Samuel Fryes, Wed Last Saturday, Are Living Near Cameron

Miss Dana Thomas and Samuel Frye were married Saturday, September 16, at the Rose Hill Methodist parsonage by their former pastor, the Rev. T. Fant Steele, Jr.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cortis Thomas of Cameron, Route 1. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Frye of Vass.

Both are 1960 graduates of the Vass-Lakeview High School. The bride attended High Point college. Her husband completed a course in diesel engineering in Tennessee last spring and is presently employed at the McGill Texaco Service Station.

Vows were spoken in the living room before the mantel. Floral arrangements of pink and white late summer flowers were prevalent throughout the room.

Presented for marriage by her father, the bride wore a suit of green brocade with beige accessories and an orchid corsage. She was attended by her mother, her sister, Ann Thomas, and Mrs. T. Fant Steele.

After a wedding trip to the coast the couple is at home on Route 1, Cameron.

Following the ceremony the bridal party were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Steele at the parsonage at a wedding supper.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Lucy Chapman, to Be Wed Here Saturday

Mrs. John Tulloch entertained at a canasta party honoring Miss Lucy Chapman, bride-elect of September 30, at her Pinebluff home last Wednesday.

Upon her arrival, the honoree was presented an orchid corsage. Guests were Mrs. Ralph Chapman, Mrs. Steve Hupko, Miss Shirley McArthur, Mrs. Dan Mangum, Mrs. Howard Troutman and Mrs. Ralph Foushee.

High score prizes were a set of ash trays won by Mrs. Mangum and party coasters won by Mrs. Foushee. Both winners presented their prizes to the honoree. The hostess's gift to Miss Chapman was a silver bon bon dish.

The house was decorated with arrangements of mixed flowers and the hostess served refreshments of lime ice, bridal cakes, nuts, mints and coffee.

Miss Chapman, was entertained on Friday evening by Mrs. E. T. Davidson and Mrs. R. M. Hooper at the former's home in Aberdeen.

Guests enjoyed games of bingo with prizes, forming a complete set of kitchen tools, being presented by the winners to the honoree. Amusing recipes on "How To Preserve A Husband," contributed by the guests, were read by the bride-elect.

The gift table was covered with a lovely white cloth and had a centerpiece of mixed flowers with white tapers in candle holders.

The hostesses served refreshments of lime ice, bridal cakes and nuts. Miss Chapman was presented a corsage of white carnations by the hostesses and a gift of three pieces of china in her chosen pattern.

Friends Invited

Friends of both families are invited to the wedding Saturday at 4 p. m. in St. Anthony's Catholic Church and to the reception immediately following.

Louise Crain Given Surprise Party by Dogwood Grove 253

Fifteen members of Dogwood Grove No. 253 and one visitor, the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle's eastern state manager, Mrs. Georgia Shepard, of Jacksonville, enjoyed a dutch treat supper Saturday night at the Dutch Farm Restaurant near Sanford.

This, the regular social for the month, had a two-fold purpose—besides honoring Mrs. Shepard on her first visit to Southern Pines since becoming state manager, the circle also honored Miss Crain for her years of service to the society.

Not only has Miss Crain served as financial secretary for several years, she also compiled four prize-winning scrapbooks for the circle.

Miss Crain was given a surprise party complete with "This is Your Life," presented by Miss Mary Scott Newton, also gifts from all present and from some who were unable to attend.

Miss Newton introduced Mrs. Shepard who spoke briefly to the assembly. The honorees were presented corsages.

NEW ORGANIZATION'S AIM—TO KEEP ALIVE FLORA MACDONALD'S TRADITIONS

Sunday afternoon, the executive committee and members of the advisory board of a new organization, Flora Macdonald Alumnae Associated, met at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. McPhaul, on Country Club Drive.

They made plans for a general meeting to be held in the spring at Red Springs, location of the small college which has now been closed and consolidated with two other institutions to form the new St. Andrews College at Laurinburg.

With only the best wishes for the success of St. Andrews, the alumnae want to keep alive the memory and entity of Flora Macdonald.

A general meeting had been planned for this fall, but instead the members of Flora Macdonald Alumnae Associated will have community and area meetings, with a newsletter circulated from Red Springs apprising them of general-interest news.

The Flora Macdonald organization has some 400 dues-paid members in most of the 50 states, Japan, Germany and several other foreign lands. They have organized "to keep alive the traditions and perpetuate the values of Flora Macdonald, also to renew and strengthen the bonds of friendship and love which hold us, as alumnae, together," said Mrs. McPhaul.

Flora Macdonald Alumnae Associated had its beginning on the college's final Alumnae Day last June, when the activities of the Alumnae Association were officially terminated in view of the approaching consolidation of three Presbyterian schools. With one of the three, Peace College at Raleigh, resisting in a civil suit, the consolidation has not yet been perfected.

Mrs. McPhaul, the last Alumnae Association president, was elected first president of Flora Macdonald Alumnae Associated. She is the former Jane Stevens Hobbs of Wilmington, Flora Macdonald 1949.
