MRS. EARL GLADSTONE BARBOUR, JR.
CEREMONY IN JACKSON SPRINGS CHURCH
UNITES MISS CURRIE AND MR. BARBOUR

Miss Susan McNeill Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Franklin Currie of Jackson Springs, and Earl Gladstone Barbour, Jr., son of Mrs. Barbour and the late Mr. Barbour of Carthage, were married Saturday afternoon at the Jackson Springs Presbyterian Church. The Rev. A. Lacy McDuffie, officiated at the 5 o'clock ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Duncan J. Patterson, organist, of Hamlet, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Glenn Miller, vocalist, also of Hamlet.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie with a portrait neckline of re-embroidered alencon lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with full length sleeves which extended to a point over the hands. The sweep skirt featuring lace appliques and a chapel train was caught with double roses. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a coronet of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a nosegay of white mums, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Martha Currie of Winston-Salem was her sister's maid of honor and her ballerina length gown was of aqua organza. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neck line with short sleeves and the skirt was a sheath. Her half hat was a circlet of matching velvet with silk flowers and a circle veil.

The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to those of the honor attendant. They were Mrs. John Barringer of Carthage and Mrs. Vance C. Fowler of Roanoke Rapids.

R. G. Fry, Jr. of Carthage served his nephew as best man. The ushers were M. Worth McDonald, John M. Barringer and Harold E. Clayton, uncle of the bride, all of Carthage and Andy G. Appanaitis of Robbins, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride is an alumna of Flora Macdonald College where she was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is Assistant Home Agent for Bladen County.

The bridegroom is a graduate of High Point College where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He is now associated with United Telephone Company of the Carolinas, Inc. in Southern Pines.

Following a southern wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Carthage.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the Church following the ceremony. The Rev. and Mrs. Lacy McDuffie introduced the guests to the receiving line, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Currie, Mrs. Barbour, the bride and bridegroom and the bride attendants.

Mrs. R. G. Fry, Jr. of Carthage served the individually decorated white wedding cakes centered with pink roses. Mrs. Robert Henderson and Mrs. E. J. Blue presided at the punch bowl, and guests served themselves to nuts and mints.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. A. Richardson, Mrs. D. M. Lambeth, Mrs. Aceil Money, Mrs.

Shaw House Serves 100 Visitors Lunch On Garden Tour Day

Numbers of visitors from out of town, as well as Sandhills residents, Wednesday attended the House and Garden Tour, despite cloudy skies and intermittent showers.

The Southern Pines Garden Club sponsored the tour for the 14th year.

Mrs. A. P. Thompson, chairman of Shaw House, reported that about 100 visitors were served lunch at the historic old house, a Moore County Historical Association restoration which is open during the winter and spring seasons as a restaurant serving luncheons and tea.

The chicken salad and cakes were made and brought to Shaw House, which was the first house on the tour, by Historical Association members from Carthage, Miss Mattie Kate Shaw, Mrs. Gilliam Brown, Mrs. Charles T. Grier, Mrs. Curtis Muse and Mrs. Colin Spencer, who also assisted in serving, as did Mrs. Paul Thomas of Pinehurst, Miss Helen Butler and several Junior Woman's Club members from Southern Pines. Mrs. Virgil Page Clark had charge of the gift room.

200 ATTEND BENEFIT FASHION SHOW IN PINEHURST'S CHAPEL HALL MONDAY

"Springtime in the Sandhills" was the program title of the benefit fashion show, a "black tie" affair attended by 200 Sandhills visitors and winter residents Monday evening.

Amateur models from Pinehurst, Southern Pines, Sanford and Fort Bragg showed a distinguished collection of fashions for spring and summer from Razook's, parading the flower-decked ramp in the Village Chapel Hall.

Miss Brooke Bryan was chairman of the show, proceeds from which were turned over to the Guild of St. Joseph's Hospital. Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy is Guild president.

Mrs. William B. (Helen) Alexander sang popular tunes to which she had composed appropriate lyrics, and she and John Von Cannon sang a duet. Accompanist was John Bartley.

Harry H. Pethick served as master of ceremonies and did a masterful job as commentator for the fashion parade.

Spring flowers decorating the hall were provided by the Pinehurst Greenhouses and by Frank Joyce Flowers of Sanford. Nick Croty was sound technician.

Ushers were Mrs. William P. Davis, IV, and Misses Jennifer Owens and Audrey Walsh.

A luscious mink wrap was won by Mrs. W. L. Stevenson, who modeled it for the audience. Door prizes were also won by Mrs. S. A. Strickland and Mrs. Louis C. Melcher, among others.

Committee chairmen for the show were Mrs. A. N. Derouin, Mrs. Francis L. Owens, Mrs. Lee K. Smithson, Guy C. Smith and Mrs. Harry M. Taylor.

Rockingham Episcopal Churchwomen Plan Fashion Show Apr. 25

Once again the women of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah in Rockingham are planning their annual fashion show and luncheon. This yearly affair is one of the social highlights of this area. Already tickets have been sold in Charlotte, Wadesboro, Laurinburg, Lumberton as well as Southern Pines and Pinehurst and other surrounding communities.

Again this season, the lovely spring attire of the audience will vie with the models for attention.

For weeks, Mrs. Foy Barwick of the Tailored Shop has been holding back lovely late spring and summer dresses for previewing at this time. The same is true of Mary Rice in Hamlet, Bryson's of Hamlet and Long's of Rockingham, who are also participating in the fashion show.

The show will be held at Herndon's, 10 miles north of Rockingham, on the Wednesday after Easter, April 25, at 1 o'clock. Tickets may be purchased at the Tailored Shop and Helms Jewelry Store in Rockingham.

Mrs. Roy Newton is in Moore Memorial Hospital for treatment, and is improving daily.

Moore Memorial Women's Auxiliary Hears Reports

New business came before the executive board of the Women's Auxiliary of Moore Memorial Hospital, meeting last week, Wednesday, at the Nurses' Home, when Mrs. James Boyd reported briefly on the new auxiliary committee of which she is temporary chairman, dealing with maternal welfare work.

Mrs. Paul Dana, president of the Auxiliary, introduced the new board member.

Mrs. Boyd, who with Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson of Aberdeen, has headed the original county committee for the past ten years, described briefly the record for the last eight months: of deliveries—with care of the infant—of 18 mothers who, as patients at Moore Memorial, used the free bed in the Elizabeth Woltz Currie Maternity Ward.

Mrs. Boyd also announced the date of the annual fund raising drive. This will take place the day before Mother's Day and will be held this year on May 12.

Mrs. Duwayne D. Gadd reported a net total of $2601.61 from the Dunes Club dance given by the club last month for the Auxiliary's benefit.

Mrs. James Tufts, chairman of the Hospital Roundup May 4 at the Southern Pines Armory, told of plans her committee is making for this event. Towns throughout this area are co-operating to insure a capacity crowd for the dance.

Volunteers had a total of 923 1/2 hours of hospital duty last month. This figure, reported Mrs. William Bodine, did not include 63 3/4 hours for the canteen cart, which goes out twice daily on the floors.

The annual Auxiliary tea, at which yearly reports will be made by all committee members, will be held at "Weymouth," home of Mrs. James Boyd in Southern Pines Wednesday afternoon, May 9, at 3 o'clock.

Winning players at the Civic Club benefit card party, held April 4 at the home of Mrs. R. M. Cushman, were: Mrs. C. D. May, Mrs. Lawrence Sawyer, Mrs. Robert B. Hill, Mrs. Harry B. Hull, Mrs. Steven Van Camp, Mrs. M. O. Johnson.
