At the Sunday morning worship service at the Vass Presbyterian Church, the Rev. A. C. Trivette, pastor, installed R. A. Edwards and Karl Schweinfurth as deacons.

Circles Meet

Both Circles of the Vass Methodist WSCS held their December meetings in the Church's fellowship hall with programs on "Christmas In The New Testament." In the order of business, the distribution of Christmas Cheer gifts was planned. A social period with refreshments followed each meeting.

Mrs. Charles Gschwind was hostess to Circle 1 on Tuesday night. Miss Bessie Cameron was program leader. Mrs. R. E. Bullock presented a talk on "Christmas on the Writings of Paul," Mrs. David Moe talked on the "Meaning of the Writings of John." Mrs. S. R. Smith read the Scripture and Mrs. W. A. Muse led the closing prayer.

Circle 2 met Thursday night with Miss Carol Foster as hostess. Mrs. Horace Mullinix presided and gave an opening thought for the evening. Mrs. David Moe read the Scripture. Miss Agnes Boggs was program leader, with Mrs. Mullinix, Mrs. James Hudson, and Mrs. Charles Cameron presenting talks. Miss Boggs led the closing prayer.

Woman's Club Meets

The Vass Woman's Club held its December meeting Friday night at the Dixie Inn with Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin. The 16 members and four guests enjoyed a covered dish supper in the dining hall with recorded Christmas music presented by Mary Mac Pope. The impressive evening devotion was led by Mrs. P. A. Wilson who is the district chairman of religion. Mrs. Wilson presented and led the Christmas story, joined by the group in unison.

Mrs. W. J. Morgan presided over the meeting and conducted a business period prior to the program. Mrs. C. P. McMillan, chairman of public affairs, introduced the guest speaker, Miss Hazel Rosser, who showed colored slides of the Holy Land, from her collection made on tours taken while she was teaching in Germany. An exchange of Christmas gifts concluded the program. Members welcomed along with Miss Rosser were Miss Ruth Martin of Sanford; Mrs. David Moe, and Mrs. Bernice Turner, house guest of Mrs. Morgan as guests.
