

The Pinehurst Page

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE OX 2-6512

51 Play in Country Club Event for Women Members

Twelve foursomes and a three-some participated in a par-bogey tournament for women members of the Pinehurst Country Club Friday.

Leading the field, with 92 points, were Mrs. Daniel O. Delany, Mrs. John W. Rettew, Mrs. L. Paget Rigby and Miss Margaret A. Lavery.

Four points off the lead, with 88, was the team comprising Mrs. Alfred N. Derouin, Mrs. J. E. Fleming, Mrs. George W. Matheson and Mrs. William H. Schille.

Bracketed at third, with 86, were Mrs. William S. Anderson, Mrs. John W. Lindsay, Mrs. David R. Riach and Mrs. Elbridge S. Sidway.

Winning Teams in Carolina Duplicate Party Friday

A Southern Pines team, Mrs. Jean Edson and Mrs. Roy Grinnell, took first place honors in Friday's duplicate bridge party at the Carolina Hotel. In second place were Mrs. W. O. Smith, a Carolina guest from Cutchoque, N. Y. and Miss Margaret A. Lavery of Pinehurst.

A pair of Carolina guests, Ambassador Douglas Cole of Ottawa, Ont. and Judge James O. Watts of Narragansett, R. I., took the 3rd prize; tied for fourth were Mr. and Mrs. Frank deCosta and Mrs. C. D. May and Mrs. C. H. Bowman, all of Southern Pines.

Winners Score 61 in Tin Whistles Tourney

Saturday's Tin Whistles Club tournament, a stroke play contest for the best ball of all four partners, drew an entry of 54 players.

The four partners turning in the low ball of 61 comprised William S. Anderson, William J. Burke, Alvie J. Claxton and Dennis C. Crotty.

In second place, with 62, were Daniel O. Delany, William B. Foreman, Joseph F. Remington and Harold J. Seymour.

Choirs of Community Church Entertained

Members of the adult and childrens choirs of the Community Church and their families, enjoyed a "Present from Santa-Claus" dinner Tuesday evening in the church's fellowship hall. About 140 attended.

The group sang Christmas songs and carols following dinner.

Cub Scout Leaders Receive Citations

On Saturday, 20 Cub Scouts of Pack 7 went to the Carolina-Virginia football game at Chapel Hill. The boys were accompanied by G. Bevins Cameron, Mrs. Lanie Garner, Mrs. Clarence Edson, Cubmaster and Mrs. E. K. Dudley and Assistant Cubmaster Ray Hensley, who drove Ed Black's car. After eating box lunches in the parking lot, the boys went to Kenan Stadium to watch North Carolina defeat Virginia.

Thirty-two parents of Pack 7 Club Scouts attended the Scout Recognition Dinner at the Armory in Southern Pines Friday night. Citations were presented at the dinner to Cubmaster E. K. Dudley and Neighborhood Commissioner G. Paul Monroe.

Duke Professor To Preach at Village Chapel

The Village Chapel will have as guest preacher at the 11 o'clock service this Sunday, the Rev. Dr. Hugh Anderson, professor of Bible Theology in the Divinity School of Duke University.

Dr. Anderson is a widely-known Presbyterian minister who is in great demand as a preacher and speaker. A native of Scotland, he was educated at Glasgow University and was ordained in the ministry of the Church of Scotland. He served as lecturer in Hebrew and Old Testament at Glasgow University and as pastor of Trinity Church, Glasgow, before coming to this country. He is a dynamic personality and has been especially effective as a speaker on college campuses throughout the country. The public is cordially invited to be present at the service.

Pianist-Humorist Opens Entertainment Series of Pinehurst Forum on Dec. 14

Shearen Elebash, pianist-humorist and often called "the eighth wonder of show business," will be presented by the Pinehurst Forum on Thursday evening December 14, at the Pinehurst Country Club. The performance, open to Forum members and their dinner guests, will start at 8:30, following a buffet dinner at the Club.

According to Lawrence McN. Johnson, chairman of the Forum Program Committee, Shearen Elebash will present a complete one-man revue, his program including everything from spirituals to clever French songs to Broadway show tunes.

In addition, Mr. Elebash will entertain with a group of what he calls his "spectaculars". He will perform "A Night at the Met" in which he spoofs everyone including the tenor, the basso, the soprano, the mezzo. He will take his audience around the world by speaking in eight languages and will do a scene from "Romeo and Juliet" in southern dialect which has been acclaimed by connoisseurs of comedy from coast to coast.

Shearen Elebash was born in Selma, Ala., and at an early age attended the Choate School in Wallingford, Conn. From Choate he went to Yale University where he became an ardent student of International Relations and also got his first smell of grease paint. He was cast as Jack Point in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Yeoman of the Guard." A few years later at Yale, after participating in a series of theatrical performances, he gave up acting and turned to music. As soloist with the University's Glee Club, he toured the United States and South America.

SHEAREN ELEBASH

During World War II, Mr. Elebash served in Europe, India, Burma, China and on Okinawa as an Air Force flying officer. He was awarded the Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross. Capt. George F. Shearwood, president of the Pinehurst Forum, has asked that membership applications be completed and contributions to the 1961-62 season of programs be sent to the Forum office, P. O. Box 31, Pinehurst, as promptly as possible in order that membership cards may be mailed prior to the opening performance on December 14.

Appeal Made by United Christian Service Group

The United Christian Service Fund organization is making its annual Christmastime appeal for donations of money, toys and clothing.

A committee, representing congregations of both the Village Chapel and the Community Church, each year purchases and packs Christmas boxes to deliver to needy families; 150 boxes were delivered last Christmas.

Mrs. James W. Tufts is chairman of the organization; vice-chairman is Gordon Cameron. Mrs. Arthur Lacey and Mrs. John Dixon are committee members. Secretary is Mrs. Duwayne Gadd; treasurer—Frank R. Wells; chairman of Christmas Box committee is Mrs. John R. Burr and committee advisors are the Rt. Rev. Louis C. Melcher, the Rev. R. L. Prince and Mrs. Stuart Patterson.

Donations of clothing may be sent to the Village Chapel between 10 and 12 on weekday mornings.

Toys, which are repainted and repaired by the volunteer firemen may be left at the Fire Station or will be picked up by the firemen on request.

Money, which helps the organization to meet emergencies during the year as well as to supply help at Christmastime, should be sent to the treasurer, Frank Wells.

AWARDS PRESENTATION. A former national doubles tennis champion and Wightman Cup Team member, Mrs. Q. A. Shaw McKean and her son, Robbie, won the weekend round robin tennis tourney at the Pinehurst Country Club.

Following Sunday's play, Albert S. Tufts awarded prizes to the McKean, and to other winners of the fall tennis tournament series. Mr. Tufts is shown in the foreground, giving a prize to another star player in the McKean family, Tommy, who was runner up in another event. Shown left to right in the background are Mrs. Joe Roddey, who accepted the prize for Mrs. Albert N. Snead, unable to be present; Pinehurst Pro Joe Roddey, Mrs. McKean, Robbie, Kenny Beddingfield, Keith Gernold, Bob Pearce and Gary Cameron.

Other winners, unable to be there for the presentation, were Mrs. J. H. Devins and David Drexel, of Southern Pines.

(Hemmer photo)

Silver Foils Club Winners in Better Ball of Pair Event

Mrs. E. S. Sidway and Mrs. Frank K. Stevens posted 66 for the first prize in Tuesday's Silver Foils Club tournament. A stroke behind at 67 to take the runner-up prize were Mrs. Louis R. Porteous and Mrs. Edward Stevens. Forty-four played in the medal play contest for the better ball of pair.

TOP SKEET SHOOTER

Outshooting 17 others in the Pinehurst Gun Club's weekly skeet shooting contest Sunday was Eugene MacDonald of Pinehurst. He brought down 47 clay pigeons which, with his handicap of six, gave him a high score of 53.

Pinehurst School Highlights

By Gene Maples and John Barry

It's finally over—the school annual met its deadline Friday and now the staff can relax.

Basketball Games

Result of the boys' basketball game at Wagram Tuesday night—Pinehurst 47, Wagram 39.

Outstanding scorers for Pinehurst were Marshall Lewis, with 22 points, and Bobby Norton, with 10 points. Wagram's high scorer was Currie, with 17 points.

The Pinehurst girls won against Wagram 44-40. Pinehurst's Judy Cameron was high scorer with 31 points; Wagram's top scorer was Shaw with 25 points.

Both boys' and girls' teams were dubious about victory before their game with Robbins Friday night, but our boys proved better by defeating Robbins 42-41, thus giving Pinehurst boys a total of seven wins so far this season.

Marshall Lewis and Butch Hardy were high scorers for Pinehurst with 20 and 13 points; Freeman put in 11 points for Robbins.

The Pinehurst girls defeated Robbins 41-39 with Judy Cameron again top scorer with 29 points. Our girls are still undefeated also this season.

Seniors Take Tests

The sock hop after the Robbins games was not too well attended by seniors as many were going to take the scholastic aptitude tests on Saturday. Some seniors were up as early as 5:30 that morning to drive to Chapel Hill or Rockingham for the tests.

Attend Football Game

Seven boys, members of the Pinehurst School's Safety Patrol, Saturday went to the Duke-Notre Dame football game at Durham.

The boys—Kemper Fitch, III, Jerry Clapp, Sam Dixon, Ronnie Currie, Ricky Frye, Marshal Lewis and Shelby Stevens—were accompanied by High School Principal J. H. Hankins, Jr. and a teacher, Miss Kate Helms.

TEEING OFF * WITH deNISSOFF

The Ultimate Gift

"Mink—for the girl who has everything" is now a fading fashion fad. Madison Avenue's latest gimmick, "for the man who has everything," is a gold replica of the New York Stock Exchange Building, which can be fitted to the top of his home or office doorway.

Calendar for December

In her book "Family on Wheels," basis of the Broadway musical "The Sound of Music," the Baroness Maria Augusta von Trapp writes nostalgically of trailing through the woods around Southern Pines with her Trapp Family Singers following a concert appearance there, looking for greens to make the traditional Advent Wreath for their bus "home on wheels."

With the Advent Season upon us, it seems the time to list briefly the major events of this period leading up Christmas, and those which follow.

December 8—Carolina Amateur Field Trials at Hoffman.

December 14—Opening program of Pinehurst Forum (See story).

December 14-16—Theatre-in-the-Pines "The Late Christopher Bean" at Pinehurst Playhouse.

December 17—Candlelight Service—70 voices in four choirs presented by Men and Women of Community Church; supper following.

December 19—Christmas program at Pinehurst School Auditorium, with High School Glee Club and Elementary School students.

December 22—Annual Hole-in-One Turkey Shoot at Country Club.

December 23—Village Christmas Party for Children—Carolina Hotel Ballroom.

December 24—Christmas Pageant given by children at Village Chapel followed by Sunday School party.

December 27—14th Annual Donald J. Ross Memorial Junior Golf Championship—Country Club.

December 28—4th Annual Donald J. Ross Son & Father Golf Championship at the Country Club.

December 28—Pinehurst Forum Presents John Jay at Country Club.

December 28—Holiday Dance, Square and Round—Carolina Ballroom.

December 28-30—Parent-Child Tennis Tournament—Country Club Courts.

December 29—25th Annual Informal Mid-Winter Horse Show—Carolina Hotel Riding Ring.

December 30—"Between Holidays Ball" at the Country Club.

Here and Away

Bishop Louis C. Melcher left Wednesday for Nashville, Tenn. and goes from there to Houston, Texas where he will be preaching at Christ Church Cathedral through December 15.

Mrs. Robert S. Harlow returned home this week after attending the National Golf Tournament for Lefthanders at the DeSoto Lakes Golf and Country Club in Bradenton, Fla. last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Marshall B. Wyatt got home Tuesday following a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. Edward Fearney and her family in Gainesville, Fla.

Mrs. Harry Hogg returned Saturday to Barberry Cottage after a stay in Englewood, N. J. Her son-in-law, James Aldridge, who has been visiting in Great Britain for the past six weeks, gets back to New York on the Queen Elizabeth December 14, and will be returning to be with his family here that weekend.

Here for the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wiley L. Garner were their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Garner and their two small daughters. Visiting the family Sunday was the Garners' daughter, Mrs. Russell Walton with her husband, Dr. Walton, and their young son, of Raleigh. Miss Beatrice Barrett, a sophomore at East Carolina College, was the weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett on Fields Road.

Mrs. Edward C. Conlin returns today from Raleigh where she has been visiting friends for the past couple of days.

Frank White, Jr., and Joe Wiseman, of Pinehurst; M. M. Poole of Jackson Springs and John Henry McCaskill of West End are spending this week at Mattamuskeet.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle T. Alverson left last weekend for New York City after a visit at their cottage here, where they plan to return in the spring.

Cadet Carter Burwell of The Citadel in Charleston, S. C., was the weekend guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burwell, Jr.

William J. Burke left Sunday for a short business trip to Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Charles A. Dailey, who has been here with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett, have left for Erie, Pa. where she will spend the next two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hotchkiss of Winston-Salem were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. H. P. Hotchkiss and sisters, the Misses Carole and Anne.

For Your Christmas Gifts

Visit

THE FERRIS WHEEL
GIFT SHOP

OPEN 'TIL 9 THURSDAY & FRIDAY

Theatre Bldg. Pinehurst

Carolina Hotel Beauty Salon

Pinehurst

NOW OPEN

under management of

MRS. BESSIE GARRETT

of Albemarle, N. C.

STYLISTS: RUTH PENDERGRAFT
JERRY NEWTON
SUDIE DORSEY

Ask about our Opening Specials for the Holiday Season

HOURS: 8:30 A.M. to 9 P.M.

by appointment

PHONE CYpress 4-2911

unusual
GIFT
ideas!

JUST ARRIVED
Large Assortment
Christmas Gifts

Lovely Lingerie — Jewelry
Flowered Design Raincoats
Musical Christmas Trees
Beautiful New Holiday Dresses and Evening Dresses

Virginia Davis Landis, Inc.
Village Court Bldg.
Phone CY 4-2361 Pinehurst, N. C.

The Potpourri

Market Square Pinehurst

Looking for the Unusual?

GIFTS FOR EVERYONE ON YOUR CHRISTMAS LIST

Antiques Gifts Bric-a-brac

UNUSUAL
CHRISTMAS TABLE
DECORATIONS

MRS. JAMES W. TUFTS MRS. ROBERT KOHLER