Doors of Robbins Stores Smashed by Vandals, Thieves

Vandals with sticky fingers, or singularly inept thieves, were abroad at Robbins Sunday night, smashing the glass front doors of downtown business places but apparently entering just one. Biggest damage was to the doors.

Deputy Sheriffs H. H. Grimm and I. D. Marley investigating, said scattered fragments indicated a cement block or cinderblock was heaved through the glass door of the M & M service station, leaving a hole through which entry was made. The cigarette machine was broken open and Gilbert Monroe, proprietor, estimated that $25 or $30 in change was taken, along with some cigarettes.

At Maness & Williams Jewelers, a metal milk crate was thrown through the glass, and at Barbara's Beauty Shop, a fruit jar filled with rocks. But at neither place, apparently, was entry effected.

At the Friendly Shop cafe, someone took off the hasp of the back door, which, as it happened, led into a storage room. Nothing, apparently, was taken.

The officers found persons who heard glass smashing about 8:30 p. m. Sunday and at 4 a. m. Monday. Grimm said it isn't certain that the same person, or persons, did all the damage. Some suspects are being questioned.

Brother of Miss Logan. Appointed

William B. Logan of Columbus, Ohio, brother of Miss Mary Logan of Southern Pines, has been named to a panel of consultants to Abraham Ribicoff, Secretary of Health Education and Welfare.

Dr. Logan, who is director of Distributive Education at Ohio State University, is one of 25 panel members who will evaluate educational programs and make recommendations. He is president of the American Vocational Association and is in charge of teacher training for the distributive education program in Ohio.

Miss Logan is supervisor for the Southern Pines and Pinehurst schools.

JACKSON SPRINGS NEWS

This section of Moore County was proud of its young people who played such an outstanding part in the recent YDC Convention. Our own W. E. Graham, Jr. was elected president of the organization after a heated contest. "Dub" Graham has been interested in politics and the Democratic party since he has been old enough to talk, and his home folks are proud of the honor which this capable young man has received.

Leading the delegation from Moore was its YDC president, Elvin Jackson, who seconded the nomination of Graham. In his speech, he declared that Graham was "our own home boy and to beat him you would have to beat Moore County and we are not here to be beat." Elvin was elected chairman of the 8th Congressional District of the YDC's.

Also attending from this section were county YDC officials Leonard VonCanon and Mrs. Harold Blue (Carolyn Harrison) and Harold. The Rev. Leland Richardson, now of Wilmington, was at the convention from New Hanover County; so were Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchard, she's the former Julia Mae Graham; Watts Auman was there from Fort Lee, Va. as was Sam Poole, U.N. C. law student, both on the job in behalf of Graham's campaign.

The above young people are all graduates of the district High School at West End, and we are proud to see them take an interest in politics which is the American way of selecting its public officials. Also attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Graham and Clyde Auman.

Carol Barta, granddaughter of M. A. Clark and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barta (she's the former Miss Azalea Clark) of Little Neck, Long Island, N. Y., has distinguished herself at Eleanor Roosevelt Hall, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, R. I. At the award convention, she tied with a classmate for highest scholastic achievement during their freshman year. Carol was a straight A student and she presented a check from the Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic society, a letter from the dean of students, a letter of commendation from the president of the University, as well as an award certificate. Carol spent several months here a few years ago and attended West End High School.

Vass News

By MRS. CHARLES CAMERON WSCS Program

Circle 2 of the WSCS of the Vass Methodist Church met November 7, in the church fellowship hall with Miss Bessie Cameron as hostess. Mrs. Charlie Gschwind presided. Mrs. H. C. Callahan, program leader, gave an opening meditation and presented the program topic "The Household Of God." Mrs. R. R. Thomas read the Scripture. Program talks were given by Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. J. M. Davis, Miss Ethel Davis, and Miss Bessie Cameron. Mrs. H. A. Borst read an inspiring thought for the evening entitled "Humility's Reward." Mrs. R. R. Bullock presented the Bible study. The hostess served refreshments.

WMS Executives Meet

The annual planning meeting of the Quarterly Executives of the WMS of Vass Baptist Church was held last Thursday evening at the Pinehurst home of Mrs. Fred Taylor.

The hostess served a delicious dinner of turkey and trimmings to the members, Mrs. W. V. Nix, Mrs. Roland Ferguson, Mrs. J. D. Hales, Mrs. Lane Bullock and Mrs. Lofton Peauchamp.

The meeting following dinner was presided over by WMS President Mrs. Taylor—the theme was "Aims for Advancements," and plans for aims to be accomplished during the year were discussed.

The next WMS meeting is planned for early January, 1962.

Woman's Club Meets

Mrs. N. N. McLean was hostess to the Vass Woman's Club at her home Friday night. Mrs. W. J. Morgan presided and conducted a business period prior to the program. Mrs. Charles R. Pope presented the devotion. Mrs. Howard Gschwind, chairman of community affairs, introduced the guest speaker, Miss Annie Jones of the Moore County Welfare Department. Miss Jones gave an interesting and informative talk on the various state-supported institutes. The nominating committee presented the following slate of officers for the coming club year: president, Mrs. Charles R. Pope; vice president, Mrs. W. J. Morgan; secretary, Mrs. N. N. McLean; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Gladstone. The hostess served refreshments to the 15 members and one guest present.

Vass Methodist Men's Club

The Methodist Men's Club met Thursday night in the church fellowship hall, with the members of Circle 2 preparing supper. James Hudson, president, presided and led a discussion on plans for the club for the church year. In the order of old business was the purchase of outdoor flood lights and choir robes for the church, projects of the Club.
