Troutman-Woodruff Rites

The marriage of Miss Paula David Troutman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Troutman, of Addor, and David Lee Woodruff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Len D. Woodruff of Hays, took place at the Methodist parsonage in Eiland on Saturday, March 17, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of close friends of the bridal couple.

Mr. Woodruff attended the University of North Carolina and is presently employed at N. C. Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill. Mrs. Woodruff is a student at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge. The couple will reside in Winston-Salem after June 1, where Mr. Woodruff will be affiliated with the Western Electric Company.

Mischke-Metsger Wedding

Mrs. Anne Mischke and Charles S. Metsger were united in marriage in a private ceremony in Chesterfield, S. C., Friday March 30. The couple are making their home in Birmingham, Ala.

Cardinal Book Club

Mrs. Lynwood Moon was hostess to the Cardinal Book Club Thursday evening with 14 members and several visitors who took part on the program present. Mrs. Tommy Gschwind, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Vann Clark, program chairman of the evening, presented some of her eighth graders who had taken part in the recent class recitation contest and were winners in the various categories.

The following gave enjoyable recitations: Mickie Pleasants, Margaret Todd, Billy Boyte, Dorothy Rogers, Dickie Pleasants, and Sandra Madison.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Moon invited the members and guests into the dining room where Mrs. Gschwind poured punch which was enjoyed with delicious goodies.

Women of Bethesda

The Women of Bethesda Presbyterian Church met on Sunday evening with the president, Mrs. N. A. McGill, presiding. Mrs. E. T. McKeithen led the devotion.

Plans were made for the Vacation Church School Institute, to be held at Bethesda April 28.

The annual birthday offering of the Women of the Church was received. This year's offering will be used in the Vocational Guidance Centers on Presbyterian college campuses throughout the Southern Presbyterian Church.

The annual birthday party of the Women of the Church will be held in the form of a reception on next Sunday evening following the first special pre-Easter service. This will honor the visiting minister, the Rev. Charles Worth, of Whiteville, and also the new members who have joined Bethesda Church during the past year.

Sixth Birthday

Miss Karen Samuels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Samuels, celebrated her sixth birthday on Saturday with a party at her home for nine little friends. They enjoyed outdoor games, after which they watched Karen open her gifts. Interesting refreshments, served by Mrs. Samuels, consisted of Easter eggs made of Jello nested on green coconut, and cup cakes which had been baked in ice cream cones and decorated with a rabbit on top. Karen's aunt, Mrs. Peggy Ritter of High Point, and a cousin, Sheila Inman, were present for the occasion.

On Monday Karen Samuels and honors at the Weekday Kindergarten at Bethesda, as Allan had reached the glorious age of six during last weekend also. Dale Stancil joined the Kindergarten group for the occasion.
