Ancient Coins Included in Exhibit of Money to Be Seen at New Bank Branch

Coins of ancient Greece and Rome, including a "Widow's Mite" and other types immortalized through the Bible, will be on display at the new South Broad Street Drive-In Office of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company of Southern Pines, beginning Monday as part of an exhibit of moneys from all corners of the globe. The bank's new office will have its formal opening Monday. The exhibit will be on loan to the Citizens Bank from the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York. It is part of the bank's vast Museum of Moneys of the World consisting of approximately 75,000 specimens.

Among the moneys to be shown here is one of the oldest silver coins known, a turtle design struck in the seventh century B. C. at Aegina, an island in the fabled Aegean Sea. Another coin depicts Athena, goddess of Athens, and dates to about 430 B. C. in the "Golden Age" of Greek history and culture. Besides the "Tribute Penny" and the Judean "Widow's Mite" types of coins mentioned in the Bible, others dating from Roman times bear likenesses of that empire's most famous rulers. The proud head of Julius Caesar appears on one coin in this group and that of his heir, Caesar Augustus, first Emperor of Rome, on another.

In addition to these ancient coins, the exhibit will feature moneys made of odd materials. One of these is elephant tail money used in Portuguese West Africa. A single elephant tail once could buy two slaves on the Dark Continent.

The display also will contain more recent moneys from Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, North and South America. Included will be the first coins issued by the new nations of India, Burma and Israel, and an Egyptian coin with a portrait of a much thinner King Farouk issued in 1937 a year after he ascended the throne he subsequently lost in 1952.

(Continued from Page 1) said were found in Olson's car when the soldier was apprehended at West End Wednesday night of last week.

Other witnesses were W. H. Gentry, Jr., vice-president and general manager of the Southern National Bank at Southern Pines, who had ascertained that the check deposited there, drawn on the First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. of Fort Bragg, was fraudulent and forged; and Vance Robbins, Aberdeen jeweler, and R. Other Cases Heard Probable cause was found also against Eddie Stanback, 49, Negro, of Cameron, on the charge of attempted rape of a 10-year-old girl, the granddaughter of his wife. The child made an impressive witness, speaking up clearly and specifically on the stand to describe the incident which she said had taken place at the defendant's home. Stanback, however, pleading not guilty, spoke up as forcefully to deny the incident had ever taken place. Bond for him was set at $500, which was not immediately made.

In the Rowan case, a second defendant, Louise Mosley Rowan, pleaded guilty to public drunkenness and unlawful possession, and drew 30 days in jail, to be suspended on payment of $25 fine and costs.

Others up for drunken driving were William West Blackburn of Vass, Firrell Criscoe of Lumberton and Garland H. Talley of Bear Creek, Route 1 (also unlawful possession), all of whom received 60-day sentences, suspended on payment of $100 and costs, with license revoked 12 months; and Newton Alex Jones of Spring Lake, the same except the sentence was 90 days.

Four prison escapees received additional terms to be served at expiration of the terms now being served at the Carthage prison camp, which were interrupted by their escapes. These were Otis W. Dillard and Kelly Ashley, both of Charlotte, three months and Johnny A. Jackson of Erwin and Earl Brigman of Lumberton, four months.

Other cases disposed of: Josephine Criscoe, Aberdeen, driving without license, $10 and costs; Robert Clare Burns, Southern Pines, same; Robert Gaston DeBerry, Troy, speeding 70 in 60-mile zone, 30 days or $15 and costs; William Colbert Jones, Bear Creek, Route 1, public drunkenness, $25 including costs; Robert Harrison Barrett, Pinehurst, driving without license, driving after license revocation, $200 and costs, appeal noted and bond set at $300.
