

Rites Held at Pinebluff For Mrs. Kittredge

Mrs. Hazel Waters Kittredge, 68, wife of Thomas Kittredge, of Pinebluff, died Monday at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Graveside services were conducted at Pinebluff Cemetery Wednesday afternoon, by Roland Delano of Pinebluff, first reader of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Southern Pines.

Mrs. Kittredge was a native of Connecticut, and came here with her husband six years ago from Rutherford, N. J.

Surviving in addition to her husband are three daughters, Mrs. Russell O. Hedman and Mrs. William M. Kearney, both of New Jersey, and Mrs. Peter L. Borden of Sunnyvale, Calif.; 11 grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Waldo Honold, Winsted, Conn.

WCSA Meets

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Page Memorial Methodist Church met Monday afternoon, November 13, with the president, Mrs. R. M. Hooper, presiding. Mrs. J. Vance Rowe had charge of the program and gave an interesting talk on the World Council of Churches, assisted by Mrs. G. D. Martin, Mrs. W. U. Barefield, and Mrs. R. S. Gwyn. Mrs. E. L. Pleasants closed the meeting with prayer.

Fayride

The young people of the Baptist Training Union recently donned appropriate attire, climbed aboard a couple of hay-laden trucks and enjoyed a hayride to Womble's Pond for a wiener roast. Chaperones for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Benson, Tracy Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Poole.

Observe Classes

Principal C. Wade Mobley and four primary teachers—Miss Anna Jenkins, Mrs. Curtis McInnis, Miss Elva Norton, and Mrs. John McCrummen—motored to Greenville, N. C. last Tuesday to observe the ungraded primary in the elementary school in Greenville.

Second Birthday

Little Miss Ruth Aleece Overcash celebrated her second birthday at her home on Saturday afternoon, November 18, when she was entertained by her mother, Mrs. Ray Overcash. The children received party hats, horns, and balloons. Aleece was presented a variety of nice gifts. The following guests were served refreshments of cake, ice cream, candy, and lemonade: Diane Floyd, Mrs. Ed Graham and Caroline, Mrs. Jean Holder and Lisa, Mrs. Curtis McInnis and Danny, Mary Kay McNeill, and Mrs. Bob Samuels, Karen and Timmie.

Fifteenth Birthday

Jimmie Garner celebrated his 15th birthday with a party at the Scout Hut Saturday evening. After he opened the gifts presented to him by his guests, the group enjoyed records and dancing. Serving refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. Burns and Becky and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garner and Pammy.

Sixteenth Birthday

Daryl Wynn was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when he was honored at a party at the Legion Hut on his 16th birthday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wynn, and family, did a successful job of keeping the party a secret and Daryl seemed very much surprised. Approximately 50 friends enjoyed dancing and refreshments during the evening.
