By MRS. EHRMAN PICKLER
Egg Hunt

Children of the Primary Department of the Pinebluff Methodist Church enjoyed an egg hunt on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foushee. Mrs. Joseph W. Adams and Mrs. Charles Elder assisted Mrs. Foushee with the children. Around 20 were present for the hunt.

Pinebluff H. D. Club

Members of the Pinebluff Home Demonstration Club have been busy in their club activities during the month of March.

The Club held its monthly meeting Thursday, March 12, with Mrs. Harry Charles presiding. Mrs. Jean Hubbard, the Home Agent, gave the lesson on "Wall Finishes and Color." After the business, there was a social hour, with Mrs. Johnny Carpenter and Mrs. T. E. Baggett, hostesses, serving a delicious congealed salad, cake, coffee and nuts. Mrs. Charles E. Elder entertained with a game on the theme of "The Easter Parade."

There was an all day workshop in the Veteran's Building teaching leaders from all over Moore County "How to make Draperies." Mrs. Harry Charles and Mrs. Mary King attended.

Mrs. Charles and Mrs. King also attended a "Planning Day" meeting for the Home Demonstration Clubs in the Baptist Church at Carthage Thursday the 19th.

On Wednesday, March 25, Mrs. Mary King went to Carthage to train for the April lesson on "Care of Canners."

There were two night workshops during the month for those working with pine needles.
