

WEST END NEWS AND PERSONALS

BY MRS. SALLY AUMAN

Frances, Gearldine Garner and Sharon Richardson have been selected All County Basketball Stars of the West End High School. Frances is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pusser; Gearldine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Garner, and Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Richardson.

PTA Program

On Friday, March 6, the West End PTA will present a special program featuring Professional Gospel Singers from Greensboro. A free 23" T.V. Zenith console will be given away at this program. You do not have to be present to win this wonderful prize. Other prizes will also be given, such as a transistor radio, steam iron and toaster. Proceeds of this program will go toward the West End PTA goals for this year.

Dr. Tufts Speaker

Dr. Emily Tufts spoke to the Lions Club Thursday evening in behalf of the Countywide mass oral polio vaccine clinic to be held in the afternoon of March 22. All persons six months old and over are urged to take the vaccine as this is the only one which will immunize persons from the disease. T. J. Baldwin was program chairman and presented the speaker. Appreciation was expressed to Lion Baldwin for the attractive Lion signs at either edge of the community. Zone chairman of Lions, Roy Swearingen and Lion and Mrs. Allan McDonald attended the anniversary night of the Pinehurst Lions Club.

D. E. Club Banquet

The members of the Moore County Distributive Education Club entertained their employers at a banquet at the Holiday Inn on Tuesday evening. The D. E. Clubs through out the state sponsor, each year, a banquet for the purpose of showing their appreciation to their employers, school administrators and others who aid the program.

The guest speaker for the Moore County banquet was Clifton Belcher, coordinator of the Extension Division, Industrial Education Center at Durham, who spoke on "Why Community Colleges."

Sammy Fishel, chairman of entertainment, introduced the program which featured Mrs. Julian Scott, Pinebluff, guitar player and singer; James Carver and Thomas Ivey, musical group; and Sheila Taylor, Aberdeen, who danced the Charleston.

Daniel Boone delivered the invocation and Harold Food, chairman of the D. E. Advisory Committee, responded to the welcome on behalf of the committee and the school administration. West End D. E. students assisted with programs, name tags, reception committee and other planning to make this event a success.

Dr. McLean Speaks

Dr. Clifton McLean of Southern Pines, chairman of World Missions for Fayetteville Presbytery, spoke at the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. This supper meeting concluded the mission study sessions as arranged by the chairman, Mrs. Leslie Gordon. Miss Treva Auman presented the speaker and Archie Farmer gave the devotional at the meeting. Mrs. Myrton Stewart of Carthage, president of the Woman of Fayetteville Presbytery was a special guest and announced that the Rev. George R. Cheney had been appointed chairman of the Women's Work for the Presbytery.

The adult classes of the Presbyterian Church School have completed four informative mission studies on Southern Asia. "Survey of Mission Work in India, Pakistan, Ceylon and Nepal," was given by Rev. George Cheney. Watts Auman gave "Other Religions Faced by Christianity in South Asia."

Miss Treva Auman spoke on "The Church of South India and a Survey of Presbyterian, U. S. Mission Work." Woodrow McInnis gave "A New Day in Nepal," a film strip with commentary.

Personals

Thomas Cranford returned home this week with Mr. and Mrs. Julian Surles whom he had been visiting in Arlington, Va. Before returning to their home, Mr. and Mrs. Surles called on the family of a cousin, Mrs. Lucile Cranford Mullinix, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident last week in Albemarle. On Thursday, Mrs. A. G. McDuffie, Tom Lewis and Thomas Cranford left for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cranford in Tampa, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jackson, with Jane, spent Sunday in Charlotte with Bill Jackson, Jr. Bill is teaching Political Science at Charlotte College and teaches adult classes two evenings weekly. To his delight, Paschal Saunders, a former West Ender, is a student in one of his evening classes.

Hospitalized at Moore Memorial are Mrs. Rudolph Greene who has a broken leg; Willie Thomas and Mrs. Edna Kellis, who had surgery.

Teresa and Judy Luck, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Luck, are patients at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson White and daughter, Bennie Renee of Newark, N. J., visited Mrs. White's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. George R. Cheney, Jr. last week end.

Miss Jessie Merritt accompanied Franklin Farmer home for a weekend visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Farmer from Winston-Salem.

Trip Highlights

Highlighting the Clyde Aumans trip to California this month was an overnight visit with Mr. and Mrs. Kivette Stuart in Columbus, Ga. Kivette is a native of Jackson Springs and for many years has been a technician with the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company. The Stuarts have a pretty new home and are making a definite contribution to the Baptist Church, its church school and the choir.

In Albuquerque, N. M., they called Sgt. and Mrs. Gerald Cheek. The Cheeks have five little girls and Gerald has recently received an award for outstanding service to his country through his duty with the United States Air Force.

The Aumans were overnight guests of the John McInnis family in Oklahoma City. They visited the clinic where the three doctor brothers, John, Thurman and Blue, practice medicine. They saw the Southminster Presbyterian Church where the three families worship and which had recently undergone extensive renovation. The committee, Thurman and John are both elders in the church, Mrs. John McInnis, the former Miss Esther Hurley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hurley of Jackson Springs, keeps right in step with her husband, working in the PTA, the Order of the Eastern Star rearing the four children, and lending a helping hand wherever needed even if it is an emergency at the clinic. The three families have new homes on Country Club Drive where their Uncle, the Rev. Alec McInnis, is spending the winter with them.

The Aumans were delighted to find their fellow Sandhill natives making such valuable contributions in their various walks of life.
