlefield scored. The longest gain in the drive was for 32 yards on a pass play, which was stopped on the one yard line by Wally Wallace. But it only took one play for the Falcons to score with a run off right tackle.

Wingback Dan Thomas punted three times for a 48-yard average. Littlefield punted twice for an eight-yard average. Southern Pines fumbled twice and Littlefield once. Southern Pines had only 10 first downs while the Falcons had 19.

The penalties were heavy against Southern Pines, four for 15 yards and one 5-yard penalty for a total of 65 yards. Littlefield was penalized 25 yards.

Littlefield led the offensive game with 196 rushing yards and 65 passing yards, completing 6-12 passes. Southern Pines gained 187 rushing yards and 46 passing yards, and completed 6-9 passes.

Although the passing and rushing yardage was short of that gained by Littlefield, Harold Williford, Johnny Bristow and Eddie McKenzie played a very fine offensive game.

The defense failed to hold the Falcons, although Hal Hassenfelt, Larry Michael, Wally Wallace, and Harold Williford played a very outstanding game. Southern Pines is now 1-1 in non-conference games, and 0-1 in conference games. This gives the Knights a 1-2 record and puts them in a tie for last place in the Cape Fear Conference.

St. Pauls Friday
Friday night the Southern Pines Blue Knights play St. Pauls here. Game time is 8 p.m.

Last year, St. Pauls defeated the Knights 20-6 at St. Pauls.

Services Set on Friday For Mrs. Mary A. Wallace

Mrs. Mary Ashburn Wallace, 71, of Vass, Route 2, died Wednesday night at Moore Memorial hospital after several weeks' illness. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at Highland Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Lester English, assisted by the Rev. C. Parker Thomas of Southern Pines. Burial will follow in Richmond Memorial Park near Rockingham.

She was a native of Surry County, who moved to Moore County with her husband many years ago. They observed their golden wedding anniversary this year. Surviving are her husband, F. G. Wallace; two daughters, Mrs. G. G. B. Hadlock of Arlington, Va., and Mrs. Seth Nelson, Sr. of Hampton, Va.; two sons, William, of Rockingham, and James, of Charlotte; nine grandchildren, one great-grandchild and one brother, John Ashburn, of Mayodan.

MacDougall Joins Rotary Club, Then Speaks to Members

John L. MacDougall, administrator of the proposed Episcopal Home for the Aging to be built in Southern Pines, was inducted Friday as a member of the Southern Pines Rotary Club, at the regular luncheon meeting in the Country Club.

Mr. MacDougall then became the speaker of the day, telling club members about plans for the facility to be located on a 13-acre tract on N. Ridge St. He said it is hoped that work on the building can begin in a few months. Applications for residence at the home are not being processed, he said, but names and addresses of interested persons are being taken.

In addition to giving information about the home, Mr. MacDougall spoke on the problems and needs of aged persons.

The administrator plans to open an office soon in the former Dr. Milliken office building which is now owned by the town, corner of Pennsylvania Ave. and S. E. Broad St.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall moved here from Bernardsville, N. J., where they formerly operated a facility similar to the one planned here. Mrs. MacDougall will assist in operation of the Episcopal Home for the Aging.
