Gene Poe Given Fulbright Fellowship To Teach During Next Year in Turkey

Gene Poe, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Poe of Southern Pines, has been granted a Fulbright Fellowship that will finance his teaching for a year in Turkey.

To accept the fellowship, he has been granted a leave of absence from Colonie High School, Albany, N. Y., where he has been teaching mathematics for the past three years. He applied for the fellowship last November. An Albany newspaper, when the award was announced there, quoted him as calling it "a wonderful thrill." There are many more applicants for Fulbright fellowships than the number granted.

Mr. Poe, a veteran of service as a paratrooper with the 11th and 82nd Airborne Divisions, 1953-56, is a graduate of Southern Pines High School. He attended N. C. State College, Raleigh, for two years and completed his undergraduate work at State University College, Albany, where he later also received his master's degree.

He will leave for Turkey on completion of the current academic year, with the possibility that he might be sent to any of six cities.

The principal of the high school where he is now teaching told the Albany newspaper that the school's faculty is "very proud of their colleague."

THEATRE SUNRISE

Walt Disney's feature-length comedy, "Moon Pilot," will open at the Sunrise Theatre Friday to run a full week, through Thursday, May 17.

Tom Tryon, Brian Keith and Edmond O'Brien, whose dialogue sets audiences laughing, are starred in the production.

While two powerful nations, the United States and Russia, vie for supremacy in the grim race for space, Walt Disney takes off on the whole thing with the tale of a girl from outer space who intercepts the Number one U. S. astronaut and launches a romance with no holds barred.

Added to the general monkey shines is the performance of Charlie the Chimp, first earthing to the moon and back.

Disney doesn't miss a trick in this story, including Dany Saval, whom he found and hired in Paris after a world-wide search for the beauty most likely to be found en route to space.

In color by Technicolor, "Moon Pilot" stars Tryon, Keith and O'Brien, and introduces Miss Saval. Bill Anderson co-produced with Disney.

Mrs. Alford to Leave Work With Sheriff's Office

Mrs. Louise Alford, secretary and radio dispatcher in the office of Sheriff W. B. Kelly at Carthage, has resigned, effective in June when she and her husband, Capt. Kenneth Alford, who is on the staff of the Carthage Prison Camp, will move to Troy.

Captain Alford was transferred about a month ago to the First Offenders' Camp at Troy and has been commuting to his work there from Carthage, pending preparation of a house for him and his wife at his new post.

Mrs. Alford, the former Louise Williams of Route 1, West End, has been with the sheriff's office since early in 1959 and is the first woman to work there. Her husband has been with the Carthage Prison Camp since February, 1959.

Moore Classroom Teachers Praised for Programs, Activity During Past Year

The Moore County Classroom Teachers recently held their annual banquet in Carthage with an attendance of 125.

Taft Williams introduced the guests speaker, Miss Grace Hager, president of the State Classroom Teachers Association. Miss Hager gave a summary of the accomplishments of the association during the year, mentioning in particular the strong work done in building up professional standards, improving public relations, emphasizing the necessity for better international understanding and raising the quality of teaching for boys and girls in North Carolina.
