TruLife CAMP A NEW BREAST FORM FOR POST-MASTECTOMY

Now a revolutionary solution to a delicate problem. The base of the form is a shaped mound of soft pliable plastic foam. Sealed to this base is a thin, washable plastic shell from which air is removed and a self-sealing liquid injected to match the normal breast. The liquid responds rapidly and silently to the slightest motion—it's so natural over you can forget. The entire form is enclosed in an easily laundered nylon cover for insertion into the pocket of any bra desired. Developed in concert with leading surgeons. Ask about TruLife today.

Camp Supports and Appliances are scientifically fitted here by registered fitters.

FAMILY CAMPING

North Carolina, where family campgrounds are situated from the Great Smoky and Blue Ridge Mountains to the seacoast, will offer a "camping seminar" May 11-13. It's the 2nd annual Family Camping Weekend at High Point City Lake in High Point, sponsored by High Point College and the city parks and recreation department. Campers of all ages who want to learn more about camping are invited to bring their own tents and camper trailers to High Point, where for a fee ranging from $5.00 for individuals to a maximum of $20.00 for a whole family, they learn the fundamentals of setting up camp, outdoor cookery, woodcraft, first aid, hiking and canoeing.

Girl Accused of Shooting at Boy

Reba Ann Ewing, 18, of the Lost City community west of West Southern Pines, was arrested between 2 and 3 p. m. yesterday and was charged with assault with deadly weapon, carry a concealed weapon and discharging firearms within the city limits.

The arrest was made on complaint of Garland Frank Stanback, 17, who told police she had fired three shots at him inside the T. H. Club on W. Wisconsin Ave. in West Southern Pines. Police said a .32 calibre pistol was hidden in her clothes when they arrested her shortly afterward in the club where she was employed.

Stanback said he did not know why the girl shot at him.

ADDRESS GIVEN FOR ST. JAMES LUTHERAN CHURCH

MOORE COUNTY RECORDER'S COURT

Friend Shot Friend But Judge Gives Shooter Six Months Term on Roads

James Quick, 37-year-old Carthage Negro, was sentenced to six months on the roads, by Judge J. Vance Rowe in Moore County Recorder's Court at Carthage Monday, although both Quick and Robert Lowe, the man Quick had shot in the leg, said they are friends and the incident probably took place because they had both been drinking.

Assault with a deadly weapon, with which Quick was charged, is not considered a friendly gesture in Judge Rowe's court. Six months was the sentence and the sheriff was directed to secure the gun and destroy it, lest it be used to express friendship again in the future.

Most serious charge on the day's docket was against Nathaniel Toomer, 44-year-old West End Negro who chose a knife as his weapon and cut another man, badly but not fatally. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, inflicting serious and permanent injury. The investigating officer said Toomer attempted to cut the other man's throat.

As the charge is a felony, he was given a hearing in Recorder's Court. Judge Rowe found probable cause and bound Toomer over to Superior Court, setting bond at $700.

Straight sentences to the roads, with no suspension allowed, were given to: Russell Goins of Carthage, 60 days for disturbing the peace, disorderly conduct and cursing; and to Harvey Lowe of Carthage and Dennis Canon of Rockingham who were each given three months for escaping from the Carthage prison camp, the sentences to begin at expiration of the terms they are already serving.

Other cases heard Monday: George Rosser Riggsbee, Route 2, Cameron, careless and reckless driving, $25 and costs; Paul Brockman Wallace, Route 2, Robbins, drunken driving, careless and reckless driving, 60 days on roads, suspended on payment of $100 fine and costs, driver's license to be revoked for 12 months; William Craig Downum, Cooleme, speeding 60 in 50 zone, $10 and costs; Clarence Ray Jones, Eagle Springs, hit and run, driving without registration plates and without liability insurance, 90 days on roads, suspended on payment of $100 fine and costs, not to operate a motor vehicle on the highways until he complies with all laws requisite to obtaining a valid operator's license and liability insurance, and not to violate, in the next 12 months, the laws against drunken driving, careless and reckless driving and hit and run driving.

Milton Lee Lawhorn, Carthage, driving without operator's license, $25 and costs; Fletcher Lee Davis, Fayetteville, driving without operator's license, defendant pleaded not guilty and the case was held open for further investigation of the law covering it; Steven Britt, non-compliance with a judgment of the court of May 21, 1960, in a support case (defendant pleaded "nolo contendere with an explanation") and the court found that the defendant complied with the judgment requiring regular payments of $12 per week until January 1, 1962, and since then has paid a total of $24, claiming he has been unable to work recently because of bad weather and the state of his health, and the court ordered that the defendant pay the cost of the hearing and continue to make the $12 weekly payments until further order of the court and also catch up his back payments within 90 days, and then if defendant wants to make a motion that the amount of the payments be reduced, the court will hear him, along with any competent evidence as to his earnings and his capacity to earn because of his health or other reasons.

June Bug Leach, Sanford, assault with deadly weapon, not guilty, also trespass, nol pros, as the case had been disposed of in a justice of the peace court; Stanley Sego, careless and reckless driving, nol pros with leave, (defendant was not under bond and can't be found); H. A. Henderson, Greensboro, obtaining lodging and failing to pay for same, with intent to defraud, nol pros on payment of the costs, it appearing that the bill has been paid and satisfied.
