

Clothing, Furniture, 'Shoe Fund' Gifts Can Help Needy Families Over County

Mrs. Walter B. Cole of Carthage, director of Moore County Department of Public Welfare, said this week that her agency needs clothing and furniture for low-income families during the Winter and school months.

Especially needed are shoes for children who are attending school. If there is any individual or organization who would like to give to the Public School Shoe Fund, donations would be most appreciated and will be used to help keep children attending school regularly Mrs. Cole said. Contributions should be sent to Moore County Department of Public Welfare, Carthage.

Several families in the county have been burned out and are still in need of household furnishings, it was stated. Also as case workers visit homes they see the need for furnishings that are essential such as cooking utensils, dishes, chairs or an extra bed.

"We have storage space in Carthage and will pick up any furnishings you may have that you are not using," Mrs. Cole said.

"Each community in Moore

County did a wonderful job in remembering children and aged and lonely persons at Christmas time. Our agency is most appreciative of your cooperation, especially the work done by the Christmas Cheer committees.

"The Shoe Fund and used clothing and used furniture contributions can make it possible for you to provide Christmas in a small but important way all during the year."

Can Take Tax Refunds In U. S. Savings Bonds

Taxpayers are reminded that they can take Federal tax refunds in U. S. Savings Bonds. Taxpayers due Federal Income Tax refunds can take them in Series E Savings Bonds, cash, or apply the refund to next year's tax.

The individual income tax forms — 1040 and 1040A — provide a space in which taxpayers may elect U. S. Savings Bonds for their refunds. Information on the option also appears in the instructions for both of these forms.

Dr. Horn's Recital At St. Andrews Friday To Include Works By Bartok

DR. HERBERT HORN

Works by Bartok, Schumann, Beethoven and Brahms will be played by Herbert Horn in his first faculty piano recital at St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, on Friday evening, January 31.

Dr. Horn's program begins at 8 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Auditorium on campus, and is open to the public.

Head of the piano department at the St. Andrews Conservatory of Music since September, Dr. Horn came to North Carolina from California and Hawaii. He completed his work for the Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of Southern California recently.

His parents, the Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Horn live here, at 510 W. Maine Ave.

While he was associate professor of piano at the University of Hawaii, Dr. Horn was selected by the National Guild of Piano Teachers to make a concert tour of the Islands.

At the 1963 state convention of the California Music Teachers Association, he gave an all Bartok recital. This reflects his work in recent years through the study and performance of Bela Bartok's piano music.

Ten pieces from the 153 which make up Bartok's "Mikrokosmos" are included as a section of the January 31 recital. They range from the Hungarian folk music influence in "Merry Andrew" to the percussive treatment of "Chords Together and Opposed."

Horn's recital will open with one of Robert Schumann's greatest compositions, "C Major Fantasy."

After intermission, the program resumes with Beethoven's "Sonata in D Major, Op. 28." A group of three pieces by Brahms concludes the recital: "Rhapsody, G Minor, Op. 79, No. 2," "Intermezzo, E flat Minor, Op. 118, No. 6," "Capriccio, D Minor, Op. 116, No. 7."

In his career, the St. Andrews professor has appeared as soloist with the Chicago Symphony and the Seattle Symphony orchestras. He has played hundreds of engagements as solo recitalist and ensemble pianist.

Children's Home Group Thanks Contributors

A successful December fund-raising campaign has been reported by the Children's Home Society of North Carolina, with offices in Greensboro, Charlotte and Raleigh.

Just over $66,000 was received in answer to the Society's traditional Christmas season appeal, said William D. Snider of Greensboro, Society president.

"We want to say 'Thank you' to the many North Carolinians who responded to our appeal," he said.

The Society is a child-caring and adoption planning agency which gives its services statewide without charge. Its support is entirely voluntary.
