

Chorus, Band of Fort Bragg Will Be on TV Monday

Fort Bragg's Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) Chorus is scheduled to make its television debut Monday, December 18, when it will appear with the 440th Army Band in a program of Christmas music on Durham's WTVY, Channel 11, from 7 to 7:30 p. m.

The STRAC Chorus' "Salute to the Season" is to feature many of the world's most renowned Yuletide songs. Specialist Fourth Class Phillip Kelley is featured vocalist.

The STRAC Chorus was organized a year ago by a small group of men who expressed an interest in choral singing and since that time has made numerous appearances.

Fort Bragg's 440th Army Band, directed by Master Sergeant David Molovinsky, is well known throughout North Carolina, having performed in many parades and similar functions.

WCS Meetings
The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Pinebluff Methodist Church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. O. C. Adcox. Mrs. Adcox, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Joseph W. Adams had charge of the program "Christmas in the New Testament;" she was assisted by Mrs. Marlon Davis, Mrs. Hurley Short and Mrs. Clay Parker. A highlight of the program class was a hymn, "Away in a Manger," sung by the primary class. Nancy McCaskill accompanied them at the piano.

Another special feature on the program was a trio by Jennifer David, Nancy McCaskill and Sheila Hammond. Their number was "Silent Night, Holy Night," and they were accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Troutman. Other Christmas numbers were sung during the meeting.

After the meeting, an exchange of gifts was enjoyed among the members and the guests present. Members of the society brought gifts for the orphanage and also food for a needy family. The hostess for the evening, Mrs. J. W. Pickler, Mrs. Dorothy Brally, Mrs. E. F. Pickler and Mrs. Adcox served refreshments of Christmas cookies, mints, nuts and coffee to the 33 present. Mrs. Julian Scott poured coffee. The house was decorated throughout with Christmas arrangements of greens and red berries. The refreshment table was lovely with a white linen cloth and an arrangement of greens and red berries, with tall red candles in silver holders.

Enjoy Christmas Party

The Young Married Couples Class of Ives Memorial Baptist Church enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Sadie Patrick, on Sunday afternoon. Present for the afternoon of fellowship were the following: the Rev. Paul West, Mrs. Virgil Carpenter, Marie Hefflin, Mr. and Mrs. Brady Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. William King Carpenter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tyner, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Mather, Valeria Averitt and Mrs. Patrick.
