

WEST END NEWS and PERSONALS

By SALLY AUMAN

Linda Williams Caddell graduated with the highest scholastic honors in her class this week at West End High School. Linda's family, which include her husband, Robert Lee Caddell and Lee, along with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams, are justly proud of her achievement.

Linda entered into the extra-curricular activities of the school during her 4 years. These included membership in the Glee Club, the Future Homemakers, (as its reporter), Beta Club, in which she was vice-president and treasurer; School bus driver for 2 years, class reporter and a member of the high school paper staff. The seniors voted her the friendliest member of the class. Linda was also the 4th runner-up in the Miss West End contest of 1960-1961.

In her home community of Eagle Springs, she is the leader for the 4-H Club, with membership in the Presbyterian Church, the Home Demonstration Club, and plays on the women's softball team.

Richard Sutphin graduated with 2nd high scholastic honors. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sutphin. During the 4 years, Richard served his school well, which include the presidency of the Beta Club, the Library Club, the Science Club, and the Monogram Club. Richard played baseball and basketball. On the Annual staff, he was assistant editor and served as vice-president and treasurer of his class. In the student organization, he was on the scholarship and attendance committees. Richard's classmates voted him the most intelligent. He is a Methodist and has been an explorer scout. He received his Senior life saving badge upon completion of the National Red Cross swimming course.

The Awards Day Program was held last Friday afternoon at the school with Linda Williams Caddell and Richard Sutphin receiving the Valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively. In behalf of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary, Miss Lucile Eifort and J. F. Sinclair presented the Citizenship award to Sally Vaughn and Billy Harris. The Woman's Club English award for the most improvement went to Clare Cole. Jesse Joyce received an anonymous award, a $25. bond. Joyce Reynolds and Billy Harris were presented the Danforth award based on Scholarship, Character and Leadership.

The Junior Builder's Cup, sponsored by the Sandhill Kiwanis Club, was awarded Clare Cole. Joyce Reynolds received a medal as the Betty Crocker Home

Maker of tomorrow.

Named to Girls State by the American Legion Auxiliary were Judy Williams and Glendora Jones, and to Boys State from the Legion were Dwight Puckett and Douglas Tuttle. Dwight Puckett was the Moore County winner for the Carolina Charter Tercentary Essay Contest.

School representatives in the County Recitation and Declamation contest were Becky Markham and Gene Lewis.

The following 9th grade students scored in the top 25 percent of all students taking the National Education Development Test in North Carolina: John Blue, J. E. Bost, Gene Lewis, Ted Monroe, Jo Ann Sutphin and Vernon Sutphin.

The Future Farmers medals for Farm Machinery were presented James Dick; Soil Management, Jerry Patterson and Public Speaking, Jesse Kimball.

College Grads

Gary Rushing was graduated Sunday from Wingate College in Arts and Commerce. Attending the exercises were Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe D. Rushing and Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rushing. Kenneth Greens also graduated at Winagte and Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Greene attended their son's graduation exercises. The roommates will continue their education at Campbell College.

The Bloodmobile will be at West End on June 17, as announced by the co-chairmen, J. B. Barnett and Z. B. Conrad. Representatives from the Woman's Club will again be responsible for the canteen.

Here's another reminder of the Barbecue meal to be served by the firemen at the Firehouse, Friday (June 7) from 11 a. m.-9 p. m. Revival Services will begin Sunday evening, June 2, at 7:45 at the West End Methodist Church. The visiting minister will be the Rev. Earl Tyson of Collinsville, Va., who is one of six brothers and all are Methodist ministers. He is a very able speaker and much sought after for revival services. The public is invited to attend the services and there will be a special children's service at 7:45 each evening and worship will begin at 8 o'clock. There will also be special music each service.

Miss Alberta Monroe is Director of the Methodist Vacation Church School which will begin at 8:30 a. m. (June 3). Courses will be provided for the kindergarten, Primary and Juniors and the sessions will include Bible Study Creative Activities and Group singing conducted by the pastor the Rev. A. L. Reynolds, refreshments and recreation. It is very important that parents keep this in mind and see that the children are in attendance.

Mrs. Harold Markham, director of the Presbyterian Vacation Church School, announces that classes will begin Sunday morning, June 2, at the regular Sunday School hour. Beginning Monday morning at 8:30, classes will continue until 11 o'clock. The courses of study include kindergarten, Primary and Junior age. The New members of the Junior Boys and girls who are 4-H Club members include demonstrations as a part of their regular 4-H Club training. This is the way 4-H'ers teach recommended practices relating to homemaking and agriculture.

Choir at the Presbyterian Church for the Sunday morning service were Nancy Carter, Jeanie Donaldson, Verona Ann Cole, Susan Auman and Robert Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Carter and Nancy attended the B. F. Brown family reunion Sunday near Seagrave. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carter in Asheville.

Calling on Mrs. Claude Auman Monday afternoon were Mrs. Cleveland Stuart of Teachey, Mrs. B. A. Cox of Ellerbe and Gail Miller of Hamlet.

Weekend guests of the Allan McDonalds were Mr. and Mrs. Graham Lancaster of Doylestown, Penn.

Miss Johnnie Lee Conrad of Greensboro was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Conrad.

Mrs. Foy Horton of Thomasville, a former resident of this community, was hospitalized last week at Moore Memorial. The Hortons will attend the graduation exercises this week for their son, Cadet William Andrew Horton, at Hargrave Military Academy, Chatham, Va. Andy was recognized by the school as the Cadet of the month during his senior year.

Eugene Dunn has returned to his air base at Tucson, Arizona, after spending a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunn.

NOW! CHRYSLER MAKES IT A SNAP TO OWN WHOLE-HOUSE AIR CONDITIONING!

ANNOUNCING CHRYSLER'S SNAP-IN RESIDENTIAL COOLING

Now! All the wonders of cool, comfortable, complete air conditioning for your entire home with Chrysler's new snap-in cooling! The complications are gone... the costly installation is gone... the high cost is gone! What's left? All the cool comfort of whole-house air conditioning... at a price you can afford... as easy as calling your nearest Chrysler Airtemp dealer.

CAN BE ADDED TO YOUR PRESENT FORCED WARM AIR FURNACE!

In most cases your forced warm air furnace and ducts are ideal for the addition of air conditioning. You already have most of the equipment you need to give your family the cool, clean, healthful surroundings of Climate by Chrysler!

NOW PRICED LOWER THAN EVER!

New manufacturing methods have lowered the price of Chrysler's snap-in cooling approximately 10% below the usual price for similar installations! You save all the way around.

FREE "COMMON SENSE ABOUT YEAR-ROUND COMFORT"

Let Chrysler help you with your air conditioning problems. Send for your FREE copy of "Common Sense About Year-Round Comfort." Better still, phone us to arrange a no-cost, no-obligation survey of your home.

SAVES YOU $50 TO $100 ON INSTALLATION EXPENSE!

Chrysler's snap-in cooling comes pre-charged, wired and tested! It's installed and ready to cool your home in a fraction of the time—and cost—it used to take!

PAYS ITS OWN OPERATING COSTS!

Records clearly establish that the resulting savings on cleaning, laundry, home maintenance and medical expense more than offset the cost of using air conditioning during the season. In effect, the fresh, cool, healthful climate pays for itself!
