DeCostas Unbeatable Team In Duplicate Play At Carolina

The nearly unbeatable husband-wife combination, the Frank deCostas from Southern Pines, took top bridge honors in Friday's regular duplicate session at the Carolina Hotel. The Howell Movement was used.

In second place were Mrs. Charles A. Dailey and Miss Margaret Lavery, both Pinehurst cottagers and fine players.

Two other Southern Pines players, with their partners, were third and fourth place winners—Miss Katherine Wiley teamed with Mrs. I. Foy Horton, of Thomasville, third; and Mrs. Elree May partnered by Mrs. William J. Burke of Pinehurst, fourth.

HERE and AWAY

Mrs. A. F. Popham and her daughter, Mrs. Victoria Mesick, last week returned home following a visit of several days in Oxon, Md. with the former's son, Louis C. Popham.

Peter W. Darst, who received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps in October, after four years' service, has gone to Washington, D. C., where he has a position with an insurance firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Fisher returned home Sunday after a stay at Sea Island, Ga. Shelby Stevens, a student at Fishburne Academy, was home for the weekend with his mother, Mrs. S. T. Stevens.

The John S. Zelies returned recently to their place here after spending the summer at their family home, Pond Island, Maine. They also were visitors, en route home, in Plainfield, N. J.

Spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. William C. Sledge and family is her mother, Mrs. Byron W. Whitman of Reading, Pa. Mr. Whitman, who was here for the weekend, returned to Reading Sunday.

Arriving Monday for the winter with Dr. and Mrs. Francis L. Owens and family was her father, John Owens of Johnstown, Pa. Sunday visitors with the Owensens were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Owens of Florence, S. C.

Miss Ann Roddey left Monday for Staunton Va., where she has accepted the position as choir director for the First Presbyterian Church.

Back from the summer at their place in Hamilton Mass., are Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Shaw McKean and their sons, Robbie and David.

Bishop and Mrs. Louis C. Melcher drove to Sullivan's Island, S. C. Sunday afternoon where the Bishop officiated at the christening of their granddaughter, Mary Jo, seven week old daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Melcher, Jr. The infant was baptized in the Church of the Holy Cross, of which her father is rector. The Rev. Mr. Melcher accompanied his parents back home, remaining with them here until Tuesday.

Arriving Wednesday to spend several weeks with Mrs. Edward C. Conlin was Mrs. J. H. B. Rebham of Garden City, Long Island, N. Y.

Returning to their home here Wednesday after a week's vacation in Nassau, B.W.I., were Mr. and Mrs. J. Ellis Fields, Jr. Their three daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Fields, Sr. during their parents' absence.

ON HONOR ROLL

Cadet Shelby T. Stevens has achieved the first Academic Honor Roll for the first academic period of the current school year, according to Col. Roy W. Haynes, headmaster at Fishburne Military School in Waynesville, Va.

Cadet Stevens, son of Mrs. S. T. Stevens of Pinehurst, is in his sophomore year at Fishburne School.

Gordon Cameron Memorial Fund Set Up By Lions

The Gordon Cameron Memorial Educational Fund has just been established by the Pinehurst Lions Club.

The $250 annual fund will be used to help Pinehurst students to further their education.

This type of memorial is the first to be set up in this way, though the Lions Club has established several memorials, in the form of trophies which are presented yearly to students outstanding in some particular field.

Gordon Cameron, who died August 5, was an official of Pinehurst, Inc. for many years and served 25 years on the Moore County board of commissioners, most of that time as chairman.
