Southern Pines Recorder's Court

Traffic violations made up the majority of cases coming before Judge W. Harry Fullenwider and Solicitor Howard Broughton in recorder's court last Wednesday. There were 16 traffic cases, in all of which a judgment of guilty was given.

Clyde McKenzie, Lakeview, pled guilty to the charge of careless and reckless driving, was found guilty and sentenced to spend 30 nights in the city jail. "If defendant fails to show up, he is to be sent to the Moore Co. jail and 30 days of work."

Alvin Laubscher, Vass, found guilty of speeding, was charged the court costs.

James McNeill, speeding, was leniently treated, (fined cost) following his convincing description of how come he was "speeding." "My car stalled and stalled on Pennsylvania Avenue, and a feller come along and pushed and we got going kind of fast, and he push and push, and I keep her going, and he keep a-pushin'. Now if the police had of just picked HIM up."

Charla Marcum, found guilty of two offenses: speeding and violating her restricted license, (driving without glasses), and being involved in an accident; fined $25. Mrs. Eleanor T. Schneider, involved in the same accident, was convicted of failure to yield and fined the costs.

Nelson Moore Knight, Ft. Bragg, guilty of disregarding a stop sign and violation of his license restrictions, was fined $25 and cost; Richard F. Cobb, Carthage, found guilty of disregarding a stop sign, was fined $5 and cost; Ronald L. Lockhart, found guilty of the same offense, received the same sentence. Silas Douglas, guilty to running a red light, fined the cost; Charles Reed, guilty of failure to yield, fined $5 and cost; Wayne Davis, driving without a license, fined $25 and cost; Jean A. Hunsucker, Raeford, guilty of improper passing, fined $15 and cost.

Silas Asbury Whitaker, Cameron, guilty of careless and reckless driving, was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail. Charles M. Burkett, Elberon, N. J., found guilty of speeding 35 in 20 mile zone, was fined $15 and cost; Vicki D. Hicks, West End, found guilty of racing and careless and reckless driving, was fined $35 and cost.

A note of drama was introduced into the court proceedings with the appearance of Will Gaddy, charged with being a "public drunk," wearing a white handkerchief highwayman style. It developed this was to protect "a gum boil" to which the defendant attributed his generally enfeebled condition. Following considerable chat and a weary but patient lecture by the judge, another 30-day sentence was added to the defendant's lengthening court record. Gaddy was placed under the watchful eye of James Gugh, for whom he has worked, who said he would see that the judge's advice that the defendant should see a physician would be carried out.

Richard L. Bragg, Ft. Bragg, charged with "public drunk," was fined $5 and cost; Daniel Lavorne McCaskill, Carthage, charged with "public drunk," was fined $15 and cost; Johnnie Williams, Robbins, same charge, fined $5 and cost. Clyde C. Tew, public nuisance, fined cost; Billy Ray Johnson, Dunn, not proscribed with leave; William J. Dobbins, possession of liquor with seal broken; fined $5 and cost. Robert Luther Rogers, Carthage, guilty of violating license restrictions; fined $25 and cost; Primus Watkins, Rockingham, guilty of disregarding a stop sign, was fined $5 and cost.

The case of Michael Southard, accused of the unlawful sale of amphetamine drugs, was transferred to the Carthage court.

An unusual case to find on the local docket was that in which Vornie Harrington was accused of assault on a young child with intent to rape. The defendant pled not guilty but the court found probable cause and the case was held for the Grand Jury, with bond set at $750.

One of the shortest dockets to be presented to the local Recorder's Court was that of this Wednesday. Ten cases, most of them for traffic offenses, were handled in record time by Judge Fullenwider and Solicitor Broughton and the local force.

The only case offering any complications was that of Mrs. Wanda M. Carter, charged with failure to yield, causing an accident. The verdict was Not Guilty when it was established that Mrs. Carter had applied her brakes 48 feet from the corner of Indiana Avenue and Harden street, where the incident occurred, whereas the driver of the other car, which she struck, had not braked at all. Mrs. Carter testified that "if I hadn't jammed on my brakes he would have hit me, and hard." No personal injuries were reported and only minor ones to the cars involved. Neither car was speeding. It was noted that there is no stop sign at this intersection, (however visibility is good), and that the Indiana Avenue car was almost across the intersection before it was hit.

Other traffic offenses were as follows: Dewey J. Tillman found guilty of careless and reckless driving, fined $25 and costs; Earl M. Watson, Hoffman, speeding; $10 and costs; Alma T. Cruse, Aberdeen, disregarding a stop sign; fined $5 and costs; Norman Caddell, disregarding a stop sign; $5 and costs; Jerry Lee Guffy, Bessemer City, allowing an unlicensed person to drive car; $10 and costs; Linda Patterson, no valid operator's license; $25 and costs; Paul Hult, Ft. Bragg, no operator's license; $25 and costs; In the case of John Robert Stock, charged with allowing another person to operate his car in a careless and reckless manner, and because of previous failures, his bond of $100 was forfeited.

Virginia Goodwin, Raeford, charged with larceny, was ordered confined in the city jail for

Home Loan to Be Made by Agency

Housing loans made by the Farmers Home Administration have been changed, effective October 15, to include rural non-farm tracts situated in rural areas and communities of not more than 2,500 population. Loans are made for the construction and repair of needed homes of modest size and design and essential farm buildings.

Each loan is scheduled for repayment in accordance with a period not exceeding 33 years. borrower's ability to repay over The interest rate is 4 per cent. Applications may be submitted at the Farmers Home Administration office in the basement of the Courthouse in Carthage.

October features fishing along North Carolina's coast and on inland lakes west to the Great Smokies. The 11th annual Surf Casting Tournament at Nags Head is October 12-14. Bear, wild boar and ruffed grouse hunting begins October 16; dove and marsh hen seasons opened in September.

the balance of the day, until 7:30 p. m. George Rogers and Lewis J. Hnat, Hazelton, Pa., both charged as "public drunks," were fined the court costs.
