Southern Pines Recorders Court

The first after-holiday session of Southern Pines Recorder's Court, held Thursday of last week at town hall with Judge W. Harry Fullenwider presiding, produced assault, traffic and a variety of other cases.

Several defendants chose to walk to Howard Johnson's Restaurant and back to the town hall, in place of paying a fine, also paying court costs.

Stiffest sentences of the day were meted out to Billy Lee Ceaser of West Southern Pines—three months on the roads for assault with a deadly weapon, and one month, not to run concurrently, for destruction of personal property. No appeal was entered.

Charged with affray, Bobby Terry, also of West Southern Pines, was sentenced to two months on the roads and entered an appeal to Superior Court. Bond was set at $500 and Judge Fullenwider instructed that the defendant's past court records are to be sent to the Superior Court, with a recommendation that a jail sentence be given, if he is found guilty.

Another defendant was charged with destruction of personal property, Oscar McGill of Taylortown, Pinehurst. Judgment as of non-suit was allowed in this case.

Walking, instead of paying fines, and offenses with which they were charged, were:

Henry Cook Davis, Route 1, West End, speeding 45 in 35 zone; Margaret Rose Tippet, Route 8, Sanford, speeding 50 in 35 zone; John Rowland Matte, Pinehurst, no operator's license; Thomas Lee Black, Route 1, West End, speeding 50 in 35 zone; Robert Lee Hunt, Ellerbe, allowing unlicensed person to drive; Margaret Cole Thompson, no operator's license; Cosmo J. Margalotti, Fort Bragg, failure to drive auto to right of center line, not in passing; and Edward Hart Koster, speeding 50 in 35 zone.

Three defendants were charged with drunken driving, all sentenced to pay $100 fines and costs and to surrender driver's license for revocation. They were: Ray J. Furr, Route 2, Vass; Mary Hall Powell, Fayetteville; and Douglas A. Haddix, Fort Bragg, who was also charged with possession of taxpaid liquor with seal broken.

Charged with public drunkenness, noting disposition of cases, were: Lee Lawson, Route 2, Vass, Glen Phillips Star, and Hubert Jozwinski, Clifton, N. J., each $10 and costs; Arthur Lucas (also charged with possession of taxpaid liquor with seal broken), judgment continued on payment of costs, the whiskey to be destroyed, defendant not to be found on the premises of Bill's Taxi stand without permission of the court, not to be convicted of a similar offense or an active sentence will be given; Ernest Paye, not guilty.

Other cases heard:

Walter Ree Littles, Rockingham, no operator's license, $25 and costs; Joyce Helen Lusk, Route 2, Vass, displaying flashing light on front of vehicle when not in an emergency, not guilty; John

Allen McNeill, trespass, vile and profane language, pay the costs, not to go back on premises of Pugh's Grill unless invited; Zannie Seagraves, Aberdeen, affray, $10 and costs; Mackie Lee Stubbs, possession of non-taxpaid whiskey, found guilty, no sentence given, appeal entered, appeal bond already set in a former case involving this defendant, in Superior Court; John Walter Eleam, Fort Bragg, and Jessie Mae Garrison, McCain, each charged with speeding 45 in 35 zone, each, $10 and costs; Paul Gaddy Cotten, vile and profane language, $10 and costs; Oliver Hunter, abandonment, case left open, if any further complaints, defendant will receive active jail sentence.
