

WEST END NEWS AND PERSONALS

By SALLY AUMAN

The Rev. Darrell Cox has accepted the call to the West End Baptist Church. Announcement was made by Bobby Dunn, who served as chairman of the pulpit committee.

The Rev. and Mrs. Cox, with their three-year-old son, Gregory, moved into the parsonage Friday and he conducted worship services Sunday evening. The Rev. Mr. Cox is a senior at Fruitland Baptist Institute in Hendersonville and will graduate in March. In the interim, he will conduct services here each second and fourth Sunday morning and each first and third Sunday evening. He will also continue to serve the Center Cross Baptist Church near Seagrave, where he has been the pastor for two years.

Both the Rev. and Mrs. Cox are natives of High Point. He graduated from the Allen Jay High School and the Piedmont Bible College in Winston-Salem. Mrs. Cox, the former Hilda Kennedy, who attended Bryce Commercial College, is a secretary in High Point and will continue her work until the family moves here permanently in March.

On Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hartsell spent 10 days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hartsell, Harvey is with the US Air Force and, prior to his furlough, was stationed at Elgin AFB near Pensacola, Fla. On Wednesday, Harvey will leave by jet for a year's tour-of-duty as a radar technician in Alaska. During the year, Mrs. Hartsell and Robyn will make their home with her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Perkins, in Thomasville, Ala.

Five Chemistry Teachers Will Receive Awards

Nominations have been asked for special awards honoring the five most outstanding high school chemistry teachers in a 26-county North Carolina area that includes Moore County.

The invitation was issued by Dr. John F. Williams of the Liggett and Myers Tobacco Co. in Durham, chairman of the Secondary School Chemistry Teacher Awards Program of the North Carolina Section of the American Chemical Society, which sponsors the annual event.

Any chemistry teacher in the area who was not among those honored last year is eligible. Nominations must be made either by the school principal or superintendent.

In addition, four others will win scrolls of commendation. Judging will be done by members of the awards committee of the N. C. Section of the ACS, and the winners will be honored at a meeting of the Society to be held in February.

with Thomas, Jane, Jennifer and Eric, spent the holidays in Florida. On Christmas Day, the children went wading in the ocean at Miami Beach, although it was too cold to swim, with the temperature at 51 degrees. Stopping at Orangeburg, S. C., for worship services on Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church, they enjoyed visiting with Dan Roberts, formerly of Carthage.

Woman's Club Program

Moore County Farm Agent, F. D. Allen will present a program to the Woman's Club Thursday evening at the Methodist Youth Building. Mr. Allen will show slides and discuss gardening, shrubs and the cultivation of roses.
