EAST AND WEST MEET—at a flag-raising ceremony when flags of United States and Japan were drawn up on the flagpole in front of the Pinehurst Country Club preceding the start there of Japanese-American Seniors Goodwill team matches, played Thursday and Friday of last week. Country Club Manager Peter Tufts, is shown left, shaking hands with Capt. Naoyasu Nabeshima of the Japanese team. Others in front row, from left: Susumu Yamagata, Jiro Hirose, Toichiro Kawada, Sanhichiro, Jun Saito and Shinji Okada. In the back row are Jackson Hancock, president of the American Seniors Golf Association (center), and Porter Brinton, assistant captain of the American team. (Hemmer photo)

John E. Barry, III and a guest, Professor Charles Rapp, who is a teacher of languages at Belmont Abbey, were here for the weekend with John's mother, Mrs. Barry, and his grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Hennessie. Returning home with them for the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee K. Smithson was Kenneth Smithson, also a student at Belmont.

TENNIS AT PINEHURST

S. P. High Teachers Win Mixed Doubles; Students Are Second

Miss Gail Miller and Ken Propst, both faculty members of the Southern Pines High School, downed all competition Sunday to win the mixed doubles round robin, first regularly scheduled tennis event of the fall at the Pinehurst Country Club.

Their prize—a German chocolate cake. Runners-up in the tourney, also from Southern Pines, and students of the high school there, were Ian Goldsborough and Miss Joel Erickson.

Third place winners, from Pinehurst, were Edward King and Lisa Thomas.

Sandfiddler League
The Sharks won their first match of the season, defeating the Sailfish 16-10, in last Wednesday's Sandfiddler League event.

It was the third straight win for the Stingerees, who defeated the Barracudas 21-9. These informal team matches are played each Wednesday throughout the year.

Other Scheduled Events
A tennis calendar has recently been printed, listing regular and special events for 1963-64 at the Pinehurst Country Club.

On the schedule of regular weekly events are: ladies' day (clinic and play) Tuesdays; men's doubles and teen-age round robin Wednesdays; high school team practice Thursdays; open play Fridays; children's clinic Saturdays and mixed doubles and open play Sundays.

Special events are the fall tournament for all ages beginning October 26 and running through November 11.

Another mixed doubles round robin is set for November 30 and for December 29, a scrambles tournament.

On the first day of the New Year—January 1—a parent-child round robin is planned.

High school matches will be played throughout March and April, dates to be announced.

From March 27-31, a spring vacation tournament will be played and a spring tournament is set to begin April 21, running through May 5.

An Easter weekend exhibition will be arranged and scheduled for May are convention play and round robins.

Tennis director at the Pinehurst Club is Joseph W. Roddey.

Initial Duplicate Party Of Season Held At Carolina

Mrs. Lennox Haldeman of Chicago, a guest at the Carolina, and her partner, Mrs. Daniel O. Delany, wife of the Carolina manager, were first place winners in the hotel's opening duplicate bridge party.

Two couples staying at the Carolina took the second and third prizes—Mr. and Mrs. James Bardbury of Muskegon, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bowman of Portland, Ore.

Weekly bridge sessions are held on Friday evenings, beginning promptly at 8:30 in the lounge.

TEEING OFF * WITH deNISSOFF

Goodwill Symbol

The Japanese Rising Sun looked downright exotic sharing the flagpole with the Stars and Stripes at the Pinehurst Country Club last weekend.

It's a striking looking flag, the crimson sun against the eye-dazzling white background, like a ruby displayed on white velvet.

A promising and heart-warming juxtaposition, too, symbolizing as it did the fellowship of sportsmen from across the world, meeting here for the second annual Japanese-American Goodwill matches between top senior golfers of the East and the West.

Prior to the first of the two-day team matches Thursday, Japanese team captain Naoyasu Nabeshima raised his country's flag to the accompaniment of the Japanese national anthem, "Kimigayo."

The American flag was hoisted by American team captain Jackson Hancock.

Two smaller flagstaffs, on each side of the first tee of the Number Two championship course, were similarly decorated, in addition to the main flagpole near the club's entrance.

Welcome, C. B.

The Pilot welcomes the advent of its seasonal colleague, the Cracker Barrel. Congratulations to new editor Garrett Sutherland and her assistant, Marie Manning, on the greatly expanded format.

The new CB, printed on its own offset machine, on attractive green stock, contains more news, more ads and more general information this year, and we are sure the notes on the early history of Pinehurst and the section, sandwiched in between shopping aids and daily events schedules, will be of interest to visitors and winter residents as well.

Congratulations

We're sure that someone here in town must have a birthday just about every day. However, two that we know of celebrated birthdays this week, and on the same day, Wednesday—Gen. I. T. "Billy" Wyche and Mrs. Mulford Horr.

To them both, our hearty, if belated congratulations.

IN TIN WHISTLES

N-S Sr. Player Wins 2nd Donald Parson Trophy

J. Porter Brinton, Jr. of Greenwich, Conn., here playing in the North-South Senior Golf Championship, won the Donald Parson Trophy in the Tin Whistle Club's second renewal of the memorial tournament honoring the late Pinehurst cottager, who was a past president and club champion of the Tin Whistles.

Brinton, a Class B player, produced a score of 73-10-63 for low net of the field, in the 18 hole individual stroke play event.

Another in the field of 100—Frederick J. Zoellin—Saturday scored a hole-in-one during the playing of the Parson Memorial.

Paired with Edgar B. Schuck of Carnegie, Pa., Zoellin, from Birmingham, Mich., landed his 151-yard five-wood tee shot in the cup on the 18th hole of the Number One course.

Divisional results of the contest:

Class A—first, Roland R. MacKenzie, 66-2-64 on Number Three; runner-up, Raymond E. North, 75-9-66 on Number One.

Class B—runner-up Walter D. Peek, 79-11-68 on Number Two.

Class C—first, Ben D. Black, 81-14-67 on Number Three; runner-up, Alfred N. Derouin, 84-14-70 on Number One.

Class D—first, Harry M. Taylor, 85-16-69; runner-up, S. A. Strickland, 85-15-70, both on Number One.

Class E—first, John R. Burr, 88-21-67 on Number Two; and tier for runner-up position, Dr. Francis L. Owens, 87-19; and Benjamin J. Darling, 99-31, both on Number One Course.

Local Real Estate

Firm Lists Rentals

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Scammell, Jr. are arriving tomorrow, Friday, from Willow Grove, Pa., to spend the winter in the Kingston Reed house on Page Road, which they have leased through Biddle & Company.

Both are members of the Pinehurst Country Club and he is a member of the Tin Whistles Club. They have been visitors here for many seasons. Mr. Scammell is a nephew of the late Henry C. Fownes and a brother of Mrs. H. Sinclair Kerr, who with her husband, now owns the former Fownes house on Village Green East.

Other rentals transacted through the Biddle agency and announced this week include an apartment in the Charles F. Eaton Mystic Cottage to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Venezia of Greensboro, and a Cloverleaf apartment to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anacelli. Mr. Venezia is associated with the Carolina Hotel, and Mr. Anacelli is a teaching golf professional at the Country Club.

Kevin McKenzie Given Party On 4th Birthday

Mrs. Billy G. McKenzie entertained her nephew, Kevin McKenzie, at a party last Monday his fourth birthday. The youngsters played games and enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake. They were given favors of balloons and coloring books and crayons.

Kevin's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKenzie, who live on Linden Road.

Young guests were Crystal Monroe, Lib King, Billy Mallard, Ricky Tufts and Jackie Bryant.
