

CLASSIFIED ADS

ATHLETE'S FOOT GERM HOW TO KILL IT. IN 3 DAYS. If not pleased with strong, instant-drying T-4L, your 48c back at any drug store...

CUSTOMERS NEED service in Southern Pines, full or part-time. Earn $3.50 hourly and up.

OUTDOOR FURNITURE: 2-folding chairs, 1-folding chaise longue. $29.95 set. Thomasson Furniture Company.

FOR HOME DELIVERY of Sanford Herald in Southern Pines, write Davis M. Salmon, Jr., Box 641. Daily Herald also on sale at the Book Store...

Paved streets edged with well kept pinestraw parkways and white sand paths.

Homes nestled among towering longleaf pines, magnolia and dogwood trees.

A silver lake and sand beach for summer recreation.

PINEBLUFF

Available, two - bedroom home, central heating and air conditioning, carport and deck. Well landscaped lot overlooking lake, $11,200.

Contact:

J. D. Arey, Realtor Aberdeen, N. C. Windsor 4-1212 or Moss & Chamberlain Aberdeen, N. C. Windsor 4-2380

Amerotron League Bowling Awards Given at Banquet

The Amerotron Bowling League held its annual banquet Friday, March 30, at The Wedge Inn, Southern Pines. Presentation of trophies and awards were made by company officials.

The first presentation was made by Harvey Scherr, company engineer and captain of the Injuns, who presented a member of his team, Richard Kemp, with the Most Improved Bowler award.

Frank Gramelsbach, industrial relations official for Amerotron, made the presentation of the High Game award to Charles Kay who achieved a 231 game.

Bill Caton, personnel director for the Robbins and Red Spring plants, made the presentation of the High Average award to James Glasscock who maintained a 170 average for the season.

R. M. Cushman, vice president of Amerotron, presented the Cushman Trophy to Julian Maness, captain of the Robbins Snipes, champions again this year.

The Cushman Trophy, a personal trophy given to the league by Mr. Cushman, must be won by the same team for three years to become a permanent possession of that team.

High Series award was won by Carroll Brown with a 580 series. He was unable to attend and presentation was made at a later date.

Awards for perfect attendance were made to: Howard Ritter and Henry Craven, Robbins Hoods; Julian Maness and Donald Morphis, Robbins Snipes; Robert Cash and Lynwood Clarke, Playboys; and James Glasscock, Strikers.

Mrs. DeCosta's Pupils Exhibiting Paintings

An exhibition of oil paintings by pupils of Mrs. Frank deCosta has been hung in the art gallery of the Southern Pines Library to remain on view this week and next week.

All of the pupils are beginners who took a six weeks course, studying three mornings a week. Paintings of fruit, flowers and other still-life subjects are included.

The students whose work is shown are: Mrs. Roy Grinnell, Mrs. Allen Woodrow, Mrs. David L. Morton (painting unsigned), Mrs. Robert Easley, Mrs. John Sherry, and Mrs. John Pottle.

AUTO LOANS FINANCING - REFINANCING AUTO CREDIT CO. SANFORD, N. C.

Mrs. Julia McNeill Succumbs at 82; Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Rumph McNeill, 82, will be held at 3 p. m. Saturday at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, conducted by the Rev. Martin Caldwell, rector.

Mrs. McNeill died Wednesday morning at the Pinehurst Convalescent Home where she had been a resident for nearly seven years, following the death of her husband, William H. McNeill, local businessman, in August, 1955.

Mrs. McNeill was born at Rome, Ga., January 28, 1880, and moved with her family at an early age to Birmingham, Ala., where she grew up. She did secretarial work in New York City for a number of years.

Her only immediate survivors are three sisters, Miss Kate Rumph and Mrs. Joe E. Carter, both of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. J. S. McGee of Eutaw, Ala.

Among several surviving nieces and nephews are two nieces living at Sanford, Mrs. Florence Olmsted and Mrs. Althea Dickinson.

VASS NEWS

By MRS CHARLES CAMERON Bloodmobile to Visit

Chairmen and community workers from the Vass-Lakeview, Cameron, and rural areas are urged to attend a meeting at the Vass Community House, Thursday, April 5, at 7:30 p. m.

The Vass Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a minstrel show on Friday night, April 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the Vass-Lakeview School Auditorium.

On Friday, April 13, the Vass Woman's Club will attend a dinner meeting and tour of Samarcand Manor. Plans are to leave at 4:30 p. m.

Perfect attendance pins and awards were presented at the Vass Presbyterian Sunday School by Hugh McLean, superintendent, to the following: Duncan Leon Keith, three months; Kim Laubscher and Hilton Marion, six months; Dennis Cameron and Ray Jessup, three years; Ronnie Boggs, six years; Paul McGill, ten years; James Laubscher, 11 years; Kent McGill, 12 years; Sandra Von Metzger, 13 years; and Mrs. Paul D. Cameron and Mrs. George Laubscher, 15 years.

Honoring her daughter Susie on her ninth birthday, Mrs. Lane Bullock entertained at a birthday party at her home Saturday afternoon. Guests present to help celebrate the surprise occasion were members of the Brownie Troop.

Kathy Danley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Danley, celebrated her seventh birthday at a party given by her mother in her home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. May Cameron is spending this week with her son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. A. Mac Cameron and son, Stephen, in Jackson.

Miss Gail Dunn of Greensboro visited with Miss Carol Foster and Mrs. P. A. Wilson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Waylon Thomas and son, Mike, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Frye and family and other relatives here over the weekend.

Sunday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Griffin were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kelly and son Jerry of Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Royster Baker of Willow Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Leavitt of Pinebluff.

Mrs. Steve Mallard of Wallace spent the weekend with her aunt, Miss Bessie Cameron and visited her mother, Mrs. W. H. Keith, at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The Rev. and Mrs. T. Fant Steele and children of Rosehill, were Wednesday afternoon callers in the community.

Lewis George, Sr. remains a patient in St. Joseph Hospital, having been admitted Thursday of last week.

Armed Forces

Specialist Four Thomas S. Hinton, whose wife, Phyllis, lives in Pinehurst, recently graduated from the Seventh U. S. Army Non-Commissioned Officer Academy in Bad Tolz, Germany.

Specialist Hinton received four weeks of training in various military subjects with emphasis on leadership and combat tactics. The purpose of the academy is to broaden the soldier's professional knowledge and to instill him with the self-confidence and sense of responsibility required of a capable leader.

Hinton, a personnel specialist in the 93rd Signal Battalion's Headquarters Company in Hanau, entered the Army in February, 1961, and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C., before arriving overseas on this tour of duty.

Dr. Staples will Preach Sunday at Brownson Church. Dr. George Ervin Staples, chaplain of Davidson College at Davidson, will conduct the 11 a. m. service at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church Sunday.

The church is having a series of guest ministers during April. Dr. E. C. Scott, interim minister at the church for six months, has returned to his home at Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Staples has been chaplain at Davidson since 1956 and was previously minister of Highland Presbyterian Church, Winston-Salem for seven years.

A veteran of Army infantry combat service in the Pacific theatre in World War II, he holds the Silver Star for gallantry in action and other decorations. He is a graduate of Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C., and did post-graduate study, receiving the B. D., Th. M. and Th. D. degrees, at Richmond, Va., New York City and the Universities of Texas and Wisconsin.

Booker to Have Radio Program. W. M. Booker, proprietor of Landscapes, local landscaping service, has contracted to do a 15-minute program on gardening and allied fields on Radio Station WWGP, Sanford, at 9:30 a. m. each Saturday, it was announced this week by the station.

Mr. Booker, a N. C. State College graduate with a B. S. degree in horticulture, is a Southern Pines resident. His program, to be sponsored by Hester Wilson Lawn and Garden Center of Sanford, will deal with gardening problems in the soils and climate of this area.

Letters from listeners will be invited and used on the program, the announcement said.

Friday Final Day to Request Cotton Acreage. The date for requesting additional cotton acreage from released acreage has been extended through April 6, in all counties in North Carolina.

The date by which farmers could release their acreage was not extended beyond March 23.

All farmers desiring to plant additional cotton this year must contact the ASCS office in Carthage and file the necessary request form by close of business April 6.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PILOT MOORE COUNTY'S LEADING NEWS WEEKLY.

Association For Retarded Children Will Present First Camp Scholarship in '62

A meeting of the Moore and Hoke County Association for Retarded Children was held Thursday evening at the office of Dr. Emily Tufts. Mrs. Donald R. Scott, of Southern Pines, president presided.

Mrs. George C. Davis and Mrs. Margery Marshall were appointed by the president to head the Scholarship Award Committee which will present its first scholarship to a child from the Moore and Hoke County area to attend Camp Pamlico near Washington, N. C., this summer.

The Association wishes to thank interested people and friends in this area, who responded to the recent appeal for memberships, with their financial and personal support.

A letter was read from Mrs. Vida L. Bryant, state executive secretary informing that WRAL-TV of Raleigh has made an hour-long film on Retardation. People in this area are urged to watch the program at 10 p. m. April 13.

An appeal from the O'Berry School at Goldsboro was read. Requests for furniture, draperies and clothing was made. Members will bring articles to the next meeting which will be held at the office of Dr. Tufts April 10. Plans are being made for the second annual Scholarship bridge party to be held this spring. Over 200 players participated last year, resulting in the award of two teacher scholarships to Moore County teachers.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

GENERAL HOME IMPROVEMENTS ALUMINUM SCREENS - SIDING - AWNINGS CARPORTS - STORM DOORS AND WINDOWS PAINTING Free Estimates on Request SUPERIOR AWNING COMPANY Floyd Frye Tel. OX 5-4148 J. A. Frye Rockingham 895-3506

IN TIME FOR YOUR EASTER! FAMOUS NAME BRANDS JUST ARRIVED- For Milady your Dress and Suit in Sparkling New Fashion, with Bags & Shoes to match Plus all Accessories. JUST ARRIVED- For That Man! New Suits, Sport Coats, Slax, Shirts, Hats, Socks, Ties. Everything to Make You a New Man! JUST ARRIVED- For The Girls and Boys New Easter Outfits to Let Them Shine in The Easter Parade - All at - GINSBURG'S DEPT. STORE Carthage, N. C.

Melvin's Men's Store "Foremost in Famous Brands" Aberdeen's Shopping Center For Men and Boys Clothing (Suits and Sport Coats) STYLE MART NORTHCOOL HARDWICK CAMPUS JACK TAR Furnishings ARROW ALL CONFERENCE HUBBARD INTERWOVEN SWANK TIED RITE STETSON CAMPUS SUNSET MARX MADE SEVEN POINT GEM DANDY WEMBLEY CHESTERFIELD Shoes FREEMAN AMERICAN GENTLEMEN BALL BAND JETS CROSBY SQUARE BOB SMART HUSH PUPPIES WELLCO A Store filled to overflowing with New Spring and Easter Merchandise

Samovar VODKA 100 PROOF $4.00 4/5 QT. $2.50 PINT DISTILLED FROM GRAIN BOAKA KOMPANIYA, SCHENLEY, PA. AND FREŠNO, CALIFORNIA MADE FROM GRAIN. PRODUCT OF THE U.S.A. 100 PROOF.