RICHARDSON PREYER

Preyer Has Day Campaigning In Towns Of County

Despite April showers and cloudy skies, Richardson Preyer was enthusiastically welcomed as he toured Moore County Saturday in the interest of his campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

At Southern Pines, Cameron, Carthage, Eagle Springs, Jackson Springs and West End, he found good turnouts and friendly greetings. At Cameron, Eagle Springs and Jackson Springs the Preyer supporters produced refreshments for all.

Accompanying Judge Preyer on the tour were Nolley Jackson of Southern Pines, at the wheel; M. G. Boyette of Carthage, Moore County campaign manager; Mrs. Pat Rainey of Southern Pines, county co-manager for the ladies; and W. C. Harris of Pinehurst, Preyer's brother-in-law.

At Southern Pines where the former State and federal judge made a brief address at the town hall, he helped open a local headquarters—a trailer stationed on the 200 block of S.W. Broad St. Local "Ladies for Preyer," represented at the opening by Mrs. Rainey and Mrs. Louise Johnson, will staff the headquarters during the rest of the primary campaign.

Coming from Greensboro, his home city, the candidate was delayed in starting his already - (Continued on Page 8)

Miss Frye To Be At Preyer Trailer Daily

Miss Jeanne Frye of Pinehurst went on duty this (Thursday) morning as a regular worker at the local trailer headquarters of the Richardson Preyer gubernatorial campaign, on S.W. Broad St.

She will continue on duty there until the May 30 primary to greet the public and give out brochures, bumper stickers, pins and other campaign material on behalf of Preyer, Democratic candidate in the primary.

Her hours will be 9 to 11 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m., six days per week. Volunteer workers at the trailer will still be welcome, it was stated.

Man Killed When Car, Truck Crash; Arrest Expected

Tillet Leo Maness, 26, of Carthage, Route 1, was instantly killed about 11 a. m. Monday when his car was in a head-on collision with a five-ton poultry truck on the Highfalls-Robbins Road, about two miles north of Robbins.

State Trooper Ray Wicker said the collision occurred in a portion of the roadway set apart by signs reading "One-Way Traffic—Caution—35 MPH." A road machine was working on one lane, while traffic was running on the other in a light drizzle of rain.

Wicker said Maness's car had passed the road machine by some 180 feet, heading south toward Robbins, when the truck driven by Wiley Robert Reynolds, 46, of Highfalls came around a bend in the road, going toward Highfalls.

Reynolds, who was only slightly hurt, told the patrolman he hit his brake and skidded on the wet road into the front of Maness's car. Maness was pinned inside his 1955 Ford which was demolished. The truck full of empty poultry crates, was heavily damaged.

Moore County Coroner W. K. Carpenter of Pinebluff, finding that Maness died of a broken neck and other injuries, recommended that Reynolds be held for grand jury action. Wicker said manslaughter charges would be preferred.

Maness, married and the father of two young children, was employed by the Carthage Fabrics Corporation Plant at Carthage. Reynolds, a substantial farmer and businessman of the area, is the son of L. R. Reynolds, chairman of the Moore County Commissioners.

PINEHURST, ABERDEEN

Collections Of Blood Scheduled

Blood collections in Moore County's continuing program will take place at Pinehurst on Monday and at Aberdeen on Tuesday, Chairman Jack Hauser of Southern Pines reminds the public.

The Pinehurst stop of a bloodmobile from the Red Cross Center at Charlotte will be at the high school gym, from noon to 5:30 p. m.

At Aberdeen, the collection point will be the First Baptist Church, from 8 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. Collections at Robbins and Vass this week brought 74 pints at Robbins and 77 at Vass, less than the assigned quotas in each location.

Blood collected in the program supplies patients at both the county's hospitals without cost, except for a small handling charge.

36-HOLE FINALS SET SATURDAY

Patton Zips Thru 4 N & S Rounds

Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, a familiar figure at Pinehurst and an old hand at mastering the No. 2 championship course, zipped through the first four rounds of the 64th North and South Invitational Golf Championship there this week.

Through Wednesday, when he resisted two wins, he had not had to play beyond the 15th hole in the twice play event. Patton has twice won the tourney in previous years.

The Morganton golfer was to face tough competition today—Frank Strafaci of Miami, Fla., the North and South winner in 1938-39. Results were to come too late for the Pilot's press time. Yesterday Patton beat Moss Becroft of Newport News, Va., and Ed Kirkland of Orlando, Fla.

Johnson Praises Gilmore's Service

President Johnson has accepted "with reluctance" the resignation of Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines as the country's first director of the U. S. Travel Service, effective April 30.

The local man is beginning a campaign for the Democratic nomination as one of two state senators in the 11th District which includes Mooresville.

Praising Mr. Gilmore's leadership, the President ended his best wishes for the future. Full text of the White House letter follows:

"Dear Mr. Gilmore: I accept with reluctance your resignation as the first Director of the U. S. Travel Service, effective April 30, 1964.

"Under your leadership the USTS was not only firmly established, but achieved a remarkable record in the promotion of travel to the United States. The nearly fifty per cent increase in overseas visitors during the past two years has contributed significantly to the nation's economy and greatly enhanced world-wide understanding of the United States, our institutions and our people.

"My best wishes to you in the future. No successor to Mr. Gilmore has been named by the President as yet.

Negroes Conduct Demonstration At Theatre Here

In this community's first civil rights demonstration, about 10 young Negro men and women repeatedly requested, and were each time denied, admittance to the main, ground-floor auditorium of the Sunrise Theatre, Sunday afternoon.

The demonstration lasted a little more than half an hour and was ended voluntarily by the Negroes who left in the same orderly manner in which they arrived and conducted themselves throughout the occasion.

About 3 p. m., the group—all well-dressed young people—lined up in front of the box office, where Robert Dutton, local theatre manager for the Stewart and Everett chain with headquarters in Charlotte, refused to sell them (Continued on Page 8)

WARD, THOMPSON

Corrections On Candidates Made

Omitted from last week's story of candidates filing was the name of Paul S. Ward of Southern Pines, incumbent county surveyor who filed for renomination on the Democratic ticket. He is opposed by Ben H. Wood of Lakeview, in the Democratic primary May 30.

Also through error in listing candidates filing before the April 17 deadline, C. C. Thompson of Pinebluff was reported to be a candidate for the county board of commissioners and Republican challenger of incumbent W. S. Taylor of Aberdeen. Actually, Mr. Thompson informs us, he filed for the county board of education, and the Democrat he will challenge in November is Jere McKeithen of Aberdeen.

Ernie Boros To Be In Summer Pro Tour

Ernie Boros, active golf pro at the Mid Pines Club here, will make the summer tournament tour, it was announced this week, joining his brother Julius, the U. S. Open champion who plays out of Mid Pines while maintaining his permanent home in Florida.

In previous summers, Ernie Boros has worked as a pro in Canada, playing in a few tournaments. He now plans to join the top pros for the full summer tour.

He has reached an agreement with a commercial sponsor, it was stated.

Registration To Begin Saturday For Primary Scheduled On May 30

Registrars and judges for the May 30 primary were announced this week by Sam C. Riddle, chairman of the Moore County Board of Elections who said, however, that there may be a few changes made in the list. Registration will begin Saturday of this week, May 2.

Since this is a Republican as well as a Democratic primary on the State level (in Moore county, the only contests are Democratic) Republican as well as Democratic judges have been appointed to serve on the primary date.

The registrars will keep the books open at the appointed polling places from 9 a. m. till sundown for three successive Saturdays starting this Saturday, the fourth Saturday, May 23, will be Challenge Day, and voting will take place from 6:30 to 6:30 on the fifth Saturday.

Persons who are properly registered on the county books in the precinct where they now reside need not register again; but persons in doubt should check, officials said.

Registrars, Democratic judges and Republican judges, in that order for each of the county's 19 precincts were listed as follows:

ABERDEEN—Mrs. Eva S. Merrill, Mrs. Grace K. McGill, Mrs. June Greer.

BENSALEM—Mrs. Carolyn Blue, John W. Bost, Paul C. Britt.

CAMERON—Miss Lucille Loving, Mrs. June Talley, Paul Doby.

EAST CARTHAGE—Capt. Angus M. Brewer, Mrs. Lillie F. Yow, Mrs. Ruby M. Dickerson.

WEST CARTHAGE—D. Gilbert Frye, Mrs. Virginia T. Frye, Hoyle Sullivan.

2 PHYSICIANS, MENTAL CLINIC MOVING

Pinehurst Medical Center Plans Told

Two Southern Pines physicians, Dr. Joseph S. Hiatt, Jr., and Dr. H. Maxwell Morrison, Jr. have new office addresses this week. Dr. Morrison, ophthalmologist, moved Monday to a suite in the just-completed Pinehurst Medical Center on Page Road, Pinehurst, opposite Moore Memorial Hospital and adjoining the Pinehurst Surgical Clinic. Dr. Hiatt will transfer his internal medicine practice to the new medical center this weekend. Both doctors are closing their Southern Pines offices.

Also moving this week into the $130,000 Pinehurst facility are Hal C. Reeves, Asheboro pharmacist, and Mrs. Graham Culbreth, Southern Pines orthopedic and surgical appliance fitter. On May 18 the roster of tenants will be completed by the Moore County Mental Health Clinic, which will be housed in the center pending completion of its own new building nearby. The mental health clinic is vacating the space it now occupies in the Matheson Memorial Center near St. Joseph's Hospital, where the hospital (Continued on Page 8)

Town Officials, 'Sandhills Queen' At Store Opening

Crowds "beyond all expected size"—according to one official—thronged the new Winn-Dixie Supermarket that opened Tuesday as the first unit in the new Town and Country Shopping Center, between Southern Pines and Aberdeen.

In the scene above, Miss Janice Lee Cagle of Robbins, who was chosen "Queen of the Sandhills" at the recent Pinehurst Volunteer Firemen's benefit dance, snips the ribbon that formally opened the $150,000 building which has 14,000 square feet of floor space.

Mayor E. O. Freeman of Aberdeen, Mayor Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., of Southern Pines, and Albert Tufts, president of Pinehurst, Inc. All the officials spoke briefly during the ceremony, welcoming the new business.

The front of the supermarket was decorated with bunting and numerous striking permanent wall decorations and signs, with many special merchandising (Continued on Page 8)
