

WEST END NEWS

By SALLY AUMAN
Wins Trip to Florida

Everette Cole of West End was the winner of last week's Miami Beach vacation for two people. These vacation trips are being given each week by the Red & White food stores in the Charlotte division of which the Red and White Super Market in West End is a member. The trip includes one week's vacation for Mr. and Mrs. Cole at the Carousel Resort Motel directly on the ocean at Miami Beach, free transportation on air conditioned Trailway buses, three all-expense sight-seeing trips, beach parties and other courtesies extended by the motel.

Although the vacation may be taken any time during the year, the Coles are hoping to leave shortly after October 16 since Mrs. Cole, who is relief agent with the Norfolk-Southern Railroad, has her vacation at that time.

Everette is a member of the fire department and active in the American Legion and Priscilla works in the Community Chest and the Sandspur Club and both are active in church work.

Promotion by the Red and White has already been in progress for 13 weeks, with a new winner each week, and will continue for several weeks. Drawings are held each Thursday on the "Arthur Smith" TV Show, Channel 3, Charlotte. Everette thought Leslie Gordon of the Red & White was playing a joke on him when he called advising him of the trip. I took Mrs. Gordon to convince Everette of his good luck.

Community Chest

Community Chest committee and helpers will meet at 6:30 Tuesday (October 14) afternoon for supper at the Presbyterian Church, after which each home in the community will be solicited for donations. At a meeting Tuesday evening, Mrs. Lucy E. Lyons of Charlotte spoke in behalf of the Salvation Army and Hardy Further, field director for Eastern North Carolina United Community Services, gave advice for a successful campaign. Mrs. Tommy McNeill is this year's chairman, Nelson Blue, co-chairman; and James Rector, secretary-treasurer.

Also serving on the committee are Mrs. Bobby VonCanon, Sandspur Club; Francis Currie Jr., American Legion; Mrs. J. F. Sinclair, Woman's Club; W. A. Johnson, Jr., Lion's Club; Roy Swearingen, Fire Department; Mrs. Floyd Upole, Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Paul Tart, Methodist Church and Mrs. Dennis Greene, Baptist Church. Pledge cards are available for the first time this year so that payments can be spaced over a three months period.

Last year, a clothing closet was started which aided many local families not only with clothing but with food fuel and rent money.

The community Christmas tree and a visit from Santa Claus to the fire station and to the Vine-land School was enjoyed by young and old. This was a project of the Community Chest, with the assistance of other civic organizations.

Probably the most outstanding project was the special drive for Mrs. Joy Hicks to return to her home in Hawaii. She and her three children, Rodney, 3; Daryl, 2, and Anthony, 1, boarded a plane early Thursday morning in Charlotte for their return to relatives in Honolulu. This is a result of a community-wide project with community chest co-chairmen Mrs. Everette Cole and Mrs. Floyd Upole, assisted by Miss Alberta Monroe, serving as a steering committee. Mrs. Hicks came to this country some five years ago, but becoming adjusted to the environment in which she had to live here was impossible. Her mother back in Honolulu has been praying for her daughter's return. Her husband, John Hicks is willing to support his family there, so through contributions for transportation, clothing for her and the children, the project became a reality. In West End, we are thankful that its people had such deep love in their hearts for an unhappy Hawaiian girl and would cooperate for such a worthy cause. To this end then, the steering committee would like to express its deep appreciation. The committee also worked with the American Red Cross to provide Mrs. Hicks assistance with the children on stops, especially a long wait in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lena Ladu's eighth grade of the West End School left by car caravan Friday morning for an historical tour of parts of Eastern North Carolina. Teacher and parents driving their cars for the trip, were Mrs. Ladu, Lee Sutphin Mrs. Lee Sutphin, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr., and Erby Sutphin. Those making the trip were Mrs. Rosa Bumpus, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sutphin, with Christine and Neill; Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr. with Libba and Stephen; and Mr. and Mrs. Erby Sutphin and all 26 members of the eighth grade.

The group visited historical places in Edenton, Elizabeth City, Kitty Hawk, Kill Devil's Hill, Nag's Head, Manteo, Lake Mattamuskeet and Bath. They stayed overnight at Nag's Head and the highlight of the trip was a wien-er and marshmallow roast on the beach Friday night. Entertainment was a skit about pirates and Indians, Mrs. Ladu playing the part of an Indian and Mrs. Erby Sutphin, the pirate, having the children find the treasure chest filled with "Lifesavers" and long gay colored balloons. After traveling 731 miles, the group arrived home Saturday night.

Art Exhibit Seen At Gathering of Catholic Laymen

Religious paintings were on display at St. Anthony's Catholic school during the N. C. Catholic Laymen's Association convention last weekend. Shown was an exhibit prepared by the Spaeth Foundation and first displayed at the Liturgical Congress held at Pittsburgh, Pa. last year; also an exhibit of contemporary Christian art in various media.

Another artistic note of the convention was the painting of Madonna and Child by Mrs. John Buchholz which adorned the temporary altar erected at the National Guard Armory for the Pontifical Mass held there Sunday. Also on the altar were thrones especially prepared for the Apostolic Delegate, the Most Rev. Egidio Vagnozzi, D. D., and Bishop Vincent S. Waters of the Diocese of Raleigh. It was the first Pontifical Mass ever held in North Carolina.
