TALENT SEARCH WINNERS TO ENTERTAIN AT BAND BOOSTERS HOE DOWN FRI. NIGHT

There'll be a big time in the Old Town Friday, April 6. If you haven't square danced with Nick Crotty calling the figures, don't miss the opportunity at the big benefit Hoe Down at the East Southern Pines High School Gymnasium from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. Those who have enjoyed dancing to Nick's clear calling, will welcome the news that he is at the microphone and that his Carolina Cardinals will provide the music.

For those who prefer round dancing, there will be lots of ballroom dancing too.

There's plenty of fun in store for all. There'll be an old-fashioned cake walk with the most delicious cakes in town for the lucky winners.

There'll be prizes too, and you may be the one to draw one of the delightful gifts. Refreshments will be available and you can have Coco-Colas at your own tables. But this is not all.

There will be entertainment too. Nick Crotty is bringing his exhibition team and you'll see a square dance team trained to perfection.

The winners of the Sandhills Talent Search will appear in person to do their prize winning numbers. Anna Dell and Buddy Smith, a brother-sister team from Southern Pines will do a tap dance and Anna Dell will perform a solo modern dance.

All of this will be yours for only a small donation which will go into the Band Booster's Uniform Fund. The Band Boosters hope to wipe out the $900.00 uniform debt and your attendance at the Hoe-Down will make it possible.

Those who can't attend and would like to send a donation will earn the gratitude of the Band Boosters. Your contribution, large or small, can be mailed to Phyllis Cornell, Treasurer, Band Booster Club, Southern Pines.
