McCombs Beats Fearing Sunday
For CGA Senior Championship

Quinn G. McCombs, 56, of Burlington, birdied the first hole of a sudden death playoff with James Fearing of Statesville Sunday to win the inaugural senior tournament of the Carolina Golf Association at the Pine Needles Country Club course here.

They had tied over the 54-hole route with scores of 229 on the par 71 course, a 6,500-yarder. McCombs closed with 78 Sunday, Fearing shooting 77.

On the extra hole, a par five 516-yarder, McCombs pitched up 10 inches from the pin with his third shot to set up the winning birdie.

Lefthander William Wrenn of Siler City, playing with the two leaders, closed with 80 for third place at 232.

Thirty-six hole leader R. S. Wilson of Burlington, who played with the top three, finishers fell to 87 for 235 and eighth place.

John Eraswell, former Rockingham County sheriff, at 82 the oldest man in the field, with low gross 270, and low net, 210, won both awards as the only contestant in the class A age bracket.

Other flight winners, low gross and low net:

Class B—Tom Robbins, Pinehurst (West End), 233; Horace

Stedman, Rockingham, 210.

Class C—Johnny Roycroft, Durham, 234; Andrew Wright, Kernersville, 210.

Class D—Jack Carter, Southern Pines, 234; R. S. Wilson, Burlington, 217.

Class E—Francis Hough, Lancaster, S. C., 234; Ed Lane, Charlotte, 208.

Other Sandhills golfers taking part in the tournament were: George H. Leonard, Jr., John L. MacDougall, Henry C. Flory, and Arthur E. Wittig, all of Southern Pines; and John E. von Schlegell, Raymond E. North and Dr. Francis L. Owens, all of Pinehurst.

JACKSON SPRINGS NEWS

Christened
Christened at the Sunday Morning worship service at the Presbyterian Church were Amy Renee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cole, and Debra Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Cole. The babies' grandfather, Elder Charles R. Cole, assisted the Rev. Lacy McDuffie with the baptismal service.

Circles Meet
The Circles of the Presbyterian Church met Wednesday evening with each circle having a Bible study from the Book of James and a program on church extension. Mrs. Geneva McLeod was hostess to Circle 1 at her home, with Mrs. Elmer Blue as chairman. Mrs. Perry Gallimore had the Bible study and Mrs. Herbert Carter gave the program.

Circle 2 met with Mrs. John C. Blue with Mrs. Cole presiding at the meeting. Mrs. Ollie Currie presented the Bible study.

Mrs. Cecil McCall was hostess to her circle on Monday evening. Mrs. W. E. Graham gave the Bible study and Mrs. Charles K. Cole had the program.

New Officers
Wanda Jones was elected president of the Jackson Springs 4H Community Club at the organizational meeting Friday afternoon at the community house. Judy Blue was elected secretary and treasurer and pianist and Parks Blake was appointed chairman of the refreshment committee. A discussion was held on Safety, emphasizing its part in swimming. The club will meet monthly on the second Friday evening at 7:45. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jones are the advisors to this group and Miss Mary Brasswell, Assistant Moore County Home Economist, also attended the meeting. Other members of the club are Kenneth Thompson, Betty Stubbs, Brenda Boroughs, Donald Thoms, Mary Alice and Sarah Dick, Jennie Blue, Debbie Mabe, John Richardson, Ricky Thomas, and G. L. Sessoms. Mrs. Jones urges all young people to join the club.

Plans Being Made for Southport Arts Festival

Plans are being made for the second annual Arts Festival to be held in Southport on June 29, 30, and July 1.

Last year the works of approximately fifty artists from the piedmont and southeastern North Carolina were shown in the City Hall and surrounding buildings in Southport.

For further information, write Mrs. Alberta Willing, Southport, N. C.

STACKING ODDS

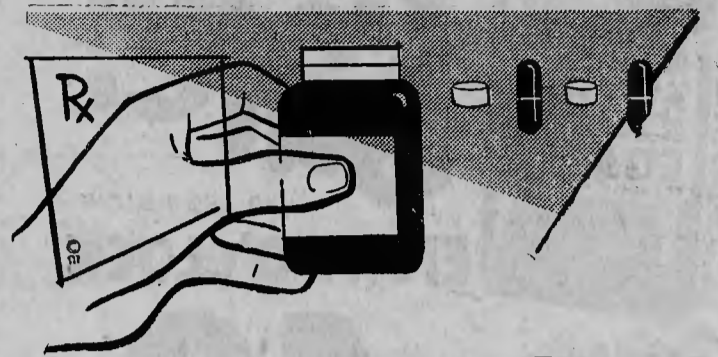

Excessive speed is the best way in the world to stack the odds against yourself when driving. The chances of killing yourself or someone else—in a traffic accident materially increases with every upward quiver of your speedometer needle says the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles.
