Whispering Pines News

By PAT KAYLOR
Valentine Ball

Over 120 persons enjoyed the annual Valentine Ball staged by the Social Activities Committee of the Whispering Pines Country Club last Friday night. A social hour was enjoyed, commencing at 7 p. m., in the new social room of the Dobbs House Whispering Pines Restaurant. Following the social hour, the guests moved to the decorated ball room where seating was at tables of 10 persons each. During dinner, dancing was enjoyed to Bob Smith's Orchestra of Fayetteville.

Dancing continued after dinner until midnight. A number of out-of-town guests were present for the festivities.

House Guests
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hardee entertained a number of friends in their new home at a late buffet supper following the Valentine Ball. The Hardees had as their weekend house guests Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rippey of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Golding of Leaksville.

Visiting Daughter
Mrs. Charles Vernon Palmer of Charlotte is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Nelson Adams, at the latter's home on Spring Valley Lake.

Ladies Golf Association
The bad weather last Tuesday drove the ladies indoors for their meeting, and, to their disappointment, no golf. A few brave souls ventured out for a few holes but gave it up when their cheeks began to turn blue instead of red.

Men's Golf Meeting
An organizational meeting for a Men's Golf Association will be held at the Whispering Pines Country Club on Thursday, February 27 at 7:30 p. m. The committee appointed by Chairman Jim Elack will submit a proposed Constitution and By Laws. All members of the Whispering Pines Club are invited and urged to attend.

Makes Eagle
Glenn Lassiter of Robbins carded an eagle two on the par-4 8th hole at the club last week. His second wood shot dribbled into the hole, much to his delight and the awe of the others in his foursome.

Attends Golf Seminar
Larry Beck, assistant pro at the club, attended the 6th Annual Carolinas Section (P.G.A.) Seminar held at Sedgewick Inn, Greensboro. He is a member of the Educational Committee. He reported a very effective and educational meeting.

Attends Conference
Linwood Harmon, the superintendent responsible for the fine condition of the Whispering Pines Golf Course, has returned from Philadelphia, where he attended, with some 2,700 other superintendents and greens keepers, a national conference on Golf Course Maintenance.

Representatives of Golf Course equipment manufacturers and other commercial companies producing material used on golf courses were also in attendance. Mr. Harmon reports a highly informative and successful meeting was held. From the new information he received, he is going to try and make the course even better, if possible.

Girl Scout News

Under the new Girl Scout program, Mrs. John C. Grier, Jr., of Pinehurst is the new neighborhood chairman for Moore County. In Southern Pines, Mrs. John Euchholz is troop organizer, assisted by Mrs. Watson Smith.

Mrs. Dante Montesanti is chairman of the Cookie Sale and Mrs. Emanuel Sontag is publicity chairman.

Leaders of Brownie Troop 685 are: Mrs. Eva Daniels and Mrs. Vance Derby.

Brownie Troop 689 was led, until January, by Mrs. Kitty Perry, to whom a vote of thanks is extended. A volunteer is needed to take her place. Assistant leader of this troop is Mrs. Jerry Rugh.

Brownie Troop 690 leaders are Mrs. Marilyn Bradley and her assistant, Mrs. John McGovern.

Leaders of the three Junior Troops are: Troop 626—Mrs. Carl Wallace and Mrs. Walter Harper; Troop 632—Mrs. Laney Grady (an assistant leader is needed for this troop); Troop 621—Mrs. Mike McAlley and Mrs. Raymond Cameron.

Cadet Troop 628 leader is Mrs. William R. Bonsal, III; assistant leaders, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Richard Winn and Mrs. Harry McStavick.

Senior Troop 625 leaders: Mrs. William Huntley and Mrs. Harry Fullenwider.

Appreciation is expressed to Mrs. Charles Phillips for acting as Southern Pines neighborhood chairman for the 18 months preceding the Girl Scouts' merger with the other 18 counties, and to Mrs. Emanuel Sontag for acting as District chairman over Moore County for three and a half years.

12; and "Dooley" Diethenhofer, 11.

Junior Varsity
The Junior Varsity boys' team finished up the season Friday afternoon by defeating the West End boys—marking the ninth victory with no defeats. Previous games featured victories over Aberdeen, 63-29; and Carthage 66-21. Scoring against Aberdeen was as follows: Bobby Hunt, 16; Ronnie Currie, 16; Charles Currie, 16; Ricky Frye, 10; and Bobby Beddingfield, 6.

As Carthage bowed to the Rebels, Ronnie Currie, with 16 points was high scorer, and Austin Bryant hit 15 points.

Moore County Tournaments
The county basketball tourney begins Friday night at the Pinehurst gym. Proceeds from the games are distributed equally among all participating schools in the county.

PHS students and faculty are going all out to be good hosts to the visiting teams and fans. They will be in charge of the concession stands, and they will try to keep the gym uncluttered. But your cooperation is asked—no drinks in the gym. After many weeks work selling ads, the Beta Club will make available the programs.

Industrial Center

On Tuesday, February 25, Mr. Rice, from the Sanford Industrial Center will visit PHS to talk to a few senior boys about their future and the possibility of attending the school he represents.

In North Carolina... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.
