VASS-LAKEVIEW SCHOOL SECRETARY WEDS AIRMAN IN METHODIST CHURCH

Miss Dolores Ann Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Brooks Frye of Vass, became the bride of Airman Henry Mitchel Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDougald Callahan of Vass, in a lovely Christmas Eve candlelight service at the Vass Methodist Church.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Bobby Joe Elue of Carthage, matron of honor, who wore a steeple-length emerald green dress of taffeta, fashioned with boat neck, short sleeves and bell skirt.

All the attendants wore elbow length white gloves. Their headpieces, made by the bride were of green veiling attached to a crown of green taffeta and each carried a single red poinsettia. Their dresses were identical in style and color to that of the honor attendant.

Bridesmaids were Miss Amy Jo Callahan, sister of the bride groom, Patricia Callahan, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Ann Crockett of Lakeview.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and covered with a cropped jacket with long tapered sleeves which ended in points over the hands. The skirt, featuring deep pleats in the front edged with lace and gathered pleats on either side, ended in a long chapel train.

The gown was made by Mrs. Bob Maurer of Aberdeen. The bride made her own flowing headpiece of illusion fitted over a crown of satin and lace matching that on the edges of her gown. She carried a single red rose.

The church was decorated in Christmas red and green. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. David Moe, pastor, before an altar draped in red taffeta. Floor baskets of red gladiolas and white pom-poms were used at the altar, offsetting the beautiful Christmas greenery.

Pre-nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Karl Schweinfurth, organist; David Page of Southern Pines, who sang "Ava Maria," and Danny Williams who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridegroom's father was his best man. Ushers were Bill Frye, a brother of the bride; Roy Frye, Jimmy Marshburn and Charles D. Cameron, of Route 1, Cameron. Sylvia Callahan was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a blue three-piece suit and a white corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Couple Receive

Following the ceremony, the bridal party received in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. R. A. Evans was in charge of the decorations and Mrs. W. J. Morgan directed the wedding.

Wedding Trip

After a wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla., and to Alabama and Georgia the couple has returned to Vass.

Both are 1962 graduates of the Vass-Lakeview High School, where Mrs. Callahan is employed as secretary. Her husband, who has been attending a Naval Air Technical Training Command school in Memphis, Tenn., is continuing his training at Brunswick, Ga. Mrs. Callahan plans to join her husband in the Spring.

From Out of Town

Out-of-town guests present were: John McCrummen and Mrs. Bob Maurer of Aberdeen; Miss Mildred Womble and her mother, Mrs. J. B. Womble, Sr. of Ashley Heights; Miss Susan Irby of Wake Forest; Airman Clifford Hudson and Miss Barbara Kolts of Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rice of Southern Pines; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frye, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Robinson of Candor, and Mrs. Alice O'Brian of Raeford.

Rehearsal Party

Shrine Club Has Holiday Party

The December meeting of the Moore County Shrine Club was held at Hernando's Hideaway on Saturday, December 28.

The business of the evening was set aside, in favor of a Ladies' Night holiday party.

Following a delicious steak dinner, the 66 Nobles and their Ladies enjoyed a friendly evening of sociability and dancing to good music. Some of the older couples gave the younger members some keen competition on the dance floor.

All agreed it was a very successful holiday party and expressed the hope that this will become an annual event.

Returned Tar Heels Are Now Settled In Southern Pines Home

Now living in the home at 480 South May Street which they purchased from Mrs. Lochamy L. McLean, are Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hawkins and son, Jeff, three, who completed the move on New Year's Eve.

Mrs. McLean has moved to the home of Mrs. John S. McLaughlin on East Indiana Ave.

Since April, 1963, when the Hawkinses decided to come to Southern Pines from Cove City, they have been shuttling back and forth between the two towns, but now expect to put down roots here.

Mr. Hawkins owns and operates the Hawkins Electric Company situated on U. S. Highway 1 (formerly Lane's Service Station).

After several years working in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. as an electrician, he and his wife, who both are natives of Cove City, decided to return there, where he has worked independently for the past three years.

Mr. Hawkins also has two sons, Kenny and Philip, who live in Kinston.

The couple are Baptists and hope, now that they are no longer commuting, to join the First Baptist Church in Southern Pines.

Mardi Gras Ball Planned For Jan. 31 By Sponsors

The executive committee of St. Anthony's Women's Club met last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. L. D. McDonald to discuss final arrangements for the Mardi Gras Ball, to be held this year on January 31, in the National Guard Armory on Morganton Road.

The Burt Massengale orchestra of Greensboro will provide music for dancing from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m.

During the Grand March, a mink stole will be given to a lucky winner.

Last year's King and Queen, L. D. McDonald and Mrs. Hollis Thompson, will crown the new king and queen, whose identity will be secret until revealed during the course of the dance.

At the general meeting of the St. Anthony's Women's Club, held Monday night in the school auditorium, further plans were announced about the dance which the organization sponsors yearly, and about the parade which will precede it.

Titled "The Parade of the Mardi Gras," this will be held in downtown Southern Pines, led by city notables, and will begin at 11:30 a. m. on Saturday, January 25. More details will be given in a later issue of The Pilot.

Tickets and reservations for the ball, it was stated should be made by calling Mrs. Raymond J. Dougherty, 692-81. There will be a set admission charge for couples.
