Twilight Tournament
The members of the Whispering Pines Golf Club held their Twilight Tournament, Nine Holes Mixed Scotch Foursome, last Friday. Winners were: first place, Mrs. Nemo Peart and Lester Bradley; second place, Mrs. Estelle Pruitt and George "Curley" Adams; third place, Mrs. Laura Lee Menoher and Marshall McMurray; and fourth place, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Van Natter.

After play, the members enjoyed a social hour at the Club. The Twilight Tournament will be held each week during the coming months.
Ladies' Golf
The Whispering Pines Ladies' Golf Association held their regular play Tuesday. Winners were: Best Six Holes out of each Nine, Class A, Mrs. Nemo Peart; Class B, Mrs. Bettye Garneau; Low Putts, Class A, Mrs. Do Morse, and Class B, Mrs. Emily Schack.

Men's Golf
The "Pioneers" held their weekly play, a Best Ball of Partners event, and winners were: first place, George "Curley" Adams and Bill Shore; second place, Ed Nation and W. W. Welker; and third place, Marshall Ragsdale and Darrell Matthews.
Traffic Club
Members of the Eastern North Carolina Traffic Club are holding their spring golfing outing at Whispering Pines. There are over 100 members attending the event, who have their headquarters at Whispering Pines Motor Lodge. The Club's tournament was held today (Thursday) on the Whispering Pines Golf Course. They have scheduled a social hour and dinner this evening at Whispering Pines Dobbs House.

Tobacco Warehouse Assn.
Also at Whispering Pines Dobbs House Restaurant was the Tobacco Warehouse Association, who held a luncheon meeting there earlier today.

Personals
Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Callcott last weekend at Whispering Pines were Mrs. J. M. Meadows of Nashville, Tenn., and her son, Jimmy Meadows, who has recently moved to Greensboro and is associated with the Container Corporation of America.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bateman last week at their home on Spring Valley Lake were Mr. Bateman's mother, Mrs. Tom Bateman, and his sister, Miss Mildred Bateman of Durham.

Maternal Welfare Group Reports Tag Day Funds Less, Need Greater

Collections for the Moore County Maternal Welfare taken on Tag Day, May 9, have been coming in to Mrs. W. D. Sabiston, treasurer of the county committee in Carthage, and from county town chairmen. Though the final count has not been completed, it may be said that while the sum collected so far ($717.78) is not as great as in past years, it is hoped that further contributions will raise the total enough to carry on, to its fullest capacity, this work for needy mothers and their babies.

Total collected from Southern Pines to date is $442.97, with several sources still not heard from. The tables in front of the Post Office and the Library accounted for $252.97 with the addition of several checks. In West Southern Pines two churches have been heard from; the Missionary Baptist Church, with a contribution of $10.00, and the Trinity AME Zion Methodist Church $25.00. Mrs. P. I. York was in charge of collections at the latter church while Mrs. Sally Cole Lawhorn and Mrs. Cicero Carpenter handled the matter for the Missionary Baptist Church, of which they are members.

Mrs. L. T. Avery, secretary of the county group, was in charge of Tag Day here, assisted by Mrs. R. M. McMillan, at the table at the Citizen's Bank, and Mrs. Joseph Marley, who took off the whole morning to help Mrs. Avery at the Post Office. Other willing workers came for shorter spells.

Results of drives in other county towns are as follows: Carthage: $56.98 was raised by the Sorosis Club, Mrs. Betty Carter and her committee selling tags. Aberdeen: $79.78, Mrs. Talbot Johnson, co-chairman of the county committee, who was assisted by the Woman's Club, reports that she is expecting several more checks.

Robbins and West End, where both towns include the county work in their United Fund Drive, are expected to send their usual contributions.

In Pinehurst, where the drive was under the leadership of Mrs. L. C. Melcher, the sum raised was $128.05. Among those helping Mrs. Melcher were Mrs. A. P. Thompson and Mrs. Hugh Carter, members of the county committee, and Mrs. I. T. Wyche and Mrs. Albert Tufts, who have been active in the drive in past years.

In commenting that the annual fund drive of the county committee, had been short of its goal this year, Mrs. James Boyd, co-chairman with Mrs. Johnson of the county committee, pointed out that hospital records show that the population explosion is at work here as well as everywhere else.

"More needy women," she said, "are on the list of needy mothers who have been signed up by the Moore County Department of Public Health for the use of the free bed established in the Elizabeth Woltz Currie ward at Moore Memorial Hospital. While this need exists, members of the local committees will be working to make up at least some of the lacking funds."

MOUNTAIN FLOWERS

Spring foliage and small ground flowers make a colorful pattern throughout the mountains in May, and by the end of the month there is a lavish bloom of mountain laurel purple rhododendron and flame azaleas. These continue through late June at higher elevations.

Keep North Carolina Growing!

Richardson Preyer believes that farming is a source of strength to our future. To grow and prosper, he proposes:

1. Establishment of a new tobacco research facility in North Carolina.
2. Full price supports for tobacco farmers.
3. Increased research into crop yields, fertilizers and food processing techniques to help bring more canneries and food processors to the state.
4. Growing more food for our own people to close the food gap—the annual billion dollar cash loss to other states to pay for food we do not raise ourselves.
5. Paving more farm-to-market roads out of Preyer's 300 million dollar road bond issue to help raise farm income, and attract industries that want convenient outlets for their products.

Vote for Richardson Preyer for Governor... to keep North Carolina Growing, without new taxes!
