

SPECIALTY FOOD FROZEN
 "Freezing frog legs will add variety to Mrs. Bill Hardison's meals and reduce the grocery bill during the year," says Mrs. Frances Darden, home economics agent in Washington County.
 Mrs. Hardison of the Chapel Hill club in Plymouth reported her son had good luck frogging so she froze about 10 pounds of legs. This will be a delicacy since frog legs sell for about $1.50 per pound.

Bride Honored
 Mrs. Ray Schilling, who prior to her marriage on Friday was Miss Glenda Caviness, was honored Wednesday evening, October 4, by Miss Flo Baird at her home on Poplar Street. A white chrysanthemum corsage was pinned on the honoree by her cousin, Miss Linda Wooten.

Guests enjoyed several games of bingo. Prizes were miscellaneous kitchen utensils, presented to the bride-elect. During the evening the honoree was showered with many useful gifts by the guests.

The hostess served refreshments of lime sherbet, decorated cakes and salted nuts. Miss Baird was assisted by Miss Sara McGowan, Miss Lea Caviness, and Miss Linda Wooten.

Bridal Party Entertained
 Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wooten and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Russell entertained members of their niece's wedding party following the rehearsal on Thursday evening, at the Wooten's new home on North Poplar Street.

The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a large white wedding bell. Miss Glenda Caviness, bride-elect, and her bridegroom, Mr. Ray Schilling, cut the first piece of wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Flo Baird poured punch, and mints and nuts were served by the hostesses.

Guests included the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Caviness; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Caviness and W. L. Batchelor. Also, Miss Lea Caviness, Wes Caviness, Mrs. James T. Ward, Mrs. William Rommel, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Neill, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Poole, Mr. Thomas Scott, Andy Scott, Miss Barbara Caviness, Arnold Baker, Oscar Richardson, and Misses Linda, Virginia and Ann Wooten.

Cardinal Book Club
 Mrs. John Bowman was hostess to the Cardinal Book club Thursday evening with 12 members present. Mrs. Tommy Gschwind, president, presided over the business session. Miss June Greer, chairman of the ways and means committee, completed plans for the benefit barbecue and hot dog supper to be held at the Legion Hut on Friday, October 13, from 5:30 to 8 p. m.

Mrs. Garland Williamson, program chairman for the evening, presented the Rev. R. D. Spear, Jr., who spoke on the young people's approach to Bible study. A discussion period followed. The hostess served her guests pecan tarts with whipped cream, nuts and coffee.

Mascots
 The Senior Class at Aberdeen High School has chosen as class mascots for the year Edith Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robbins, and John Talbot (Toby) Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson.

Mrs. McCain Speaks
 Several folks from Aberdeen attended the meeting of the Sunshine Woman's Club at McCain last Tuesday evening to hear Mrs. P. P. McCain, of Wilson, formerly of Southern Pines and McCain give a most informative talk on her trip to Russia during the summer of 1960. Attending from Aberdeen were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lennon and Kay, Mrs. W. C. Neill, Miss Martha McLeod, and Mrs. Frank McNeill.

Library Furniture
 The Aberdeen Grammar School Library has a new look, thanks to the Sandhill Book Club. Their lounge furniture, the divan and two chairs, have been repadded, springs rebuilt, and covered over all with a heavy duty, long wearing plastic material in dark green. For several years the Sandhill Book Club has done one or more projects for the school during the school session.

Briefs
 Mrs. D. J. Hobbs has been called to Reidsville due to the illness of her mother, Mrs. R. F. Carter.

A number of relatives were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Muse. The occasion was a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Muse's father on his 81st birthday and honoring her sister, Mrs. Elsie Frye on her birthday too. Both birthdays occur this month. Joining together for the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Crutchfield of Carthage, parents of Mrs. Muse; Mrs. Elsie Frye and children and Mr. Husley of Carthage; two sisters of Mr. Muse's, Mrs. Doris Leonard, her daughter and son-in-law, and Mrs. Kate Miller, all of Asheboro; and Mr. and Mrs. James Muse and children of Laurinburg.

'62 CHEVROLET JOBMMASTER TRUCKS WITH NEW High Torque Power!

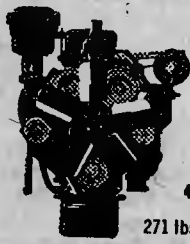

Here's new High Torque power for every weight class—light, medium and heavy... the most powerful engines in Chevrolet history... sure saving power and dependability for every job!

There are plenty of powerful reasons for Chevy superiority. High torque reasons. Reasons that range all the way from a mighty new High Torque 409 V8* for heavies, right down to the thrifty Sixes... including the High Torque 261 Six* that's available for the first time in light-duties.

Loads of other reasons, too. Like the new work styling with downward-sloping hoods that let drivers see up to 10 1/2 feet more of the road directly ahead. Like Chevrolet's proved Independent Front Suspension for even smoother riding, easier working trucks. Like the heavier duty hypoid rear axles for middleweights and the rugged new I-beam front axles* (9,000- or 11,000-lb. capacity) available for extra-tough jobs on Series 80 heavyweights. Like the longer lived mufflers. Like work-proved Corvair 95's (2 pickups and a panel) that haul up to 1,900 lbs. of payload with low-cost dependability and sure rear-engine traction.
