

MOORE OVER QUOTA

U. S. Savings Bond sales in Moore County during November were $39,469. The total bond sales in the county for the year, through November were $39,469. The total bond sales in the county for the year, through November, were $464,699. This is 106 per cent of the county's quota for 1961, said L. B. Creath of Pinehurst, volunteer chairman of the county's bond sales program.

SHAPING PLANTS

Perhaps some evergreen shrubs have gotten unruly and need attention—ligustrum, Burford hollies and others. If they have been neglected, don't try to correct all at once but rather gradually over a year or two. If you ever let pyracantha get out of hand you are in trouble unless it has plenty of room and needs little or no pruning. Keep these plants shaped to suit your notion as they grow.

Vass News And Personals

By MRS. CHARLES CAMERON
Christmas Caroling

On Friday night, some 17 members and guests of the Childrens Missionary Society of the Vass Methodist Church, with their co-leaders, Mrs. Horace Mullinix and Mrs. Charles Cameron, assisted by Mrs. James Grissom, paid cheer calls in the community singing Christmas carols. Afterwards, the party motored to Sanford, where the children delighted in viewing the Christmas scenes and decorations at the McIver home. On returning, they were invited by Mrs. J. A. Hudson to her home where they enjoyed games and an exchange of gifts around the tree. Refreshments of punch and Christmas cookies were served by Mrs.

Hudson from the candlelighted table which held favors of candy cups topped with candy canes.

Covered Dish Supper

The Young Adult class of the Vass Presbyterian Church enjoyed a covered dish supper at the church on Saturday night with an exchange of gifts.

Circle 1 of the Vass Methodist W.S.C.S. enjoyed their Christmas party at the parsonage home with Mrs. David Moe on Thursday night. Games were played with Mrs. Lewis Frye and Mrs. Charles Cameron declared winners in the contests. The hostess served a Christmas salad with crackers and coffee. The revealing of secret pals in the exchange of gifts concluded a joyous evening. Miss Ann Edwards was a guest.

Employees Parties

The employees of the West End Table Company enjoyed a barbecue chicken dinner at the Vass community house on Friday. Jones, Inc. closed for the holidays on Friday and presented their employees with turkeys and a bonus.

On Friday night Angus Mills honored their employees at a supper at the Dixie Inn. Bingo was played with prizes of hams given. Included also were door prizes.
