

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to put your name on a Freedom Document

Most of us have deep beliefs in the things America stands for . . . the freedoms that 56 men signed into existence 186 years ago at Independence Hall.

Those old-timers didn't have an exclusive on endorsing freedom, however. You can still put your name on a freedom document by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

The money you put into Savings Bonds helps build Uncle Sam's financial strength, an important asset in furthering the causes of freedom wherever men want to be free on this globe of ours.

This money also helps build your own financial strength. And frankly, the more living comfort you have, the higher your living standard, the better you demonstrate one of the advantages of being a free people.

Tens of millions of American families use U.S. Savings Bonds as a way to save for the future and help their country now. How about adding your family to the roster?

Keep freedom in your future with
U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertising. The Treasury Department thanks the Advertising Council and this newspaper for their patriotic support.

The above sponsored as a public service by

THE PILOT