

Tin Whistles

Winners Listed

Winners in the Tin Whistles Club selected 12 holes tournament, played Saturday, Monday and Tuesday at the Pinehurst Country Club were:

Class A—A. Carl Moser and Daniel O. Delany, tied with 41.

Class B—Dr. E. M. Medlin and Alfred N. Derouin, tied with 40.

Class C—Woody Browning, 40; and Harry M. Taylor, 41.

Forty players took part, seven playing Saturday, 16 on Monday and 17 on Tuesday.

Winners of Bike, Train Announced

Winners of a bicycle and electric train given away by Radio Joe's Radio and TV Service on N. E. Broad St. were chosen Wednesday morning in the presence of three impartial witnesses, announces Joe L. Smith, proprietor of the business.

The two lucky boys are Brad Rush, who got the bicycle and Charles Furr who won the electric train.

VISITING SANTA—When Santa Claus visited West Southern Pines Sunday afternoon, under sponsorship of the Southern Pines Elks Lodge, dozens of children turned out to meet him. The little boy in the hood at center of their home on Popular Street. Guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Mack Wallace poured punch and guests were served fruit cake with whipped cream topping and nuts. The Mobley home was festively decorated for the occasion.

photo seems to have some misgivings about meeting Santa, but another boy, at extreme left, in front, appears to be more confident. (Humphrey photo)

The following persons attended Love and Loyalty Night at Jonesboro Heights Chapter 310, OES, in Sanford Thursday evening: Agnes Wiley, Mrs. Neil Averitt, Miss Lib Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dowless. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Matthews of Chapel, Hill visited Mr. M. S. Weaver, Sr., and Miss Julia Weaver Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Chandler of Charleston, S. C. will arrive Saturday to visit Mrs. J. D. Wimberley.

Mrs. W. H. Dickenson, Sr., Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill attended the wedding of Mrs. McNeill's cousin, Miss DeEtta Olive Jordan, to Mr. David Morris in Apex Sunday afternoon.

Business leaders predict the decade of the Sixties will be the best in history from the economic standpoint.

ABERDEEN NEWS

By Ann J. McNeill

Book Club Meets

The members of the Walter Hines Page Book Club met Thursday afternoon, December 14, in the home of Mrs. E. L. Pleasants on Bethesda Road. Mrs. S. P. Swaringen was co-hostess to the meeting. The hostess based the decorations of the entertainment area on the program theme of the afternoon, the Moravian Christmas. The home was lovely with greenery and candles, using the Moravian Star and Church.

Mrs. W. C. Neill, president, presided over the business session.

Mrs. John Greer presented a most interesting program on the Moravian Christmas and was assisted by Mrs. Brooks Patten, who was dressed in a Moravian costume and lighted the Advent candles. Mrs. Greer told of customs and observation of Christmas in the Moravian community in Winston-Salem.

At the conclusion of the program a small beeswax candle was given to each guest. The beeswax candle is given to all those attending a Moravian Christmas Love Feast.

Special music was presented by a group of children from the Junior Choir of Bethesda Church. They sang "The Friendly Beasts," a 12th century carol and a carol which all Moravian children learn, "How Bright Appears the Morning Star." The following singers were accompanied by Mrs. Neill: Doreen Donathan, Amelia Wicker, Gloria Wright, John Ransdell, John Neill, and Robert Burns.

Delicious refreshments of tea, salad, fruit cake, and Moravian cookies were enjoyed during the social hour.

Junior Womans Club

The Aberdeen Junior Woman's Club met on Tuesday night, December 12. The group met at the Legion Hut to go for a guided tour through the Midland Crafters near Pinehurst.

Following the tour, which aroused great interest in crafts and especially in the unique Crystalwood at Midland Crafters, the club met in the home of Mrs. R. D. Spear. Mrs. R. J. Thompson, president, presided over a brief business session. Hostesses of the evening, Miss June Melvin, Mrs. Mary Greene, Mrs. Norma Jackson, Mrs. Mary McCluskey, and Mrs. Allie Gale, served cranberry punch and Christmas goodies to the members present.

Aberdeen Gardenettes

Mrs. E. R. Graham and Mrs. Harry Watson were co-hostesses to members of the Aberdeen Gardenettes and their husbands in the home of Mrs. Graham on Monday evening.

Following an invocation by Mr. Graham, the hostesses invited the group in to the dining room where a turkey dinner with all the festive trimmings was served buffet style.

During the evening, original Christmas arrangements, made by the club members, were judged by the entire group. Mrs. Graham's religious arrangement, featuring a Madonna and child and open Testament using the theme "Peace on Earth" won first place, and Mrs. Watson's unique Santa Claus arrangement placed second.

The evening ended with group singing around the piano.

Those attending included: Mr. and Mrs. Vann Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Walter DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Reynolds, Mrs. Vivian

Green, Mr. and Mrs. James Reaves, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Samuels; guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill; the hostesses' husbands, E. R. Graham and Harry Watson; and little Miss Caroline Graham.

Mrs. Kirby Honored

Mrs. C. E. Kirby was surprised on Wednesday afternoon when she was guest of honor in the home of Mrs. Robert Gotch. Open House was from 2:00 to 5:30 with 35 to 40 guests attending.

Punch, cookies, and nuts were served by the hostesses, Mrs. C. T. Gale, Mrs. LeRoy McInnis, Mrs. Marie Allen, and Mrs. Gotch.

Mrs. Kirby, who has joined her husband in Knoxville, Tenn., received many lovely gifts during the afternoon.

Mobleys Entertain

Principal and Mrs. C. Wade Mobley entertained the faculty of Aberdeen Elementary and High Schools on Monday afternoon at with our special thanks for your continued loyalty... we say, "Greetings" and

BEST WISHES.

Resort Realty & Insurance Co.

The MacKenzie Building

Southern Pines

Sandhills Builders Supply Corp.

Aberdeen, N. C.

BEFORE INVENTORY SALE STARTING DEC. 26 DRASTIC REDUCTIONS SPORT COATS SLACKS SWEATERS All Heavy Outwear No Charges No Alterations No Lay-Aways THE MEN'S SHOP

Pinehurst, N. C. Next To Holly Inn

The Real Christmas

We wish you a Merry Christmas... but even more, we wish you a Christmas filled with the quiet peace that is the Real Christmas.

We hope your Christmas is made up of those gentle, happy moments which we all treasure so highly, which never seems to fade or tarnish or be forgotten... the kind of Christmas that is priceless down through the years.

Amerotron Co.

ABERDEEN, N. C.