PVT. AND MRS. HARVEY WHITE

DR. LIGON OFFICIATES AT WEDDING OF MISS MASON AND PVT. HARVEY WHITE

Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Miss Alicia Ingram Mason and Pvt. Harvey R. White. The church's former pastor, Dr. Cheves K. Ligon, now executive secretary of Fayetteville Presbytery, officiated at the 5 o'clock ceremony.

Mrs. John McPhaul was organist and the soloist was Robert Matthews.

A reception followed in the church parlor.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. K. Mason of 355 East Indiana Avenue, and Mr. Mason. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White of Pinebluff.

Mrs. Richard Lawhorn was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Patsy Garner of Niagara was a bridesmaid and Oma Ruth Lawhorn, the bride's niece, served as her junior attendant.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of white silk organza with boat neck, cap sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her full elbow length illusion veil was centered at the forehead with a self-rose and valley lilies. She wore elbow length gloves and carried a Bible topped with a white orchid and valley lilies.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore short dresses of blue satin with flirtation veils of the same color and carried blue and white feathered carnations.

The bride's mother was attired in an aqua silk sheath; the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of the same shade, in linen, and both had gardenia corsages.

After a short wedding trip, Mrs. White returned to her home here while her husband went back to Fort Jackson, S. C. where he will complete his advanced Army training, after which his wife will join him.

A graduate of the Southern Pines High School, Mrs. White attended Campbell College and received training as a beautician at the Southeastern College of Beau-

Churchwomen of Emmanuel Attend District Meeting

The Spring meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Richmond District was held Tuesday at Calvary Church in Wadesboro.

The Rev. Martin Caldwell, rector of Emmanuel Church here, and eight members of the parish, attended the service of Holy Communion at 10 a. m. and the meeting afterward, conducted by Mrs. James E. Parks, of Southern Pines, chairman, and Mrs. Hugh Carter of Pinehurst, secretary and treasurer of the District.

Mrs. Chadwick Smith, Diocesan secretary of Christian Social Relations, gave an interesting talk followed by noonday prayers conducted by the Rev. Mr. Caldwell.

A workshop, with suggestions for work of the coming year, was directed by Mrs. Harry S. Cobey, District secretary of Christian Education.

The Rev. Harry Cobey installed new District officers.

A luncheon in the parish hall followed the business session. Members of Emmanuel Church attending the meeting were: Mrs. Parks, Miss Lillian Parks, Mrs. Thomas Kelley, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Sherwood Brockwell, Mrs. Roy Grinnell, Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins and Miss Louise Haynes.

Phillips Family Has Cookout, Attends "Pinafore" Saturday

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips entertained at a family cookout supper at their home on East Massachusetts Avenue Saturday, prior to attending the school performance at Weaver Auditorium of "H.M.S. Pinafore."

Included in the family group, in addition to the couple's five children, were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Olseng of Green Bay, Wis. who are here for a fortnight's visit; also Dr. Phillips's sister and brother-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. James Cansler and their children, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Phillips, all of Chapel Hill.

Bird Club Ends the Season with Picnic at Pinebluff Friday

The Southern Pines Bird Club ended its season Friday with a picnic at Pinebluff Lake attended by 13 people.

A list of 38 species of birds was made, including the rose-breasted grosbeak, on its way to nest in the north.

Orchard orioles were singing joyously and the blue-grey gnatcatcher, whose nesting site is near the same tree every year, had a narrow escape from the fire that burned the woods nearby.

A list of 98 species has been reported this season by the Club.

Miss Logan Honor Guest at Lawn Party at Weymouth

Mrs. James Boyd and Mrs. Voit Gilmore were co-hostesses at a lawn party at the former's home, Weymouth, Wednesday afternoon. The party honored Miss Mary Logan, and guests were members of the Southern Pines Elementary School and friends of the hostesses.

Miss Logan, who for the past year has been supervisor of the Pinehurst and Southern Pines elementary schools, will go to Mars Hill College as Dean of Women next fall. She plans to leave here June 9 and will enter the University of Colorado for a refresher course this summer.

MOORE HOSPITAL AUXILIARY HEARS REPORTS, ELECTS OFFICERS AT MEETING

Mrs. Paul Dana of Pinehurst was reelected president of the Women's Auxiliary of Moore Memorial Hospital at the final yearly meeting here May 9.

Serving with Mrs. Dana for 1962-63 will be the following slate of officers: Mrs. John Read Burr and Mrs. Mulford Horr, Pinehurst, first and second vice-presidents, respectively; Mrs. William H. Wadsworth, and Mrs. Bruce Warlick, Southern Pines, recording secretary and assistant recording secretary; Mrs. L. Padgett Rigby and Mrs. Walter G. Robins, Pinehurst, treasurer and assistant treasurer; Mrs. O. Leon Seymour and Mrs. Edward T. Taws, Jr., Southern Pines, corresponding secretary and assistant corresponding secretary. Mrs. Duwayne D. Gadd was chairman of the nominating committee with Mrs. Harold A. Peck and Mrs. John E. Dixon.

The meeting, held at Weymouth, home of Mrs. James Boyd, had a full hour of business prior to the social hour which followed. Besides the election of officers, a change in the by-laws, the awarding of pins, bars and certificates for volunteers, and reports from all committee chairmen were on the afternoon program.

With the reading of the minutes by Mrs. William H. Wadsworth, several important and necessary changes in the by-laws, which were recommended at a board meeting, were explained by Mrs. Dana. At the conclusion, the auxiliary voted for the changes as written.

Mrs. Rigby gave a detailed account of receipts and disbursements for the past year in the treasurer's report.

Reporting on last week's Hospital Roundup, staged at the Southern Pines Armory as one of the main fund-raising events, Mrs. Fred C. Pollard read a letter from the general chairman of the dance, Mrs. James Tufts of Pinehurst. In expressing appreciation to all the women throughout this area who worked so tirelessly for the event, Mrs. Tufts said, "While we cannot consider the Hospital Roundup a large financial success, it was nevertheless very gratifying to find the interest shown among the members of our hospital community in this endeavor. We had wonderful support from Carthage, West End, Aberdeen, Robbins, Raeford, Southern Pines and Pinehurst. The good will incurred does have its value and for future benefits, I know we can count on many new friends for support."

Mrs. Duwayne D. Gadd, chairman of the Dunes Club dance given earlier in the Spring, reported a net profit of $2601.61.

The auxiliary purchased $1711.31 in much needed equipment for the hospital last year—one suite patient room furniture; resuscitator for colored nursery; oxygen analyzer for nursery; Stryker turning frame. Mrs. John R. Burr, special projects chairman, reported on these purchases which will unquestionably make possible better patient care.

A Hot Pack Steri-Warmer for the Nursery, which has a 24-bottle capacity for heating formula bottles, was purchased by Mrs. Alex Roberts and Mrs. Stuart Patterson of the volunteer advisory committee. Another was needed at this time, but the committee felt it could not go to further expense this year, as the Auxiliary had already made a substantial commitment to the hospital fund-raising.

Mrs. Edward Schneider, whose favorite project is the Auxiliary's Birthday Club, said that many needed improvements had been made in the Nurses' Home last year, expenses for same totaling $322.86. Among them were new carpet and padding, painting entrance hall and sanding and refinishing floors and several smaller items. The auxiliary has 245 paid members, 10 of them new this year, according to Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, membership chairman. There are 86 volunteer members, 111 associate and 48 contributing.

Mrs. Robert McMillan, chairman of the volunteers, spoke of the many new services her workers have instituted during the past year. Among them are the visitor's control desk; the floater, who works for Physical Therapy lab, fills in where needed and also delivers the suggestion letters to the patients; ministerial service; home ladies, who do all types of hand work in their homes when it is difficult for them to come to the hospital; Girl Scouts push the cart and work one afternoon a week in the linen room. A total of 9,317½ hours of volunteer work was done last year—1,569 more hours than the preceding year. Mrs. McMillan and her sub-chairmen, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Leon Seymour and Mrs. Alex Roberts will try for 10,000 hours next year.

Mrs. L. D. Guin and Mrs. Drewry Troutman reported an exceptionally healthy financial shape for the canteen under its new management. New products have been added and much stress put on good service to the customers.

Mrs. Dana read a report from Mrs. Boyd on Maternal Welfare, stating that Tag Day throughout the county would be held Saturday, May 12.

Duncan McGoogan, hospital administrator, a special guest of the ladies, expressed his appreciation for all the work accomplished by the organization and its tireless volunteers. He presented the awards for the year, which included pins, bars, stars and certificates. Mrs. Stuart Patterson and Mrs. John Burr served punch at the social hour. Assisting Mrs. Mulford Horr, who had charge of the tea, were Mrs. Mangum Webb, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Norris Hodgkins, Jr., Mrs. William Hollister, Mrs. Paul Butler and Mrs. Lamont Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilder of Raleigh were visitors here Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rounds at 380 East Pennsylvania Avenue.
