JANE OWEN PRAISED FOR STAY IN FRANCE

Moore Girl to Reenter College

"A gay, dynamic blonde with laughing eyes, she is one who has a kind of natural congeniality. She is 21 years old and lives on a farm in North Carolina. Such is Miss Jane Owen, a young American... now visiting in Castelnaudry.

"Thanks to Miss Owen, America is more attractive to us. We now know that behind the money-madness of the immense land of America there are some human beings who resemble us in that which we hold most dear: the pursuit of spreading justice and liberty among all men."

So wrote French journalist Robert Fort in "La Depeche," a Toulouse, France, daily paper, concerning the visit to rural France of Jane Owen, a senior at Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer, and an Elementary Education major, who is sharing in the International Farm Youth Exchange program. Miss Owen is the daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Owen, Route 2, Seagrove, in Moore County. She has returned to the United States from France and will re-enter Pfeiffer at the start of the college's spring semester in January.

Her return to Moore county came two days before Thanksgiving, allowing her to spend the holiday with her family.

During her visit to France the Carolina co-ed shared many of her 4-H Club experiences with French rural youth. She has lived with eight different French families, and appeared before many professional agricultural groups and in numerous radio programs including one over the French national radio network.

Effective

The effectiveness of Miss Owen's work was recently recognized in a letter to her parents by E. T. York, Jr., Administrator of the Federal Extension Service, Washington, who wrote:

"Certainly as a representative of the U. S. Extension Service, I am very proud of an outstanding product of our 4-H program."

In Paris I, along with Jane, attended a reception given at the American Embassy honoring Secretary of Agriculture Freeman and attended by our Ambassador, General Gavin, and North Carolina's Congressman Harold Coolidge. Jane and a sister "IFY" held the spotlight the entire evening."

Miss Owen sailed on June 9 for France. In addition to living in the homes of eight French families, she has taken side trips to Spain, Switzerland, and Italy.

Objective View

The same French journalist, in a dispatch from the Castelnaudry region wrote, "Her trip is not a tourist trip... she has been studying French agriculture, has been intimately involved in the problems of French agricultural workers. It is because she is in close touch with reality that she is acquiring an objective view of living conditions of the French farmer... and reciprocally, the families that take her in are getting a more accurate idea of what rural American people and America itself are like."

Farmers Divert

Wheat and Barley

Acreage in Moore

Wheat and barley producers in Moore County have shown considerable interest in the Wheat Stabilization and the Feed Grain Barley Programs for 1962. To date, 410 farmers have filed intentions to participate in the Wheat Stabilization Program and have reduced plantings of their wheat by 2,680 acres, becoming eligible for advance payments in the amount of $25,190.

Under the 1962 Feed Grain Barley Program, 41 farmers to date have filed intentions to divert 179 acres of barley and are eligible for advance payments in the amount of $1,112.

These acres diverted under the Wheat and Barley Programs will be devoted to conserving land uses for 1962.

All eligible producers that have not signed up to participate should visit the county ASCS office by December 1, as this is the last date for signing up, Walter I. Fields, office manager, said this week.

O'Neil Has New Radio Programs Originating Here

Two radio programs from WFNC radio at Fayetteville, originating at a new studio constructed by Tom O'Neil at his Wedge Inn restaurant on Midland Road, began this week.

In one program, heard on both AM and FM wavelengths, Mr. O'Neil is presenting what he describes as "basically a record show." It is called "Lunch at the Wedge" and is heard Monday through Friday from 12:45 to 1:45 p. m.

A 9 to 10 p. m. program, also Monday through Friday, is heard only on FM and is titled "Uptown Southern Pines." It will feature "music and chit-chat" and will also be conducted by Mr. O'Neil.

"Uptown Southern Pines" is a term originated by Mr. O'Neil to designate the Wedge Inn area which was recently taken into the town limits. He said he expects to have guests on both programs.
