In North Carolina... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In North Carolina... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Dr. White Speaks At Meeting Of Home Demonstration Clubs' County Council

By AMELIA S. CAPEHART
Home Economics Extension Agent (Negro Work)

Dr. F. D. White of Carthage was guest speaker at the educational program of the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs when the quarterly meeting was held in the Moore County courtroom March 11, at 7 p. m.

A film on cancer, "Time and Two Women," preceded Dr. White's talk about cancer. A question and discussion period followed.

Mrs. Amelia S. Capehart, Home Economics Extension agent, introduced the speaker.

One of the health goals of the County Council is for each club member to have a cancer examination during 1964.

Mrs. L. E. Phillips, president, presided over the business session. Voting delegates were appointed for the State Council Meeting March 25 in City Auditorium, Raleigh. Also delegates were named to the Farm and Homemakers Conference, A. & T. College, Greensboro, June 16-19.

The Home Demonstration Club Sunday Program will be at 3 p. m., John Hall Presbyterian Church, Carthage, April 26.

The president urged a large delegation from Moore County to attend all meetings in and out of the county, and thanked the members for having a 100 per cent attendance at this meeting, in addition to other visitors.

The next council meeting will be June 15, in the Community Building, Addor, with the Lincoln Park Home Demonstration Club serving as hostess.

Civil Defense Is Topic Of Meeting Today, Asheboro

County and municipal officials from eighteen central North Carolina counties are meeting in Asheboro today (Thursday) for an Area Conference on Civil Defense Responsibility. Keynote speaker for the six-hour session is Alex McMahon, general counsel for the North Carolina Association of County Officials, who was to explain the Civil Defense Program now considered a vital part of continental defense—pinpointing the responsibility of local government officials under Federal and State law.

The conference is conducted by the University Extension Division in cooperation with the Department of Defense and the North Carolina Civil Defense Agency. Other highlights of the program include a message from Governor Sanford, a report from State Civil Defense Director Edward F. Griffin, talks and radiation shielding demonstrations by the Radiological Safety Officers from Duke University and North Carolina State University, Raleigh.

Counties participating in the Asheboro Conference comprise North Carolina Civil Defense Area D. They are: Stokes, Lee, Rockingham, Caswell, Forsyth, Guilford, Alamance, Orange, Davie, Davidson, Chatham, Rowan, Randolph, Montgomery, Moore, Hoke, Richmond and Scotland.

The Veterans Administration processes 200,000 initial claims for disability in veterans compensation and pension cases each year, and an additional 400,000 claims from veterans' dependents.

We looked ahead five years... compared... then bought Minnesota's Quality House Paint

Minnesota Quality House Paint actually costs you less. It covers better, spreads further and lasts longer than so-called "bargain" paints. Result: your painting cost-per-year is lower. Quality House Paint produces a full gloss finish that is self-cleansing and mildew resistant. Your home will retain its "freshly painted" appearance and sparkle for more years with Quality House Paint.
