Local Child, Nine Years Old, Gives Blood for Mother

Liza McConnell, nine-year-old daughter of Judge and Mrs. John D. McConnell of Southern Pines this week became the first child of so young an age to donate blood for medical purposes at Duke Hospital, Durham. There was a special reason for the blood donation, according to information from members of the McConnell family. Liza's mother, Mrs. Margaret McConnell, this week was under treatment at Duke for shingles, and doctors thought that a special type of antibodies contained in the blood of a person who had had chicken pox might help her condition. As it happened, Liza had chicken pox a few months ago and was therefore, also being in the family, chosen to help with the experiment. The blood donation was made Tuesday.

Home Demonstration Eagle Springs Club

The February meeting of the Eagle Springs Club was in the home of Mrs. Herbert Post. Mrs. Post gave the lesson, "Care of Your Clothes." One new member joined our club, Mrs. Bobby Caddell. We were also glad to have Mrs. Frank Blake, back from a trip to Florida, with us. Mrs. Post served Valentine refreshments. The March club meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Roy Williams. All members are urged to attend. —By Mrs. Frank Campbell Eagle Springs Club

Thagards Club

The Thagards Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Richard Matthews. There were nine members present. Our biggest discussion was on how to rid our lawns of wild onions. It seemed no one had a pamphlet on it. Our clothing leader, Mrs. Richard Matthews, gave the lesson on "Care For Your Clothes." A Valentine's Day game was played. We were served coffee, cold drinks and a home made coconut cake. —By Mrs. Ruby Matthews Public Relations Leader
