Baptist Activities

Sunday afternoon, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church, in honor of the Rev. Glenn E. McCormick and his family. Guests were greeted at the door by H. N. Russell, chairman of the Deacon Board, and his wife, who introduced the new pastor and his wife. Also in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooper, Mrs. E. H. Poole, and E. T. Davidson.

Mrs. Herman Guthrie invited the guests to the refreshment table where Mrs. G. D. Anderson and other ladies served hot spiced tea, cakes and nuts. Approximately 150 guests, including many from surrounding towns, called during the afternoon to greet the McCormicks and have fellowship together.

A banquet honoring all elected workers of First Baptist Church was held on Thursday evening, January 23. After a delicious meal, the leaders of each department in the church gave brief talks on their work, including plans and aims for the coming year. The Rev. Mr. McCormick then gave a most interesting talk on the challenge facing us as a church. Almost 100 faithful workers attended.

Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. George Anderson was hostess to members of her bridge club on Tuesday, January 21. Following luncheon, the group enjoyed several progressions of bridge. Mrs. C. D. Sunrise Theatre

In the wonderful zany vein of "The Shaggy Dog," "The Absent-Minded Professor" and "Son of Flubber," Walt Disney has produced another wild and wacky feature comedy-fantasy, "The Misadventures of Merlin Jones," now playing at the Sunrise Theatre. Not only is it in the best tradition of way-out, screwball screen entertainment, but it has the extra drawing power of its two stars, the popular teen-age favorites, Tommy Kirk and Annette.

Tommy plays, strictly for laughs, the part of an oddball college student whose weird mental experiments involve him and his beautiful girl friend, Jennifer, in an unending series of hilarious situations.

For his side-splitting adventure, Disney has enlisted the light-hearted talents of some of Hollywood's best known pros in the comedy field. Leon Ames is a stern judge who has some unorthodox off-bench hobbies. Stuart Edwin and Dal McKennon are perplexed plain-clothes policemen. Alan Hewitt is a befuddled professor, and Connie Gilchrist is the judge's lackadaisical housekeeper.

VA Pension Form

Deadline: Feb. 1

J. D. DeRamus, manager of the North Carolina Veterans Administration Regional Office, Winston-Salem, said this week that 8,269 veterans or dependents of deceased veterans in North Carolina must send in their annual income questionnaires by Friday, January 31, or risk having their pensions discontinued.

The VA Regional Office sent 48,750 questionnaires with November checks about December 1.

The law requires that pensions be suspended to all persons who do not have their income reported before February 1.

MOORE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT
Civil Suit Against W. O. Moss Settled Out Of Court For Undisclosed Amount

The $25,000 civil suit of Jennette G. Pitts vs. W. O. Moss terminated in Moore County Superior Court last week with settlement in an undisclosed amount.

Through terms of the consent judgment, the plaintiff elected to take a non-suit, and Judge Frank Armstrong of Troy ordered that she be non-suited and taxed with the costs.

Mr. Moss, who is joint master of the Moore County Hounds and owner of Mile-Away Farm near Southern Pines, was found not guilty in Southern Pines Recorder's Court when tried some time ago on an assault charge brought by Mrs. Pitts, who alleged that he had injured her physically during an argument. Both Mr. Moss and Mrs. Pitts are residents of the Manly community.

The Pitts-Moss case was one of three consent judgments signed in the short civil term, constituting nearly all the business of the week. Motions in pending cases were heard Monday, and the term ended Wednesday.

Consent judgment was signed in the case of Harold Williams, administrator of the estate of Maggie Williams, deceased, and as sole heir and next of kin of Maggie Williams, vs. J. C. Burns, Jr., alias Bud Burns, Robert Thompson and Edna Taylor, plaintiff to recover $300 on account of the wrongful cutting of timber from the lands specified on or about November 14, 1957.

Consent judgment was signed after the jury was sworn in and evidence taken in the case William Robert Poe vs. James Henry Cox, plaintiff to recover $2,500 for injuries past, present and prospective sustained in accident at Greensboro December 14, 1960, as result of being struck by auto driven by Ruth Moffitt Cox.

Divorces were granted as follows on grounds of two years' separation: Barbara White Meuse vs. Melvin Joseph Meuse; Mittie Lee Phillips vs. Joseph Clayton Phillips; and Myrtle Webber Hawks vs. Franklin D. Hawks.

Tree Diseases To Be Discussed By Wildlife Speaker

Fred E. Whitfield, forest management specialist with the North Carolina Extension Service, Raleigh, will be the speaker at the February meeting of the Moore County Wildlife Club, to be held Tuesday, February 4, at Holiday Inn.

Club members and guests will gather at 7 p. m., with dinner set for 7:30, said Ralph Mills of Southern Pines, club president.

"Genetics and Disease" will be the speaker's topic—a subject of special interest to this community which is proud of its trees, Mr. Mills pointed out.

Mr. Whitfield has a B. S. degree from North Carolina State and a Master's Degree in Entomology from Syracuse University in New York State.

Everybody who wants a Wildcat, please stand up.
Everybody who wants a Skylark, please stand up.
Everybody who wants a Riviera, please stand up.

Now that everybody's standing, let's all go to the Buick Sports Car Rally.

Really.

It would be a shame to waste this chance to drive one of Buick's lively sport models, wouldn't it? Especially considering your Buick dealer's so close, and the price is so nice. That's what the Sports Car Rally is all about. And they're all luxurious enough to make you wonder why anybody'd settle for a two-seater. A finely tuned production 340 hp Wildcat with a skilled driver scored the highest miles per gallon in the economy test of Class 1—high performance V-8's—at the Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Florida. (So who's surprised? Not Wildcat owners.)
