Judy Cameron: Pinehurst Star Shot-Maker

Judy Cameron, Pinehurst High school forward, has wound up a four-year career in basketball with a total score to her credit of 2,322 points.

In the 89 games Judy has played in four years, she has a 26.1 per-game average.

She averaged 14.8 as a freshman, 25.2 as a sophomore, 31 as a junior and 30 during this past season. She scored 50 points in the tournament finals against Highfalls, the defending champion.

The daughter of Mrs. Dana Cameron of Airport Road and the late Mr. Cameron, Judy is 5-5 and weighs 125 pounds.

Coach Bob Gillis said "Judy's specialty is a long one-handed push shot, although she is an excellent driver and jump shooter. Most coaches double-teamed Judy her junior and senior seasons."

"The girls' teams lost only 15 games during her four-year career. "She was chosen all-conference her sophomore and junior years and would have made it this year, but no all-county team was picked."

"The team was runner-up her junior year and (regular-season) champion this year—in an 11 team league, by the way," Gillis said.

"In my 10 years of coaching," Gillis added, "I have never seen or coached any girl who could out-shoot Judy from long range. She hit above 50 per cent each year."

Judy hopes to go to college next year. She is a member of the school's Beta Club.

Successful Meeting
Forty-nine members of the Carolinas Press Photographers Association, and about an equal number of guests, thoroughly enjoyed their luncheon meeting Sunday at the Pinehurst Country Club—enhanced, no doubt, by the presence of 12 young beauty contestants vying for the title of CPPA queen. Best meeting since the last one held here 10 years ago, was the expressed opinion of the press and television lensmen attending.

Life Of Their Own
Speaking of photographs, we are convinced that the photographers credit lines have a distinct life of their own, as 'Dr. Rhine at Duke University and his ESP assistants and adherents would have us believe of inanimate objects.

Either the photographs for which we are responsible appear with no credit lines at all, or credit is given the wrong photographer for the right picture. Last week, Pinehurst Photographer John Hemmer was given credit for a picture taken in Belleair, Fla. A photograph taken at the Mardi Gras Ball by Emerson Humphrey of Southern Pines appeared on page five of last week's Pilot with no credit whatsoever.

To both John and Emerson, our apologies.

Two 50th Anniversaries
Monday marked a half-century of girl scouting in America. It was on March 12, 1912, that Mrs. Daisy Lawrence was "drafted" by her aunt, Juliette "Daisy" Low, as the first Girl Scout in the organization founded by Miss Low. Since that date, 18 million girls and adults have followed Mrs. Lawrence in the Girl Scout ranks.

Another "first" on March 12 fifty years ago—the first official parachute jump from a plane—was made by Army Captain Albert Berry, who jumped from a 1,500 foot elevation in a plane going a dizzying 50 miles an hour over Jefferson Barracks.

Although the first parachute jump was said to have been made as early as 2200 B. C. by a Chinese emperor, Captain Berry's feat marked a significant beginning in the U. S. Army's subsequent use of airborne troops in warfare.

A parachute team based on Fort Bragg has twice defeated the Russians in international competitions, in 1959 and 1961. This greatly astonished the Russians, who, after WWII, started the process of boning up on parachute tactics by translating into their own language the book "Airborne Warfare," written by Gen. James M. Gavin, wartime commander of the 82nd Airborne Division.

It's a Great Day
A tip of the hat to the Irish on their traditional great day—St. Patrick's—Saturday.

NEW TROPHY PRESENTED—The first Nina Hemmer Memorial Trophy, given by John G. Hemmer, Pinehurst photographer in memory of his late wife, is held by Miss Sharon Mathis who was chosen "Miss Carolinas Press Photographers Association Queen" at a meeting of the Association in Pinehurst Sunday. With her is Miss Carolyn Melton of Cheraw, S. C., last year's winner of the title, who crowned the new queen. The permanent trophy, given for the first time this year, will be passed on to subsequent annual winners, but each winner will be presented a small replica for personal possession. Miss Mathis, 18-year-old brunette from Trinity, will represent the CPPA in a national contest at Charleston, S. C. in June. The winner there will take part in the "Miss Universe" beauty contest at Long Beach, Calif. The CPPA has a membership in North and South Carolina. Mr. Hemmer is a charter member and the only life member. (Hemmer photo)

Local Troops Active During Girl Scout Week

Local Girl Scout troops were active during this, Girl Scout Week, commemorating in various ways the 50th birthday Monday of girl scouting in America. Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Troops Tuesday night took part in a rededication ceremony at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the Pinehurst School auditorium.

Basketball

Friday, the Pinehurst Rebels battled against the Laurel Hill team to win. Pinehurst was slow in the beginning but picked up in the last half and came through with a definite lead. The final score—53-39.

Our top scorers were: Marshall Lewis, 22 points; Butch Hardy, 13; Gary Cameron, 8; Richard Oldham, 4; James Beddingfield, 4; Bobby Norton, 2.

Wright with 15 points was high scorer for the Laurel Hill team.

Top Essayists
At the student body meeting Monday morning, Barbara Cole and Tony Martin read their essays, "The Prespects and Achievements of the UN," before the assembly. Both speeches had been selected as tops in the American History class essays.

On Wednesday, Barbara and Tony read their essays at the Lions Club dinner.

Exams
On Saturday morning, the juniors took the National Merit Examination at the Pinehurst High School. All students participating hoped to attain high scores; scholarships are given those who make outstanding records on the tests.

On the Tuesday before, the ninth and tenth grade students took the National Educational Development test; there were five divisions which lasted throughout the morning.

PTA Meeting
The PTA meeting Tuesday night had as speaker Haywood Starling of the State Bureau of Investigation, who discussed the problems facing young people and how the parents can help solve these.

Hobo Day
As mentioned before in this column, the senior class is having Hobo Day on Saturday. They will rake yards, wash windows, baby sit or do other chores. The seniors are working very hard to make this the most successful year yet. Anyone wishing work done this Saturday, simply contact any senior, or call CY 4-3544.

Tennis Match Postponed
On Sunday, the Pinehurst Tennis Squad was to have played its first match of the season. The event was to start at 11:30 p.m. and carry through the afternoon, but the weather forestalled, bringing March showers to the courts.

NAVAL RESERVIST South Sea Expert To Show Movies At Forum Mar. 22

Capt. Irving M. Johnson with his completely new film lecture, "Trade Winds Islands — Pitcairn to Zanzibar," will be presented by the Pinehurst Forum next Thursday evening, March 22, at the Pinehurst Country Club. The performance will start at 8:45, immediately following the regular buffet dinner for Forum members and their guests.

Captain Johnson sails his famous brigantine, the "Yankee," with a young amateur crew among South Pacific and Indian Ocean Islands west from South America to Africa. Eight cameras and four aqualungs combine to capture thrilling scenes above and under the sea. Across the country Captain Johnson's lectures are known for their excitement, humor and information.

Irving Johnson was born in Hadley, Mass. 54 years ago and has been going to sea ever since he was 17. First he and his brother sailed their small boats along the New England coast. Later he combined summers of professional sailing on yachts with winters working on steamers to see all parts of the world.

In 1929, he made the sailor's supreme voyage, around the Horn in a huge square-rigger, bound from Hamburg to Chile for a cargo of nitrate. On this voyage he began taking moving pictures and with them started his long

Yale Group Will Sing at Meeting Of Forum Sunday

Sons of Eli, crack singing group of Yale University undergraduate students, will be featured by the Pinehurst Forum as an extra-added attraction of the current Forum series Sunday evening, March 18, at the Pinehurst Country Club. Embracing a membership of 17 young men, the Sons of Eli are returning to Pinehurst for the second consecutive year by popular demand and under the special sponsorship of several Forum members. The Country Club has scheduled a Sunday evening buffet dinner in advance of the performance.

During recent years the Sons of Eli have become so proficient in the college glee club field that membership in the group is restricted to those young men who can pass the most rigid of singing tests. Their voices are of professional caliber and their talents are varied.

and successful career as a lecturer.

A few months before the start of World War II, Admiral Kimmel asked for the leading expert on the South Seas area. Johnson, having been to more islands in the Pacific than any living man, was called into the Navy to plan bases in that vast ocean territory. He was assigned, with the rank of Lieutenant Commander, to the Navy's special survey ship, the USS Sumner. He is now a Captain in the Naval Reserve.
