

WEST END NEWS

By SALLY AUMAN
Lions Club Installation

Lion Roy Swaringen installed the following six new members of the club at the meeting Thursday evening: W. H. (Dick) Dickerson, Tommy McNeill, R. P. Johnson, Billy McKenzie, T. J. Baldwin, and D. L. Ritter, Jr. Lion District Governor, E. R. Graham of Aberdeen spoke and Vice President Aaron Tyson presided at the meeting.

The Lions' project for a recreation field was presented by Lion Tyson with representatives of other civic clubs attending from the Sandspur Club—Mrs. Allan McDonald, Mrs. Everette Cole and Mrs. Leslie Gordon; from the Woman's Club—Miss Grace Donaldson and Mrs. E. R. Outland and Mrs. Bill Poley; and from the Volunteer Fire Department—Francis Currie, Jr., Paul Tart and Z. B. Conrad. Representatives of the Woman's Club served a turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, in the recreation Hall of the Presbyterian Church.

Troop 27 Project

The Senior Girl Scout Troop 27 worked five afternoons last week assisting with the canteen at Moore Memorial as their volunteer hospital work project. Friday afternoon, the Troop planted yellow flowers in the center of town at the Red and White Store in celebration of the 100th birthday of the Girl Scout organization. They were assisted with the planting by Scoutmaster Floyd Cole and his Boy Scouts.

Following the work the girls entertained the boys at a party at the Methodist youth building with Girl Scout troop committee, Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. Colon Williams and Mrs. E. L. Sutphin assisting. The girls who are members of this enthusiastic troop are Delores Conrad, Brenda Graham, Jane Jackson, Libba Johnson, Becky Markham, Sharon Richardson, Opal Whisnant and Joanne Sutphin.

The Pinehurst-West End neighborhood Girl Scout leaders met Wednesday morning at the Methodist youth building. Mrs. John C. Grier, Jr., of Pinehurst, president presided at the meeting and Mrs. Joy Wright, district director of the girl scout work, of Sanford was present.

WCS Meeting

Mrs. Decatur Richardson gave the worship service at the WCS Monday evening at the Methodist youth building. The program was presented by Mrs. Fred Monroe assisted by Mrs. Aaron Tyson, Mrs. J. F. Sinclair and Miss Alberta Monroe. Mrs. James Rector presided at the meeting and Miss Blanche Monroe and Mrs. John Branson were hostesses.

At Duke Hospital

The Rev. Aaron Tyson and Mrs. M. J. Davis visited the Rev. W. H. Brown who is a patient at Duke Hospital, and Mrs. Brown at the Methodist Retirement Home, in Durham, last week. They are happy to report that the Rev. Mr. Brown is much improved.

Program Given

The Presbyterian Women met Monday evening and a program on the World Council of Churches was presented by Mrs. Glenn Lewis, Mrs. E. R. Outland, Mrs. Harold Markham and Mrs. Clyde Auman. Mrs. R. B. Lewis gave a call to worship. Reports were heard from Mrs. M. C. McDonald and Miss Grace Donaldson on the recent meeting of the Presbytery Women in Lumberton.

Attend District Meet

Attending the district conference at Pinehurst Wednesday from the Presbyterian Church were Mrs. George Houck and Miss Treva Auman, who participated on the program, Miss Bert McCrummen who reported for the local women, Mrs. R. B. Lewis, who was recognized as the incoming local president; and Mrs. Earl Auman, Miss Grace Donaldson, Mrs. E. R. Outland, Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Jr., Mrs. Archie Farmer, Mrs. Fred Frye, Mrs. Thelma Garrison, Mrs. Everette-Cole, Mrs. Floyd Upole, Mrs. Harold Markham, Mrs. Edward Dunn, Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. North Lewis and Miss Tressie Auman.

Personals

Weekend guests of the Edward Dunns were Mrs. Beulah McRae of Rockingham and A2c Leon McRae, who has recently returned from Okinawa and will be leaving soon for his new assignment in Charleston, S. C.

In Charlotte Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson, and Richard, and Miss Grace Donaldson David and Richard visited Frank Watt in the Steele Creek Community and also the boyhood home of David's father, which was built in 1850.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craft announce the birth of a baby daughter, Cynthia Ann, in a hospital in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Mrs. Craft is the former Miss Carol Ritter.

The Thanksgiving Service to be held Thursday morning at 9:30 at the Presbyterian Church, is sponsored annually by the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian congregations. The Rev. Aaron Tyson will bring the message and special music will be given by the choirs of the Presbyterian Church.

Mount Craig is the second highest peak in Eastern America. It is named for Locke Craig, a native of nearby Buncombe County.

JACKSON SPRINGS NEWS

Charlie McDonald has been advised by the Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., that his sister, Miss Mollie McDonald has been airlifted from her mission station at Lubua in the Belgian Congo to Leopoldville. Miss McDonald was reported safe and unharmed but several of her companions were badly beaten in some of the uprisings in that section. Miss McDonald serves as a laboratory technician in a hospital and also trains natives in laboratory technology, especially in the diagnosis of leprosy.

Attending the District VI conference of the Presbyterian Church Women at Pinehurst Wednesday evening were the District vice-chairman, Mrs. John C. Blue; Mrs. Edgar Graham who reported for the local women; Mrs. Charlie McDonald, Mrs. John Patterson, Mrs. A. H. McCall, Mrs. E. J. Blue, Mrs. Woodford Sherrill, Mrs. Paul Cole, Mrs. Ollie Currie, Mrs. Harris Blake, Mrs. Nelson Blue. A highlight for the local women was seeing Mrs. W. A.

Miss Patsy McCrary of Carthage, and David Bobo of Pittsboro have joined the staff of the Moore County Department of Public Welfare, Mrs. Walter B. Cole, director of public welfare, has announced.

Miss McCrary holds the position of stenographer-clerk. She comes to the department with training in the Asheboro Business School and experience in office work in two other agencies. She is a graduate of Carthage High School.

Two Join Moore Dept. of Welfare

Mr. Bobo is a case worker of the Moore County Welfare Department. He is a graduate of Mars Hill College and Baylor University with two years at South Eastern Seminary. His fields of work before social work have been in the ministerial and teaching professions. He has a wife and one child.

Brown, their former pastor's wife. One woman said it was like Christmas.

Charlie Dilling and Herbert Currie were hospitalized last week at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Weekend guests of the Robert Hendersons were Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Herndon of Myrtle Beach, S. C.

The Tom Suthers of Kannapolis spent the weekend at their cottage here.

It was the month before Christmas

Use Our Lay-A-Way Plan For This Christmas. Pay 1/4 Down This Week and 1/4 Each Week Until Christmas. Excellent Selections.

Men's and Boy's Wear

Suits — Sport Coats — Jackets — Sweaters

Shirts — Pants — Shoes — Socks — Etc.

Melvin's Men's Store

Your Brand Name Store

Aberdeen, N. C.

FOR

FUEL OIL
and KEROSENE

Phone WI 4-2414

PAGE and SHAMBURGER, INC.

ABERDEEN, N. C.

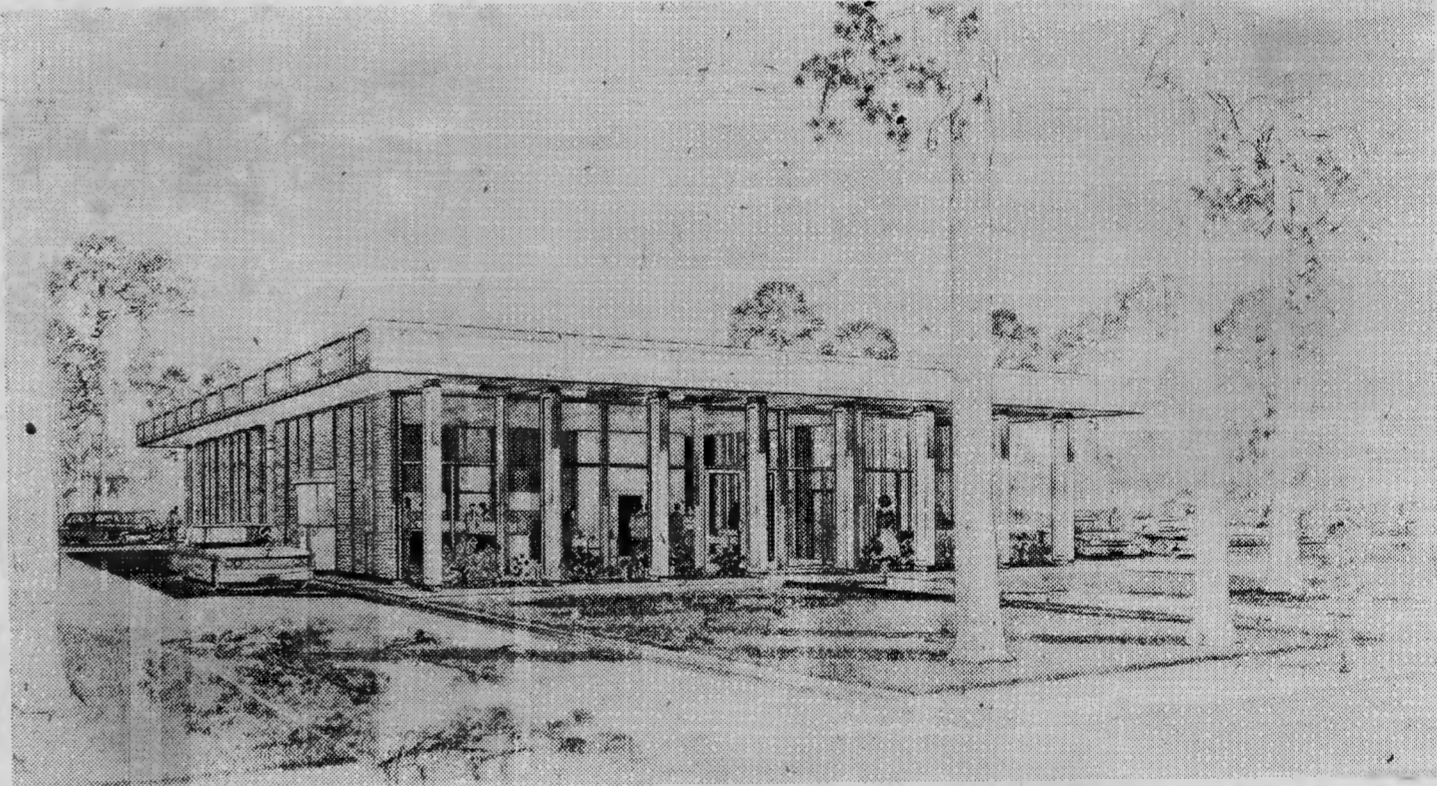

BELLOWS CLUB BOURBON

Kentucky
Straight
Bourbon

$3.95
4/5 QUART

686 PROOF • BELLOWS & COMPANY, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF NEW DRIVE-IN BRANCH

SOON

Two Convenient Locations

132 N. W. Broad Street
Main Office

600 S. W. Broad Street
Drive-In Branch

TO SERVE YOU!

The Citizens Bank & Trust Co. of Southern Pines

Southern Pines, N. C.