County High School Basketball Report

By JOEL STUTTS
Director Sports Publicity

With the high school basketball season in its third week of play, only two boys teams, Pinehurst and Aberdeen, and three girls teams—Pinehurst, West End and Carthage—remain unbeaten.

This indicates a close race in the conference, as was anticipated before the season began.

One of the top games played last Friday was the Aberdeen-Southern Pines boys' encounter which was won by Aberdeen in an exciting contest, 55-51. Wayne Lewis led the Red Devils with 21 points while Francis Warren collected 21 also for the Blue Knights.

A last-second basket by Mike Lewis enabled Robbins to edge Carthage boys by a 45-44 score in a feature game played Tuesday at Robbins.

COMING GAMES

Friday: Pinehurst at Vass-Lakeview, High Falls at West End, Farm Life at Westmoore, Robbins at Aberdeen and Carthage at Cameron.

Tuesday: Southern Pines at High Falls, Vass-Lakeview at Farm Life, West End at Robbins, Westmoore at Carthage and Aberdeen at Cameron.
