

SUNRISE THEATRE

"Pocketful of Miracles," opens Sunday, to run through Tuesday at the Sunrise Theatre, through United Artists release. Filmed in Panavision and Eastman Color, the comedy, produced and directed by Frank Capra, is in his great tradition of movie magic for which he has won three Academy Awards. It is based on a story by Damon Runyon and stars Glenn Ford, Bette Davis, Hope Lange, Arthur O'Connell and co-stars Peter Falk, Thomas Mitchell, Edward Everett Horton and Mickey Shaughnessy.

For his latest miracle, Capra rubs a magic lamp—in this case a shiny red apple—and we have

Glenn Ford, as Dave the Dude, buying an apple a day for gambler's luck, from

Bette Davis, as Apple Annie, a Broadway character who writes phony society letters to her daughter in Spain until the girl's imminent arrival causes

Hope Lange, as Queenie,

Called Meeting

Mrs. A. J. Hanner had a meeting Thursday night in behalf of the summer recreation program. Her committee would like to know the desires of different individuals for organized summer recreation. The committee is composed of the following members who would like local citizens to express themselves to any one of them: Earl Auman, John Thompson, Mrs. Everette Cole, Tommy McNeill, the Rev. George Houck, the Rev. Aaron Tyson and the Rev. Clifton Tuttle.

Surprise Party
The Women of the Baptist

Glenn's girl-friend, and more than a few Broadway guys and dolls with hearts of gold, to transform Bette into the grandest society doll of them all.

This warm-hearted screenplay was written by Hal Kanter and Harry Tugend, based on Robert Riskin's original screenplay, and puts the Runyon classic on wide screen for the first time.

WEST END NEWS

TRACK ROSTER

Rosters giving name, breeding and owners of the 291 harness horses now in training at the Pinehurst Race Track, are now on hand at the track or at local hotel desks. To make identification easier for spectators at the daily schooling, from early morning until noon, horses that appear on the tracks will carry numbers, shown in front of their names on the roster.

N. C. LEADS

The North Carolina furniture industry leads all the states in the number of pieces manufactured. These pieces include everything from upholstered furniture to hardwood kitchen cabinets. The 400 or more plants which produce furniture are scattered throughout the Upper Piedmont and Mountain sections of the state. They employ 42,000 people. The annual value of their product is $590 million.

NEW EQUIPMENT—Members of the Women's Auxiliary of Moore Memorial Hospital inspected at their last meeting this new piece of equipment which has been presented to the hospital by the Auxiliary. The Stryker "turning frame" is adjustable for numerous medical purposes in providing comfortable and effective immobilization to patients who cannot otherwise be moved or who must be turned while remaining motionless. The frame is used in the treatment of various types of back injuries or diseases, for certain kinds of burn treatment and for other purposes. Shown with the frame here, left to right, are: Mrs. Alwin L. Folley, Auxiliary member; Mrs. Betty McLeod, acting director of nurses; and Mrs. William B. Bodine, coordinator of volunteer services at the hospital. The "patient" for purposes of the demonstration is Mrs. Shirley Wooster who is secretary of the emergency desk at the hospital.
