Max H. Folley, 89

Max Hans Folley, 89, who died Thursday of last week at Moore Memorial Hospital. Dr. W. C. Neill, pastor of Bethesda Presbyterian Church, Aberdeen, officiated, Burial followed in Mt. Hope cemetery here. He died last Thursday at his home "The Clean" ated, assisted by the Rev. C. W. Thursday at his home "The Clearworth of Whiteville, former pasing," in Pinehurst.

tor of the church. Leod. Named as honorary pall-portraits and physical descripbearers were the elders of Beth-tions of the English poet. esda Presbyterian Church and members of the Roman Eagle Macollection of stories centering Company—had lived in recent look. His wife, Mrs. Delta Phillips Fol-wrote the foreward. ley, of Marion, S. C., died in February, 1957.

Four of their six children live Pines; and Mrs. Jere McKeithen with a wide range of hobbies, which besides golf and bridge, in-A son, Max P. Folley, lives at Ra-cluded yachting and angling.

Also surviving are two sisters golfing organization. Also surviving are two sisters. A native of Washington, D. C., daughter of the late Samuel T. highway through it." He also representatives of this group, will H. Folley, who was Aberdeen's first mayor, died at Sumter, S. C., mobile hysiness in Vernature 12 grandellidate. As a young girl, she moved to the Horseshoe and the Governor give a cross-section and history of Leominster, Mass., and in 1913 Williams tomb, making these hisbarber-shop singing in America.

April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to here the following year. He main- the United States with his par- here the following year. He main- the United States with his par- here the following year. He mainents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Mar- tained a summer home at Brookcel Joseph Folley, in 1874. His lin, Maine. father died in Aberdeen in 1939 Surviving are his wife, the for-at the age of 93.

Aberdeen and Fayetteville. He was in the lumber and turpentine business in Alabama came back to Aberdeen to operate a grist mill, returned to the lumber business in South Caro- lights and its many trunks. lina, and, in 1914, established the "Counselors" are selected from Folley Lumber Company at Aber- the choir's "graduates"—boys deen, a planing mill and retail whose changing voices prevent lumber business through which their continued singing with the he became widely known in this choir. Some 10 of these older boys ber milling business many years younger boys. ago. Several years ago, amputahandicaps, Mr. Folley remained be obtained from members of the local Rotary Club. local and world affairs and was beloved by a wide circle of throughout this area. He was an elder of Bethesda Presbyterian Church and a Mason for more than 58 years, with membership in Aberdeen's Roman Eagle Lodge.

W. C. DUNN

(Continued from Page 1) and operated the Aberdeen Fish Southern Pines Recorder's Court Market for the past dozen years. last week: He had been employed on Camp Johnnie Everette Carmichael.

edy in the family. Their eldest guson, Aberdeen, speeding 45 in son, Billy, returning home from 35 zone, $10 and costs; Thomas Korea in 1951 after service with Chiricos, violation of employment the Air Force, was one of more security law, nol pros with leave than 60 men killed in the crash of on payment of costs; Daniel Ray a Globemaster at Moses Lake, McNeill, disregarding stop sign, Cre., the greatest military trans- $5 and costs. port disaster in U. S. history up Victor Headen, Jr., speeding 45 to that time. U. S. Army in Germany, and rish, Aberdeen, no valid opera-Dickie N. Dunn, of Bluffton, Ind.; tor's permit, $25 and costs.

immediately and discard it out- additional provision that the in jail, to work in and around the Richmond, Va. She is his only impossion that the in jail, to work in and around the Richmond, Va. She is his only impossion that the in jail, to work in and around the Richmond, Va. She is his only impossion that the in jail, to work in and around the mediate survivor.

Graveside Service | Funeral Held for Held Saturday for Donald Parson, 79, Succumbs at 80; Poet and Scholar

Funeral services for Donald A graveside service was held Parson, 79, scholar, poet and au-

Mr. Parson won a niche in the Active pallbearers, chosen from literary world with his book, years, founded the Welch Gift and cutting into Chatham west the deacons of the church, were "Portraits of Keats," published in Shop and operated it for over 40 of Carbonton, with several miles Frank McNeill, Jake Bridg- 1953, which brought together in Lynwood Moon and Sandy Mc- one definite work all the known

His latest work was "Fall of the Mr. Folley, who had spent most around intellectual problems at of his life in Aberdeen—where the bridge table. Many of them years at the home of his daugh-longtime friend and fellow bridge rock Ave. and for the past two Paul Butler, on Midland Road player of Parson's in Pinehurst, years, under ownership of Mrs.

umes of poetry, "Glass Flowers" (1936) and "Surely the Author" in the Sandhills: Mrs. Butler and (1944). He was a Shakesperean Alwin L. Folley, of Southern scholar and student of history, mobile business in Youngstown, came to Southern Pines. She was toric attractions available to far in Bern, Switzerland, O., came to Pinehurst to play a member of Emmanuel Episco- larger numbers of people.

mer Frances Arrel of Youngs- who was active for many years don route proposal until after the bers may be ready for official ant the age of 93.

The family lived for several town, O.; one daughter, Mrs. Al- in the commercial and civic life meeting of the Moore and Chat- nouncement at that time. years in Pennsylvania and came bert B. Hunt of Weston, Mass.; of the community; two sisters, ham boards last month. two sons, George Parson of Bos-Folley began work with the rail- ton, Mass., and Don Parson Jr., Mountain Lakes, N. J., and Mrs. road runing north and west from Aberdeen, now part of the Nor-Aberdeen, now part of the Norfolk and Southern System and later worked with the Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad, between

Aberdeen, now part of the Norlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, including Garland Pierce of Southand Rockfish Railroad, between

Aberdeen, now part of the Norlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater worked with the Aberdeen
and Rockfish Railroad, between

Aberdeen, now part of the Norlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchland of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson of Pitchlater Rev. Artuey Parson and land of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson and land of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson and land of Leominster, Mass., and land of Leominster, Mass., and several nieces and nephews, inlater Rev. Artuey Parson and land of Leominster, Mass., and land one great-grandchild.

BOYS CHOIR

(Continued from Page 1)

accompany the choir on each trip, Mr. Folley lost an arm and suf- with each counselor personally fered other injuries in the lum- responsible for a group of eight

"Songs of Yesterday by Men of tion of a leg was necessitated by Tomorrow" is the choir's slogan. a physical condition. Despite his Tickets for the performance can Holdings of Series E bonds are friends and acquaintances now near $38 billion; of Series H, above $6 billion. These are the only two series of U. S. Savings Bonds now on sale.

Southern Pines Recorder's Court

In addition to hearings in two manslaughter cases (reported in a A big man who loved hunting separate story in today's Pilot), C. C. Riders and fishing, known as "Fats" to the following cases were heard by his friends here, he had owned Judge W. Harry Fullenwider in Mackall during World War II, Route 3, Carthage, possession of 0 later runing a fish truck into the non-taxpaid whiskey, one month Sandhills from the Carolina in jail; same defendant, larceny, coast. In addition to the fish mar- judgment as of non-suit, because ket, he had a farm near Aberdeen. of failure of prosecuting witness This was the second major trag- to appear in court; James A. Fer-in 35 zone, disregarding stop sign, The family was originally from $15 and costs; Alwin Leigh Folthe Eagle Springs section of ley, speeding 50 in 35 zone, disre-Moore County, near Samarcand. garding stop sign, pay costs and Wicks Chevrolet Surviving are his wife, Mabel voluntarily walk to and from Lions Club Ann; two daughters, Mrs. Don- work one time, in lieu of fine; Scott Ins. & Realty ald D. Bartlett of Spring Lake Jimmie D. Poindexter, Route 3, Household Store and Barbara, of the home; two Carthage, speeding 70 in 55 zone, Pickett's 5 & 10 sons, Sgt. Charles Dunn, with the $15 and costs; William Lewis Par- S & M Credit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bobby James Patterson, Pine- Fox, Fort Bragg, and John Karl Dunn of Apopka, Fla.; two sis- hurst, affray, one month in jail, Gregory, East Norwich, N. C., ters, Mrs. Bertie D. York of High suspended for 12 months on pay- each charged with public drunk-Point and Mrs. H. E. Smith of ment of $15 fine and costs, not to enness, each to pay $5 and costs; Apopka; and two brothers, Fred be convicted of any similar of Dwight Terry, public drunken-N. Dunn of Plymouth, Fla., and fense or any offense involving ness, one month in jail, suspend-Marvin H. Dunn of Atlanta, Ga. weapons, for 12 months; Larry ed for 12 months on payment of and admired by many persons in Dickerson, Pinehurst, affray, car- $10 fine and costs; James Her- all walks of life. When the needles start falling, rying concealed weapon (knife), man McNeill, assault on female,

Mrs. Frank Welch Rites Held Today

who died at her home on East night, after a long illness.

The Rev. Martin Caldwell, rector of the church, officiated. Burichandising, drew patronage from River on the western route. ner of S. W. Broad St. and New their new bank here.

League

FRIDAY NITE MIXED Results

ern Pines.

Twisters 1, Franthell 3. The Red Hots 0, Joe's Grill 4. C. C. Riders 4, The Frahms 0. Black Garage 3, Bishop & Up-

High Ind. Series, Jerome Almond 578, Jean Safford 518. High Ind. Single, Jerome Almond 244, Joyce Palmer 185. High Team Single, Joe's Grill

High Team Lines, Joe's Grill

Standings w Joe's Grill 301/2 91/2 Franthell 10 Black's Garage 271/2 121/2 Bishop & Upchurch 201/2 191/2 The Frahms 181/2 211/2 17 23 Twisters (incomplete) 12 24 (incomplete) BUSINESSMEN'S NO. 2

Results Pickett's 5 & 10, 4, S&M Credit Scott Insurance & Realty 3, Food Lane Super Market 1.

Lions Club 3, Wicks Chevrolet The Household Store 3, Thomasson Furniture 1.

Scott Ins.) 581. High Ind. Single, same, 214.

High Team Single, Scott Ins. & Realty 915. High Team Lines, same. 2563. Standings

PROPOSED ROAD

(Continued from Page 1)

along the route now followed to the "House in the Horseshoe" but crossing Deep River on a proposed new bridge south of the home Funeral services were held this that is now a state historic site Saturday afternoon at Old Beththor, authority on bridge and afternoon at Emmanuel Episcopal and emerging from Moore into esda Cemetery near Aberdeen for thor, authority on bridge and Church for Mrs. Frank Welch, 80, Chatham near Carbonton. From the Follow 80 who died follow existing Massachusetts Ave. Tuesday roads to Goldston and on to Pitts-

2. The more recently proposed "western" route that would folal was in Mount Hope Cemetery. low existing highway routes to Mrs. Welch, a resident of Glendon and beyond, crossing Southern Pines for nearly 50 Deep River on an existing bridge years. She and her husband also of new road construction, then dere Hotel for many years, with Goldston and on to Pittsboro.

portant aspect of the proposals. routines. Senator Currie, who told the commissioners Tuesday that he week's Forum presentation will courses, to be held in three-hour Garland Pierce, has been located felt "badly let down" after his 10 be Sidney Hellier, accordionist, at 240 S. W. Broad St. The Weich years of effort on behalf of the a native of England, and featured building has been sold to the eastern route, said that the east- most recently with the famous Southern National Bank of Lum- ern route would be of tremendous Montevani Orchestra. Mr. Hellier berton and is being remodeled for benefit to Moore and Chatham will entertain during the regular Witty and sociable, Mrs. Welch velopment a large isolated region Country Club.

Final decision as to the routes ONE MAN will be made by the full Highway Clayton B. Proctor of Fairfield, Commission. Moore commission-appears to be coming from San-court hearing. 501, should the eastern route be ter Franklin McNeill, 16. chosen.

the area of Chatham County through which the western route Chatham board of commission- Court in Carthage. ers is said to be especially interested in that section of his county and to oppose the eastern route reportedly favored by other members of the Chatham board.

E. C. STEVENS

(Continued from Page 1) Mr. Stevens was active in the Chamber of Commerce during the 1920's and 1930's when the town was becoming established as a resort. He was director and president of the Southern Pines Library Association, and assisted in fund-raising for the Boy Scouts and other causes. He was a leader in the Men's Club, and was a charter member and director of the Sandhills Music Association. Springs. He held numerous posts in the Sandhills Kiwanis Club.

He was long active in support of the schools, working on behalf of their athletic programs and other projects. When Weaver Auditorium was built, he was in-High Ind. Series, J. Matthews fluential in a successful movement to enlarge its stage, to accommodate the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra and for other community uses.

In Emmanuel Episcopal Church he was for many years a vestry-L man, and filled such posts as 19 church treasurer and chairman of mittee. From 1941 until 1952 he was sales. For his excellent service he was awarded in 1954 the U. S December 29—A daughter to was performed quietly, without West End. publicity. Also, his private kind- December 30—A son to Mr. and nesses were many, especially on Mrs. Thomas James Howe of behalf of youth. He was loved Pinebluff.

Forum Will Hear Male Quartet, Accordionist

The Southern Aristocrats, an mony, will be featured next uary 8, at the Southern Pines to attend the Monday night meet-Thursday, January 11, in the High School, W. A. Martin, di-Pinehurst Country Club.

tenor; Baxter Westmoreland, Jr., lead; John Elkins, baritone, and ready on hand for this class and Malcolm Campbell, bass. They are as soon as the rest of it arrives prize-winning representatives of an announcement will be made the Society for the Preservation regarding registration. The course owned and operated the Belve- following existing roads into and Encouragement of Barber in Speed Reading is for super-Shop Quartet Singing in Ameri- visors, in industry and business, the Gift Shop in the location of At the Pittsboro session Decem- ca-SPEBSQSA for short. In only he said. the present Style Mart Store. The ber 15, the cost of plan No. 2 was four years this outstanding group shop, a distinctive specialty store listed as some $200,000 less than has been chosen three times to for which Mrs. Welch personal- plan No.-1, largely due to lack of represent the southern area in in- class in Blue Print Reading for ly supervised the buying and mer- need for a new bridge over Deep ternational competition. They the building trades would be of-Mr. Folley, who had spent most of his life in Aberdeen—where from 1914 until 1942 he owned operated the Folley Lumber of the Pinehurst Out- and operated the Folley Lumber of the Dinehurst Out- and operated the Folley Lumber of the Dinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the most impact of the Wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Dinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the most impact of the Wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Wordson operated the Pinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the most impact of the Wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Dinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the most impact of the Wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Wordson operated the Pinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Wordson operated the Pinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Wordson operated the Pinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Wordson operated the Pinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the wordson operated the Folley Lumber of the Wordson operated the Pinehurst Out- and Mrs. Welch at the cost is not the wordson operated the Folley Lumber operated had a wide circle of friends, with in the northeastern corner of SPEBSQSA is an international many close friends among the old- Moore County, as well as an area organization consisting of some He was a past president of the er residents of the community. across the line in Chatham. He 650 chapters and 30,000 members leigh and a daughter, Mrs. W. C. He was a past president of the leigh and a daughter, Mrs. W. C. Tin Whistles, Pinehurst men's The former Lillian Garland, she called the area "the biggest area in the United States and Canada. To the Editor:

An added attraction to next Counties by opening up for de- buffet dinner at the Pinehurst

North Carolina without a The Southern Aristicrats, as top Ways editoric was born February 18, 1881, in North Carolina without a The Southern Aristicrats, as top Mrs. J. H. Levy and Mrs. L. L. Mr. Parson graduated from Har- and Hannah Cannon Garland, at pointed out that the eastern route present a repertoire of comedy Wrenn, both of Siler City; and wir. Farson graduated from har Wrenn, both of Siler City; and wir. Farson graduated from har Callington, Cornwall, England.

Would pass close to the House in and serious numbers chosen to of interest.

As a young girl, she moved to the Horseshop and the Covernor sile. As a young girl, she moved to the Horseshoe and the Governor give a cross-section and history of

Capt. George F. Shearwood, president of the Pinehurst Forum. Born in Bern, Switzerland, S., came to I menurst forum, pal Church and BPO Does, Grove April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and built his home April 12, 1872, Mr. Folley came to golf in 1914, and bu was active in those organizations. eastern route road and that he prior to the next performance in Surviving are her husband, had known nothing of the Glen- order that a complete list of mem-ford interests who seem to fear In another fatal accident case, would like to ask. the road may precede an effort however, Judge Fullenwider to route Highway 15-501 from found probable cause on a man-Pittsboro to Carthage over the slaughter charge. The defendant legging" in this area? This prac-new road rather than through was Paul S. Williams, 29, of Route tice is common in many of the Sanford, as at present. Moore 2, Carthage, driver of an automo- large centers of the Eastern Sea-County commissioners said this bile that overturned on No. 1 board, and flourishes where aniweek they have no intention of highway parkway, December 16, mals ar not protected by proper seeking any such change in 15- killing Williams's nephew, Wal- laws.

(Continued from Page 1) Opposition to the eastern route cause had been found in the local

Williams, who pleaded not Opposition to the eastern route guilty, was ordered held for the s also said to be coming from grand jury under $2,500 bond. The case will probably be calen-biles? dared for trial at the January 29 would pass. One member of the term of Moore County Superior

Police estimated the speed of the Williams car at the time of the accident as 70 miles per hour and said the car traveled 321 feet out of control. Williams denied to officers that he was exceeding the speed limit and said the car turned over when he swerved to avoid two parked cars, one of which was on the highway.

BIRTHS Births at St. Joseph Hospital: December 6-A son to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nickens of Cameron: a son to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ray McDonald of Southern Pines; twins, a son and daughter to Mr. of the Legion post, was master of and Mrs. Bently Jackson of Eagle | ceremonies.

December 8-A son to Mr. and Mrs. Alphone Gaddy of Pinehurst. December 11—A son to Mr. and Mrs. Billie Chavis of Vass; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. David Whitaker of Carthage.

December 17-A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John E. White of Southern Pines. December 19—A son to Mr. and

Mrs. Ernest J. Yarborough of Pinehurst. December 20-A son to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Junior Presby of Carthage. December 24-A son to Mr. and 23 the parish house building com- Mrs. John Franklin Marshall of Aberdeen.

December 27-A son to Mr. and 34 32 Moore County chairman of de- Mrs. Leroy Snipes of Niagara; fense bond, later savings bond, son to Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Har-

Treasury Department's Order of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Gregory of Southern Pines; a daughter to Mr. Much of his community service and Mrs. James B. Talbert of

A Massachusetts farmers ex-Mr. Stevens was married in change soon will market onetake the Christmas tree down same sentence as Patterson, with public drunkenness, three months 1925 to Miss Grace Jenkins of pound and six-pound chicken

Reading Course May Be Given in Special Classes

In announcing registration for aggragation of star performers in commercial classes which will be ation with the local school. the fine art of barber shop har- held at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Janthird presentation of the current rector of the Industrial Education Pinehurst Forum season at the Center, Sanford, said a class in Speed Reading is also contempla-This talented and entertaining ted for residents of the Southern group includes Alvin Connell, Pines area.

Some of the equipment is al-

In addition to Speed Reading, if sufficient interest is shown, a writing to Mr. Martin. 45-hour commercial

The Public Speaking

Dog Law Should be Revoked or Modified

Your editorial on the new dog law in the issue of December 28 1961, was read with a great deal

The items you discused have been thoroughly considered; and your comments and suggestions are pertinent and practical. Obviously, this hurriedly enacted law should be revoked, or drastically modified by amendments as you suggested. "Item number three" deserves some comment. This provision (giving officers authority to shoot vicious dogs) alone is sufficient to warrant revocation or amendment. Our law enforcement agencies are already overburdened

There are a couple of questions. for information purposes, that I

What is younr opinion of the posible development of dog "boot-

How does the threat presented to life, limb, and liberty by dogs compare with the threat posed to life, limb, and liberty by automo-

CLARENCE B. FOSTER, M.D. 139 E. Penn Ave.

MARSHALL

(Continued from Page 1) longer has a home in Pinehurst, she has spent considerable time in the Sandhills during the past two vears. The color guard for the ceremony was provided by the local National Guard company. The Rev. W. K. Fitch, pastor of Culdee Presbyterian Church, spoke the invocation. Benediction was by Kermit Copeland of Pinehurst, chaplain of the 11th District American Legion. George W. Hunt, immediate past commander #### sessions one night per week, will include Beginner's and Advanced Typing, and Shorthand II, an advanced shorthand course.

A minimum of 15 students is required to hold a class. Tuition is $15 per course. The courses are sponsored by the Southern Pines Industrial Committee, in cooper-

ing. They may register at that time, if they expect to take any of the courses.

Ju Life or CAMP A NEW BREAST FORM*

FOR POST-MASTECTOMY

Now a revolutionary solution to a delicate problem. The base of the form is a shaped mound of soft pliable plastic foam. Sealed to this base is a thin, washable plastic shell from which air is natural removed and a self-Sensation.. sealing liquid injected to match the normal natural breast. The liquid refeminine sponds rapidly and appearance silently to the slightest motion-it's so natural even you can forget. The entire form is enclosed in an easily laundered nylon cover for insertion into the pocket of any bra desired. Developed in concert with leading surgeons. Ask about TruLife today. Camp Supports and Appliances are scientifically fitted here by registered fitters. CULBRETH'S Southern Pines Pharmacy (At Railway Station)

Southern Pines

Tel. OX 5-5321

WALL-TO-WALL

BIGELOW

MOHAWK ALEXANDER

Over 200 Samples 50 Rolls to Select From Select From Central Carolinas Largest Stock Select Your Carpet Today — We Install Tomorrow!

Sanford, N. C.

expenses on plumbing repairs, call us. Our skilled, experienced men do every job right the first time. We put a quick stop to plumbing troubles.

Call OX 2-2301 Southern Pines Plumbing & Heating

Southern Pines, N. C.