Music Workshop Scholarships Given

The Home Demonstration County Council has awarded two scholarships to the State Music Workshop to be conducted by Dr. Arnold Hoffman of the State Music Department, the week of June 15 at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The scholarships went to Miss Dorothy Caddell of the Holly Grove Home Demonstration Club and Miss Sandra Stanley of the Red Branch 4-H Club.

Miss Caddell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Caddell of Rt. 1, West End. She is a junior in West End High School. She has had four years of piano, has served as club music leader, is a member of high school glee club, has participated in the Music Festival, is church and Sunday School pianist and assists with the music for Bible School.

Miss Stanley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stanley, Route 2, Carthage. She has had guitar lessons, attended local music workshops, is a member of church choir, directs the Junior Church Choir, is a member of high school glee club, participated in the Music Festival, assists with the music for Bible School, is music leader for the Grange and assists with music for 4-H events. She is a junior in Cameron High School.

These girls will assist with county and local home demonstration and 4-H music programs upon their return, said Mrs. Jean M. Hubbard, Moore County home economics agent.

Appointments Made To Coaching Staff At Union Pines Consolidated School

William C. Walton, principal of the new Union Pines consolidated high school, has reported the following appointments to the coaching and physical education staff of the school:

Bob Ward has been selected as head basketball and baseball coach. He holds an A.B. Degree from Catawba College and has done advanced work at Appalachian. A native of Thomasville, he has taught at West Davidson since its inception six years ago. His athletic teams have known unusual success finishing as either champions or runner-up for five of the six years. Ward's career record is outstanding having coached 239 games and won 175 of them. In 1960 he was chosen Conference Coach of the year and was selected to coach the Western All-Stars. At Union Pines he will coach baseball, boys' basketball, and assist in football.

John Crenshaw has been designated head football coach at Union Pines. He will also coach the girls' varsity basketball and head the track program. Crenshaw was graduated from Guilford College and has a Masters Degree from the University of North Carolina. A native of Blackstone, Virginia, he has taught in the Aberdeen Schools for the past five years. At Aberdeen his teams have shown remarkable success - last year going into the state finals.

Jene Bowen will assist in football, head the junior varsity basketball program, and coach tennis and golf. Mr. Bowen holds both a Bachelor's and a Master's degree from East Carolina College. He has taught and coached at Elise High School for the past four years.

Miss Lillian Smith, who will graduate from Appalachian State Teachers College this spring, will be the girls' physical education instructor. She will assist in the junior varsity program and will travel with the girls teams.

Local People At Raleigh Dinner For N. C. Awards

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes Britt and daughter, Miss Ethel Blue Britt, were guests of the Governor of North Carolina and the North Carolina Awards Commission honoring the winners of awards for distinguished achievements in literature, fine arts, science and public service.

The dinner and presentation were held in the ballroom of Hotel Sir Walter in Raleigh on Monday.

The presentations were made by Gov. Terry Sanford.

This event marked the first time that the State of North Carolina has thus honored its citizens of distinguished achievements. Those honored were:

Inglis Fletcher, for creative achievement in literature; Francis Speight, for his genius in painting; Dr. John N. Couch, for research in the field of science and its resulting contribution to the welfare of mankind; Dr. Clarence Poe, for preeminent accomplishments in public service through journalism, and the well-known John Motley Morehead, for the magnitude of his service in the fields of science, business and public service.

Following these ceremonies, a reception was held by Governor and Mrs. Sanford at the Governor's mansion. Three hundred and fifty invitations were sent out and 350 persons attended.

Excessive speed again led other factors last year as the single greatest cause of street and highway accidents. More than 14,000 persons were killed and more than 1,223,000 were injured as a direct result of speeding violations. Other major causes of accidents included failure to yield the right-of-way and driving on the wrong side of the road.
