Major Becker, Retired From Service In Army, Now Teaching In Baltimore

MAJOR ROBERT J. BECKER
After retiring from the U. S. Army, with more than 20 years of service, Major Robert J. Becker of 355 E. Vermont Ave., is teaching in the Baltimore (Md.) city schools. His formal retirement took place at Fort Holabird, Md., on November 30.

While at home here for the Christmas holidays, he said that he hopes to obtain a teaching position in this area for the 1964-65 school year, enabling him to return here and be with his family.

Major Becker's wife is the former Frances Shaw, and they have two children, Kay, 14, and Robert, 3. Mrs. Becker is the owner and operator of the Frandel Beauty Shop here. The family is remaining in Southern Pines while Major Becker continues with his teaching in Baltimore.

Serving as an officer throughout all but three years of his career, Major Becker entered the Army in 1941 in Cleveland, Ohio. In 1944 he was commissioned a second lieutenant at Fort Custer, Mich.

Major Becker saw action with the 25th Infantry Division at Guadalcanal, and with the 65th Infantry Division in Europe. He was the first American soldier in the town of Regensburg, Germany.

He went to Fort Holabird from an assignment in France in 1956, and after attending the Intelligence School was assigned as Deputy Chief of Aerial Reconnaissance Committee. (Image Interpretation) of U. S. Army Intelligence School, a position he held until his retirement.

The most memorable event in his Army career was the Berlin Airlift, Major Becker said.

"I was amazed at the morale, and the hardships the German people were enduring to maintain their freedom. During this time I was part of the Berlin Garrison, with duty in the SI Section," he said.

While in Germany he was Youth Activities Officer. With money he and others collected from U. S. military personnel in Berlin, 50,000 German children were fed at Christmas time.

Major Becker, who is a graduate of the University of Maryland, is the son of Mrs. Margaret Becker of Cleveland, Ohio.

The car on top is a 1964 Dodge 330 two-door sedan. It has a unitized, rust-protected body, front seat belts, an alternator electrical system, self-adjusting brakes and a 225 cubic inch, six-cylinder engine. It will go 32,000 miles between major grease jobs, 4,000 miles between oil changes.

The car on the bottom is the same model, a 1964 Dodge 330 two-door sedan. And we can say the same good things about it.

There's one difference. It's equipped the way many people buy cars these days.

For a fact, Dodge offers a full line of cars in the low-price field. Sedans, hardtops, convertibles, wagons, the works. They call 'em "The Dependables," because they are.
