Home Life Meeting
Mrs. G. B. Kimbrell was hostess to the Home Life department of the Aberdeen Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. G. Farrell presided over the meeting in the absence of the chairman. Mrs. Doris Collins, local beautician, made an interesting talk and gave a demonstration on the care and styling of the hair. Mrs. T. A. Burns was the model of the afternoon, coming to the meeting with her hair in rollers to have it styled by Mrs. Collins.

The hostess served party sandwiches, brownies, and punch to the members and guest present during the social hour.
Seniors Honored
Members of the Senior High Fellowship of Bethesda Presbyterian Church honored the members of the graduating class from their group at a dinner on Sunday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Johnny Burns, master of ceremonies, welcomed the group, following the invocation by Dr. W. C. Neill. A special rendition of the song "School Days," was given by Martha Neill and David McNeill, members of the Primary Department. A paper entitled "The Remarkable Class of '64" was presented by Gene Lewis. Others taking part of the program were Victor Grose and Lindsay Neill.

Guest Speaker of the evening was Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines, who spoke to the group on "Creative Imagination." He was introduced by Jere McKeithen.

Seniors honored were Sarah Odom, Barbara Maurer, Helen Laton, and Gene Troutman. Those seniors not present were Johnny Parks and Betty Sue Collins.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB NEWS

Visit Pinehurst Firm

A recent afternoon found home demonstration club women from Rainbow, Cranes Creek, Little River No. 2, Eagle Springs Clubs touring Pinehurst Warehouses, Inc. Harris Blake conducted the tour explaining the advantages and disadvantages of different types of building materials. He explained the use of various types of foundation blocks, types of framing, wall boards, windows, doors, shingles, air vents and ash dumps. Several representatives of construction material companies were present with displays and explained uses of their products. Refreshments were served and each person received a gift from the host company.

Little River No. 1 Club

Nine members and five guests of Little River No. 1 Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Carlos Frye. Mrs. John Kanoy called the meeting to order and opening song was "This Is My Father's World." Mrs. Frye gave devotions. We were glad to have Mrs. Annabell Willard back with us after a few months illness and to welcome Mrs. Ernest Harris as a new member.

The Conservation leader, Mrs. John R. Frye, with the help of Mrs. Ellis Hannon, gave the lesson on "Care of Canners and the Use of Standard Canning Equipment." Special emphasis was put on precaution in using canners, different kinds of canning for different kinds of vegetables, using standard jars in pressure canners and always storing canned goods in dry dark place so they will not lose their color.

Mrs. Mary Christian gave a report and showed the drapery she made at the Drapery Workshop at Carthage in March. Mrs.

Christian plans to use the knowledge she gained by making the draperies for the new Juniper Grange Community Building just completed in our community.

In the absence of our Family Life leader, Mrs. Ernest Harris read a piece on "How Can We Help The Aging?"

Donations were made to the Cancer Crusade and everyone was urged to get a cancer check-up this month. Also the club voted to give $10. towards cabinets for our Community Building.

Mrs. Kanoy, club president, and Mrs. John Garrison attended the County Council on April 16th. Our club was well represented by 11 members touring the Carthage Builders Supply Co. and eight attending the District Federation Meeting.

After delicious refreshments and a game, everyone enjoyed seeing the remodeling and new addition that Mr. and Mrs. Frye have made on their home.

Mrs. Ada Hannon will be hostess for the May meeting and it will be held in the Community Building. Anyone interested in joining our club is urged to meet with us, at the new time of 8 p.m., on May 25.
