Christmas Program

The activities are many and varied which mark the Yuletide season in West End.

Thursday, December 14, Mrs. Bill Poley will be hostess to the Woman's Club at her home, "Holly Hills," at 8 o'clock. Miss Bert McCrummen will present a Christmas program.

The Sandspur Club will meet with Mrs. North Lewis at 8 o'clock and will make decorations to be used during the holiday season on the hospital trays at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Friday, December 15: Mr. and Mrs. Bobby VonCanon, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cole, and Mr. and Mrs. James Rector will be hosts at a Christmas dance at the American Legion Hut at 8:30.

At 6:30, Santa Claus will be at the Fire Station and at 7:30 at the Vineland School and will have gifts for all the children at both places.

Sunday, December 17: At 7 o'clock, the Joy Gift program will be presented at the Presbyterian Church.

Monday, December 18: The homecoming basketball games will begin at 7 o'clock at the School gym with games with Deep River. The Homecoming Queen will be elected from the following contestants, who have been selected by their classmates to represent their home rooms: 9th grade—Jean Monroe; 10th grade—Judy Williams; 11th grade—Nancy McLean; 12th grade—Linda McNair.

Tuesday, December 19: Mrs. Elizabeth Bartley will present the Junior Glee Club at 7:30 in the school auditorium.

Wednesday, December 20: At 7 o'clock the Junior and Intermediate Choirs of the Methodist Church will present a Christmas Cantata which will be followed by a Candlelight Service having a White Christmas for the less fortunate in the Community. This will be concluded with a visit from Santa Claus at the Youth Building, a tree and refreshments.

Thursday, December 21: The Lions will entertain their wives at a Christmas dinner party, at a place to be announced.

Thursday, December 21: The young people of the Baptist Church will present a Christmas pageant directed by Mrs. Glenn Dunn at 7:30.

The Children's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will have a Christmas party from 5:30-7:30 at the Youth Building.

Friday, December 22: The School of the Presbyterian Church will have a Christmas party at the Church, at a time to be announced.

New Queen

Nancy McLean, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David McLean of Eagle Springs, was crowned the Sweetheart of the Future Farmers Chapter at the Father-Son and Mother-Daughter banquet on Wednesday evening and was presented a gift in behalf of the Chapter by Nancy Williams, 1960-

61 Sweetheart. The Chapter presidents, Phyllis Godfrey, of the Future Homemakers Association, and Roger Green, of the Future Farmers of America, presided at the banquet which was held in the cafeteria aglow with Christmas decorations. Each table was centered with a Christmas arrangement. The individual places were marked by place cards and programs, and each mother received a corsage. The unusual decorations were made by the Future Homemakers.

The Rev. Dan Norman, minister of the Eureka and Lakeview Presbyterian Churches, spoke to the 150 young people and parents on "Youth, Measure Your Values."

Phyllis Godfrey was assisted by Carol Hartsell, Sue Thomas, Barbara Watts, Betty Southern, Gail Garrison, Betty Conrad, Catherine Seago, Clara Cole, Lois Martin, Phyllis Burns, and Sally Vaughn in presenting the FHA creed.

Philip Farmer, Carlyle Cole, Stephen Sisk, Scott Dawkins, and Walter Staley presented the FFA creed. A feature of the evening was a panel discussion: "Does Father Know Best?" with the following participating: Mrs. Elrie Thomas, Mrs. John C. Blue, Mrs. J. D. Hobbs, Galye Thomas, Linda Williams, Linda Godfrey, Archie Farmer, George Sessoms, Wayne Freeman, and Ricky Thomas.

Toasts to the parents were given by Shirley McNeill and Roger Greene with responses made by Mrs. William Jackson and Clyde Auman. Linda Williams, FHA song leader, led the group in singing and music was given by the Livenblues consisting of Max and Wayne Livengood and Fred Blue. To the young people and their advisors, Miss Winifred Kernodle and Wayne Livengood, it was a royal entertainment, a delicious baked ham dinner, and most important, a well-trained group of boys and girls.

The FHA officers are president, Phyllis Godfrey; vice-president, Nancy Sue Smith; secretary, Linda Godfrey; treasurer, Diane Chisholm; recreation leader, Linda Williams; reporter, Sandra Hartsell; historian, Jean Monroe; and Parliamentarian, Frances Pusser.

Give Pageant

The Senior High Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church was host to the Interdenominational Young People on Sunday evening. The president, Nancy Williams, of Bensalem, presided at the meeting and the West End Presbyterian Church presented a Christmas pageant, directed by Miss Bert McCrummen. The young people enjoyed a fellowship supper in the reception hall of the Church.

The Circles of the Methodist Women used "Christmas in the New Testament" as their program at their meetings on Monday evening. Mrs. Vivian Tucker was hostess to the Minnie Morris Circle. Mrs. D. D. Richardson gave the worship and Mrs. E. L. Tart had the program assisted by Mrs. Bob VonCanon, Mrs. Aaron Tyson and Mrs. E. L. Sutphin. The Margaret Brown circle met at the Youth Building with Mrs. John Branson as hostess. Mrs. Paul gave the call to worship and Mrs. Lynn McInnis presented the program assisted by Mrs. J. F. Sinclair, Mrs. Ethel Davis, and Mrs. Richard VonCanon.

Society Meets

The Children's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met Wednesday afternoon at the Youth Building. Mrs. Ethel Davis and Mrs. Paul VonCanon served refreshments.

Christmas Dinner

The Men of the Methodist Church were hosts to the Women at a Christmas dinner on Sunday evening at the Youth Building. Francis Currie, Jr., president of the men's group, was in charge of arrangements, and the program was presented by Fred Monroe, Roy Swaringen, and the Rev. Aaron Tyson.

Choirs Present Anthem

The Junior and Intermediate Choirs of the Methodist Church gave an anthem, "Jesus Is Born," at the Sunday morning worship service.

Presbyterian Circles

The Circles of the Presbyterian Women of the Church met jointly on Monday evening for the general meeting and for the Christmas party. The Bible study was presented by Mrs. George Houck, and Miss Treva Auman showed a film strip in behalf of annuities and relief. Miss Bert McCrummen gave the call to worship and Mrs. R. B. Lewis presided at the meeting. The Church parlor was beautiful with Christmas decorations and Miss Tressie Auman and the following members of her circle served a dainty party plate: Miss McCrummen, Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. Hobson Tucker, and Mrs. Harold Markham. Mrs. Tony McNeill delighted the women with a guessing game.

Soloist

Miriam Gibson sang a solo, "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," at the Sunday morning worship service at the Presbyterian Church.

Volunteer Donors

There were 92 volunteers to give blood on Tuesday when the Bloodmobile made its biannual visit to the School Gymnasium. Because of medical reasons, there were only 75 pints collected. The donors were enthusiastic in doing what they could for this worthy cause.

Daniel Patterson, Jr., was there as usual to give his ninth pint of blood. Broadus Combs, home on furlough from the Air Force, most generously gave blood. The Rev. George Houck, who has donated more than a dozen pints of blood was suffering from hay fever and was one of the 17 rejected.

On Wednesday, one donor thanked a citizen who had urged him to give and declared that he felt much better than before. This is the Bloodmobile's fifth visit to West End and it is hoped that an honor roll of blood donors will be published in the near future. Mrs. J. F. Sinclair was an efficient chairman for the Volunteer Workers and Mrs. Fred Monroe did a commendable job as chairman of the Canteen and a special thank-you goes to Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Sr., who called citizens on the telephone and urged them to donate blood.

Personals

The Rev. and Mrs. Leslie Thompson of Sugaw Creek in Mecklenburg County were Saturday afternoon visitors of Mrs. Minnie Thompson. The Thompsons will move in January to a new pastorate in Brunswick, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sutphin were hosts to a birthday dinner on Sunday for Kay Hackney of Rockingham and Mac Clark of Lumberton. The families here for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Clark of Lumberton, Fred Hackney of Rockingham, the John Thompsons and Mrs. Minnie Thompson.

Broadus Combs is home on furlough on his way from Biloxi, Miss. to Tampa, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Combs are dividing their time with Mrs. Combs in Pinebluff and the Kenneth Monroes at Eagle Springs. Mrs. Combs will accompany her husband to his station in Florida.

Dr. David McLean spoke to the Grammar Grades of the Eagle Springs School last week, on Palestine. This came as a conclusion to the study of that country. Ben Brewer and Byrd Williams are patients at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Tom Alexander of Thomasville visited with Mrs. Bobby VonCanon on Friday. Wednesday overnight guest of Mrs. M. C. McDonald was her cousin, Mrs. R. J. Saville of Arlington, Va.

Miss Sherrie Upole last week completed her training at Torrence State Hospital in Torrence, Pa. On Sunday she returned to her nurse's training at Charlotte Memorial Hospital.

Miss Karen Farmer of St. Andrews Presbyterian College was home for the weekend. Miss Victoria McKenzie is a patient at the Pinehurst Convalescent Home.

ABERDEEN

to North Carolina... a glass of beer means many things

Every month of the year is an "outdoor" season in North Carolina and the pleasure of tramping the fields behind a good dog ranks high in many areas.

Outdoor living invites relaxing comfort and to many this means the added enjoyment of a glass of beer, at the end of the day. In those progressive areas which permit its "legal sale", a glass of beer also means important added tax revenues.
