(Continued from Page 1) range, homesites and apartment buildings; Highland Trails, some 500 wooded acres, being developed for 200 eventual homesites around two 50-acre lakes; and continued growth of Whispering Pines, a rapidly growing residential development which now has four lakes, clubhouse, 18-hole golf-course, marina and many homes, built in process or in the planning stages. Whispering Pines, brainchild of A. B. Hardee, formerly of Lexington, became a post office address November 1.

A short distance, on US Highway 1, north of town, the Whispering Pines Motor Lodge and Restaurant were built and opened, while south of town, also on the highway, the new Holiday Inn and restaurant opened.

A county mental health clinic, established July 1 at Southern Pines, already has plans to become regional. A building for it will be built near Moore Memorial Hospital at Pinehurst. Moore Memorial is in the midst of a construction program to cost more than $2 million, to bring patient capacity up to nearly 200 and add numerous new facilities.

A 400-acre forest between Southern Pines and Fort Bragg was turned over to the State by the Boyd family to become the first nature preserve in the States parks system.

Also at Southern Pines, work started on $385,000 worth of improvements and expansion of the water and sewer systems, plus construction of a $35,000 public swimming pool in West Southern Pines and a $29,000 enlargement of the library ($25,000 in bonds voted by the citizens, plus private contributions).

The new West Southern Pines (Negro) high school was completed and occupied, and a few months later became fully accredited by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools.

The addition of toll-free phone service between Aberdeen and Pinehurst completed a triangle receiving this service, already in effect between Southern Pines and Pinehurst, and Southern Pines and Aberdeen. A new business unit in Southern Pines was occupied by a Sears Roebuck order office, Sherwin Williams paint store and the Austin Business Machines and office supply shop. A new drive-in branch was authorized for the Carolina Bank of Pinehurst at Aberdeen. Cato's, Inc., a women's and children's apparel business out of Charlotte, added its 92nd and 93rd units at Southern Pines and Aberdeen in time for Christmas shopping.

The Sandhill Production Credit Association built a new home at Carthage. At Aberdeen, a new business street was opened up off US 1 and the Aberdeen Savings and Loan Association started construction of a new building there.

A skating rink opened in a new building between Southern Pines and Pinehurst.

Sandhills Rescue Unit No. 4 was organized at Aberdeen, completing the Moore County Rescue Squad's coverage of the county. Vass Unit No. 2 built a building, while Robbins Unit No. 1 started one, and Carthage Unit No. 3 made plans. At Pinebluff, a new firehouse was completed and dedicated.

Crestline Rural Fire Department was organized east of Aberdeen, bought a truck and started a firehouse.

The Moore County Wildlife Club and Moore County Law Enforcement association each began construction of a lakeside lodge.

The Village Chapel at Pinehurst completed its new Chapel Hall, and Our Saviour Lutheran church at Southern Pines announced plans for construction of a new church building on No. 1 Highway South.

GREETINGS

...and good wishes to all

*At the Yuletide, one of our greatest pleasures is to greet our many good friends with warm wishes
for a season rich in the quiet peace of a winter landscape...the
jubilant joy of a ringing bell. And may all the happiness of Christmas be yours,*
