60 Enjoy Sandhills Woman's Exchange Party in Chapel Hall

Mrs. John R. Sibley Monday entertained 60 members and guests of the Sandhills Woman's Exchange at a Christmas party in Pinehurst's Chapel Hall. Upon arrival, each lady received a red or a white carnation and a present number. The hall was decorated with a Christmas tree and wreaths at the windows and guests were greeted with music appropriate to the season. President Mrs. Robert C. Fisher presided at a short business meeting after which those present exchanged gifts which they had brought and placed under the tree. They were then served refreshments from a table unusually and attractively decorated with an ornamental centerpiece. Mrs. Albert S. Tufts poured punch and Mrs. S. Donald Sherred presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Clarence Von Tacky received the door prize, a Christmas tree table decoration. It was pointed out during the business session that the Exchange now has a book corner, opposite the food counter; a number of books are now on the shelves and others will be added.
